Deaths Since Our Last Issue.

Mabel Estella Beckwith
 Mabel Estella Beckwith was born near Constantine, Michigan, Nov. 27, 1892. She came with her parents to Red Cloud when but a child. She received her education in our public schools with marked success. Desiring that she would become a nurse by profession she went to Chicago and studied in the best technical school of that city, finishing her course with honors.

She sacrificed herself in the service of the sick under her charge. The long hours of arduous work at the bedside proved too much for even her strong constitution and she returned home to rest and recuperate. However such was the severity of her affliction that she failed to recover and she passed peacefully away June 6th., 1912, at the age of 20 years 6 months and 9 days.

Mabel was an excellent student, painstaking and careful in all her work, persistent and trustworthy. Unusually ambitious she mapped out for herself a career of real usefulness but in carrying out this ambition she laid down her life for her friends.

Early in life she accepted Christ as her Savior and up to the last she was content with the knowledge that "He doeth all things Well." She leaves, besides her many friends, a father, mother, one brother and two sisters. The funeral services were conducted at the home Sunday afternoon by Rev. Cole and interment took place in the city cemetery.

A young life has passed from among us To the home just over the way. To the home where death, sickness and sorrow Never come to cloud the bright day.

This young life has hopes and ambitions To help the sick and distressed, By relieving their pain and suffering By hands trained to do their best.

But the Master has said to her come. To the home where all is delight, Where all our service is for love's sake, And the Savior is our joy and light.

Louis Kudrus
 The death of Louis Kudrus occurred at his home about six miles north of Red Cloud on last Sunday, June 9th, after a brief period of illness which seemed to baffle the doctors.

He was born and had lived on the farm where he died, being 36 years of age, well known and highly respected. Both parents are still living besides five brothers and three sisters who deeply feel the loss of their beloved son and brother.

Deceased was a prominent member of the Z. C. B. J., a Bohemian fraternal society.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Hummel at the family home and the remains laid to rest in the Red Cloud cemetery.

D. R. Whitaker.
 D. R. Whitaker was buried Wednesday afternoon from his home on Seward Street, the Rev. Tompkins officiating. Mr. Whitaker has not been enjoying good health since his removal to this city about ten years ago. During the last two months he has been confined to his home and for more than a week past has been lingering between life and death.

He came to this state from Illinois, from which state he served during the civil war with courageous fidelity to duty. He was one of the few men of this city of whom no one spoke an unkind word and who had nothing but kind words for others. Modest and gentle in word and deed, he was universally respected and especially by those who knew him best.

His wife died in Illinois before his removal to this city, but her body was removed and interred in the Red Cloud cemetery. His children, although grown to maturity, were retained by the bonds of affection very near to him. There were ten of them, seven boys and three girls. The youngest, Clyde, has worked for some time at the city water works. Charles was for a number of years in the employ of the city as city engineer, but is now conducting a blacksmith and machine shop in this city. Lora is farming within two miles of town. David has been living at Columbus of late years. George, Ed and Roy all made their home here for some time. Ethel has been in the Miner Bros. store for many years and the store was closed out of respect for her bereavement. Kate, Mrs. Bert Frey, is living on a farm in this vicinity. Although so intimately associated with the Dunkards in this neighborhood that he has often been regarded as one of that persuasion, Mr. Whitaker was a Methodist, with which denomination he had been united for forty years. A kindly, gracious spirit has passed from the earth.

We make it right for you or we make it right with you. Which means that you cannot be a loser.

No we don't take any great chances by offering to do that. Because our watches are watch certainties.

They have Reputation behind them and they aren't likely to start now to disappoint.

But if one should, we agree to be the loser.

What better watch assurance could you have than this?
