Indian Land to Be Sold at Auction—To Resist Mexican Raiders—Will Issue Appeal to Suffragists.

Waukesha, Wis.—In the vicinity of his birth and surrounded by the friends of his youth and early struggles in his legal profession, Eugene W. Chafin, now a resident of Arizona, and the prohibition candidate for president of the United States, was officially notified Saturday of his nomination by the national convention which met at Atlantic City, N. J., July 10.

Earthquake Causes Great Damage. Constantinople.—The details of the earthquake, which are coming in slowly owing to the interruption of the wires, indicate that the seismic disturbances were widespread. Several hundred people have been killed, thousands are homeless and outbreaks of fire have occurred in many towns and villages.

INDIAN LAND AT AUCTION. Million and Half Acres Soon to Be Put on Sale.

Washington.—About 1,500,000 acres of Indian lands in the former Shoshone, Utah and Crow reservations in Utah, Wyoming and Montana are to be sold at public auction at minimum prices ranging from 50 cents to $1.50 per acre in accordance with an order signed by President Taft and Secretary Fisher.

Appeal to Suffragists. Chicago.—Three of the four women members of the progressive national committee have decided to issue an appeal for support of the new party to suffragists in the five states where women have the right to vote.

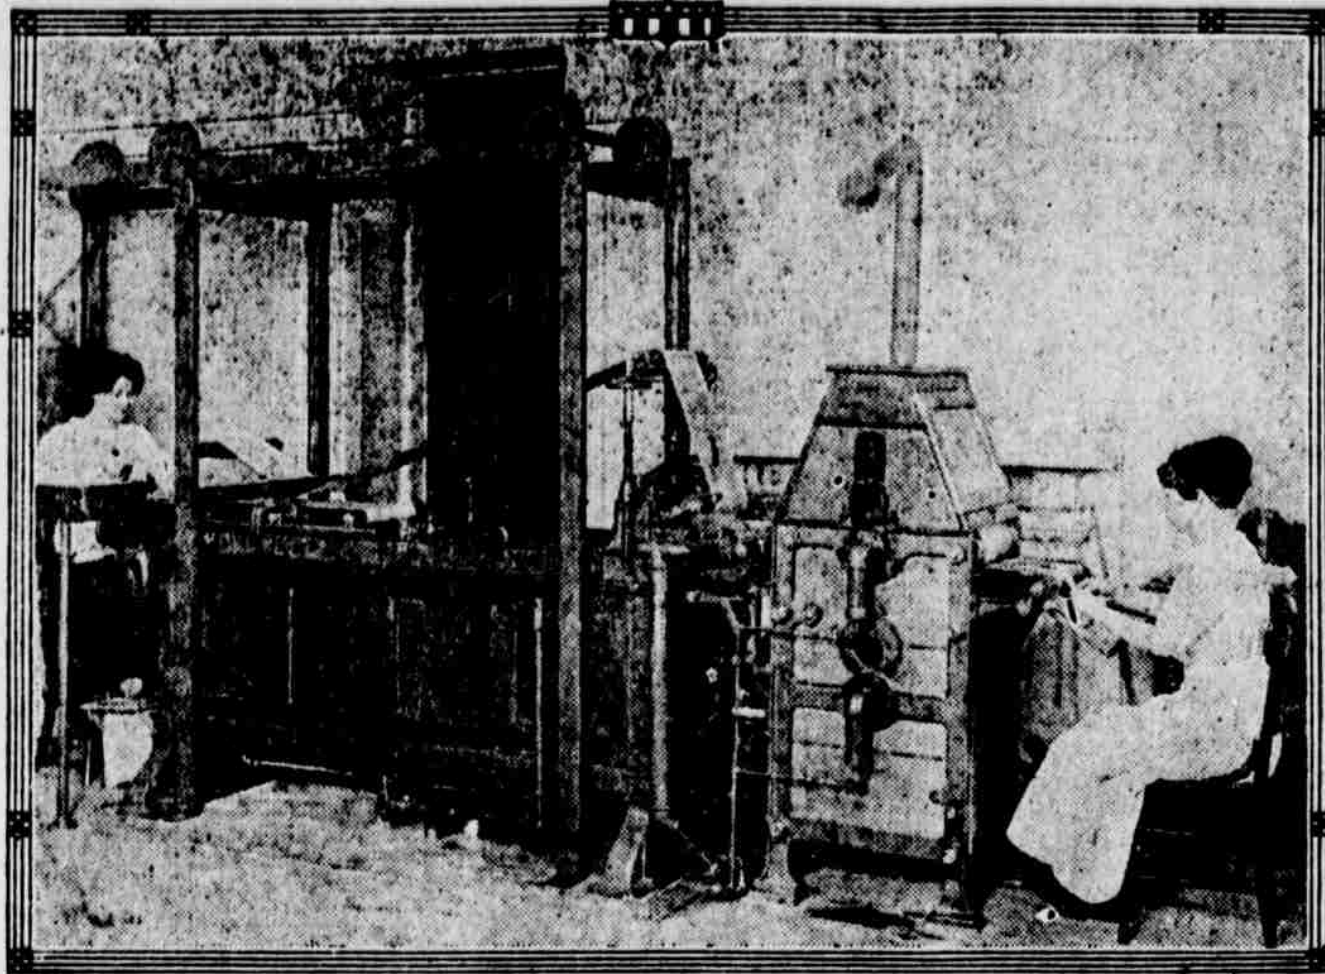

To Defeat Mexican Raiders. Austin, Tex.—With border towns along the Texas-Mexican line aroused to a real wartime spirit, scores of messages poured into the governor's office demanding that the state of Texas take matters into its own hands, fight and defeat the Mexican outlaws as it did in the pioneer days.

Will Search for Buried Treasure. New York.—The legend of $30,000,000 hidden in the obscure island named Cocos in the Pacific ocean, off the west coast of Costa Rica, is the lure which brought Frederick Smothen from Calgary, Canada, to this city, whence he sailed for Central America.

Keeping Currency as Relic. Washington.—The vast horde of confederate currency seized by the union army during the civil war, which has been stored in the federal armory for half a century, is being distributed among institutions over the country for preservation as historic relics.

Reassured by American Warships. Port Au Prince, Hayti.—Many persons suspected of sympathizing with General Saint Just, reported on his way from Jamaica to attempt to wrest the presidency from General Auguste, have been arrested.
