Uncle John Powers of Trenton is in the city visiting with his nephew Rev. E. N. Tompkins. Mr. Powers is well known in this state having been one of the first leaders in the populist movement back in the nineties. He has lived to see practically all the measure he advocated at that time enacted into law. He has a most pleasing personality and is still an active leader in the Populist party.
Ed Beaton, who formerly conducted a large farm one and a half miles east of this city is now a resident of Oklahoma. He has sent up samples of the production of his farm near Blackwell in that state, which are now on exhibition at Platt's lumber yard. The samples comprise new potatoes as large as hen's eggs, alfalfa cut June 1st forty-two inches high, wheat stalks fifty-eight inches in length, rye the same and corn forty-six inches high. Oklahoma is unquestionably more forward than Nebraska in the matter of crops and some portions of the state are better supplied with moisture.

He is now on his way to Detroit, Michigan, where he will practice in the Homeopathic hospital of that city for a year. This should fit him to enter upon the practice of his profession with efficient preparation. Mr. Plumb is the second of the graduates of our public schools to become a graduate physician, and the Chief, with its partiality for Red Cloud graduates, hopes that he will achieve success in his chosen vocation.
Burke-Bailey
Will R. Bailey of the Bailey & Bailey shoe store, left Sunday for Walnut, Iowa, where he was united in marriage to Miss Marie Burke. The ceremony took place Tuesday morning at the Catholic church at 8 o'clock at Walnut. Mrs. Bailey is well known here as she has taught in our public schools for several years. Mr. Bailey was born and raised in Webster county and is well known. They arrived home last night and will be at home in their dwelling south of the Lincoln school. The Chief along with Mr. and Mrs. Bailey's many friends extend congratulations and wish them much joy and happiness.
Bryan-McKimmy
Tuesday morning at Liberty, Mo., occurred the marriage of Miss Pearl Bryan and Mr. Charles H. McKimmy of this place. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. R. C. Coon. Rev. Coon of Grand Island officiated. The bride is well known here as she taught in our public schools for the past four years. The groom is a salesman for Swift & Co., and has made this city his home for the past six years and is well known here. The bride and groom left Tuesday for the east for a two week's visit. They will be at home in this city after June 25. The Chief along with Mr. and Mrs. McKimmy's friends extend congratulations and wish them much joy and happiness.

Red Cloud D. of H., Lodge
Visit Guide Rock Tuesday

The D. of H. lodge of Red Cloud accepted an invitation to visit the Guide Rock lodge Tuesday June 11. The G. R. lodge met us at the train and escorted us to the hall where they entertained us until noon. Then we were ushered to the dining room where we partook of the most sumptuous meal that it has been our privilege to partake of for some time.
Lodge opened at 2:30 p. m. The drill team of G. R. initiated a candidate and they certainly did fine work. They also gave the memorial services which was grand. There were several good readings and a dialogue by the G. R. lodge in which a new lodge was organized and privileged to see the real goat.
Ice cream and cake were served and they then accompanied us to the train. It was indeed with regrets that we saw the day, which was so fraught with pleasures, pass away. We proclaim the G. R. lodge to be the best entertainers that we have ever seen and this has been a day that will forever linger in the memory of each one present.
