Uses of the Monocle.

"Why do you wear a monocle in parliament?" "Well, you see," replied the candid tourist, "some of those speakers are deucedly dull, but you can't well go to sleep, you know, with one eye propped open with a bit of glass."

Cannot Endure Human Gaze.

Wild animals are irritated by the gaze of man. If you are without arms, it has been found a good plan to pretend not to see the beast at all. He takes the gaze as a challenge.

Seems Immune to Earthquakes.

Earthquakes occur with considerable frequency in New Zealand, but no damage has so far been noticed in the case of re-inforced concrete.

Makes Forgery Impossible.

The forgery of all Bank of England notes is quickly detected, because of secret marks which are constantly being changed. They are visible only under the microscope.

Daily Thought.

"All men should cultivate a good and firm determination, and vow that what they once undertake they will never give up."

Turnovers.

A boy remembers his mother's turnovers with more joy than his father's.—Omaha News.

Curious English Custom.

Every Easter a curious custom is observed in rural England, the auctioneer putting up a field and accepting bids only so long as a number of boys are running a race over a fixed course. The moment the hindmost boy reaches the goal the hammer falls and the meadow is knocked down to him who has made the last bid. This having been satisfactorily settled, those present sit down to a meal of bread, cheese and spring onions.—London Tit-Bits.

Mistakes Must Be Expected.

Most people go over the same routine every day. They rise at the same hour and lie down at the same hour. In all that space of time between their rising up and their lying down they are doing familiar things. Every movement they may make is one that they made yesterday, and the day before that. There is no excuse, apparently, for errors. But every man who is familiar with office work, shop work or any other form of human endeavor knows that there is always a certain percentage of mistakes to be expected.

Great Expectations.

Now and then a man does something really worthy of praise; but the trouble with the critic is that he gets into a blue funk if he isn't perpetually receiving verbal bouquets for the thousand and one unimportant and very ordinary samples of his handiwork.

Sun Fatal to Monkeys.

In Manila some monkeys were exposed to the sunshine and died in about 75 minutes, but other monkeys under the shade of an umbrella set in the sun were unharmed.

Perfected Alarm Indicator.

A new alarm indicator for firemen switches on an incandescent light at a point on a map corresponding with the place from which the alarm is set.

Wanted 'Em Back.

"Our engagement is at an end. Leave my presence at once, sir, and forever!" said the angry maiden, stamping her foot. "Oh, very well," answered the young man, calmly, "I'll gladly leave your presence, but I shall take my presents with me."

Bee's Eye for Landmarks.

There can be little doubt that so intelligent an insect as a bee has a long memory and a keen eye for landmarks. This is testified by the fact that almost all bees fly by day, whereas such creatures as moths—of no fixed home or occupation—fly in the darkness. A bee would be lost at midnight because it could not recognize its surroundings.

Not a Happy Thought.

"Yes," said the preacher, "money is the root of all evil. It is dross. When money was invented a curse was laid upon mankind. It is a stench in the nostrils. The Lord saith: 'Ye have sold yourselves for naught, and ye shall be redeemed without money.' The collection will now be taken."

Extremes.

Dugald (in response to friendly invitation)—"Well, man, I never touch whisky now, unless I'm at the height of hilarity or the depth of depression; but I daresay I'm at present just in the state of mind that would justify a bit taste!"—London Opinion.

Making Use of "Luck."

We don't deny that some men are "lucky," but at the same time did you ever notice what a remarkable aptitude they display in taking advantage of all the "luck" that befalls them?

Scientific Disillusionment.

One of those scientists claims he is now able to prove that Eve was not a beauty. The next scientist will probably try to prove that Adam married her for her money.

GREEN BACKS in STRAW STACKS

THE wastage of grain by the average Threshing Machine is far more than many suppose. The Operator usually knows it, but he can't help it with that kind of Machine, so he covers it up all he can and lets it go at that. The Farmer suspects it, but thinks he has to put up with it, and much of his hard-earned money goes over into the straw stack.

This great wastage is the result of employing an incompetent type of Threshing Machine that rushes the straw to the stack, but does not beat the grain out of it.

It is up to you Farmers to say what Machine will thresh your grain this season. You have worked hard to grow the grain and you pay the bill for threshing it. You can't afford to divide your profits with the straw pile, for every bushel that goes into the stack is money right out of your pocket.

You Can Save Your Thresh Bill by Hiring a Red River Special to Do Your Threshing

It will save the grain for you; it will waste less of your time; it will do your job quicker; it will clean your grain better; it will pay you all around. It is the only Threshing Machine made that uses the true and sure method of separation by beating the grain out of the straw just as you would do with a pitchfork.

The Big Cylinder, the Man Behind the Gun, and the Shakers that toss the straw up and beat it as you would do with a pitchfork save the grain that others waste, whether it be wheat, oats, rye, barley, flax, peas, rice, alfalfa, timothy or other grains or seeds.

THE RED RIVER SPECIAL WORKS ON AN ENTIRELY DIFFERENT PRINCIPLE OF SEPARATION from any other make. It beats it out while other makes hurry the straw to the stack and expect the grain to fall out, which it does not do.

Have your threshing done this year by a Red River Special. IT WILL SAVE YOUR THRESH BILL.

Write us or call on our Branch House or Dealer for the proof.
