News of the Diamond

The local high school ball team went to Guide Rock Thursday and defeated Guide Rock 4 to 3.

Friday they played Bladen here and lost an exciting game 9 to 8 in 10 innings. Red Cloud scored 7 runs in the first inning but were held scoreless until the ninth when they tied the score but lost out by some loose playing. The home run by Saunders was the feature.

Score 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
 Bladen 0 2 0 1 0 1 0 2 2 1-9
 Red Cloud 7 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0-8

Hits—Bladen 10, Red Cloud 9.
 Errors—Bladen 4, Red Cloud 7.

Batteries—Bladen, Green and Hall; Red Cloud—Hines and McIntosh.

Umpire—Betz.

In witnessing the above game we were shown some available material which with others in town Red Cloud could have a local team here without much trouble.

Guide Rock, Cowles, Blue Hill, Lawrence, Inavale, Bladen and other towns close by have local teams, why not Red Cloud? Come men put some shoulders to the wheel and let us organize a team. Think it over and then call a meeting and start the ball rolling.

Nelson Phelps

Nelson Phelps was born in Utica, New York, Nov. 20, 1833 and removed to Ohio where he received a college education. He removed to Nebraska in 1873 and took a homestead on which he lived for several years and then he with his family removed to Red Cloud where his death occurred May 24, 1912 at 7:25 p. m. He leaves a wife and two sons to mourn. Two sons and two daughters preceded him in death they being Irving who was called just six weeks ago on the same day and hour that the father's death occurred and Maude, Lee and Edie died several years ago. The life history of Mr. Phelps would be of great interest if written. He was a man born of wealthy parents, who has passed thru life and experienced success and failures. All the 78 years of his allotted time is full of interest to those who knew him best and he was a pure minded quiet man.

The funeral took place at the family residence on Seward street at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Rev. G. W. Hummel conducted the funeral services and interment took place in the Red Cloud cemetery.

More to Be Remembered. The man of now has much more excuse for making mistakes than did Julius Caesar or Alexander the Great. The world is bigger and there is more in it. There is more to be remembered. There are machines now in everyday use that would have given the Conqueror of Gaul a headache to have even looked at. There is enough complexity in a single business day to drive Alexander into a brainstorm.

Ingenious Old Sea Clock. The most popular form of old sea clock was the sandglass, which greatly resembled the present day egg boiler. Many of these glasses were timed to run 24 hours, and prior to the ship leaving land the glass was set exactly at noon. If it was carefully watched and turned as soon as the sand ran down the skipper could reckon the days with fair accuracy.

Human Brain Not Perfect. Every man who holds a position supposedly knows just how his work should be done. He has been taught every movement that is necessary. He works more or less by rule and he has the experience and the methods of every man who has ever done such work to guide him. Yet mistakes will be made. The brain is 80 per cent water, after all.
