BACKACHE NOT A DISEASE

But a Symptom, a Danger Signal Which Every Woman Should Heed.

Backache is a symptom of organic weakness or derangement. If you have backache do not neglect it. To get permanent relief you must reach the root of the trouble. Read about Mrs. Woodall's experience.

Morton's Gap, Kentucky.—"I suffered two years with female disorders, my health was very bad and I had a continual backache which was simply awful. I could not stand on my feet long enough to cook a meal's victuals without my back nearly killing me, and I would have such dragging sensations I could hardly bear it. I had soreness in each side, could not stand tight clothing, and was irregular. I was completely run down. On advice I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am enjoying good health. It is now more than two years and I have not had an ache or pain since. I do all my own work, washing and everything, and never have backache any more. I think your medicine is grand and I praise it to all my neighbors. If you think my testimony will help others you may publish it."—Mrs. OLLIE WOODALL, Morton's Gap, Kentucky.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (Confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

BIG SAVING IN FUEL

IMPROVEMENTS AT THE STATE SCHOOL AT BEATRICE.

GOSSIP FROM STATE CAPITAL

Items of Interest Gathered from Reliable Sources and Presented in Condensed Form to Our Readers.

Extensive improvements which have been in the course of construction all summer at the state institution for feeble minded at Beatrice are nearing completion. E. J. Schurig, consulting engineer for the state work, says that the state will be able to make a big saving in fuel cost. Last January the coal bill for the institution was $3,250. The heating plant was old and had been carelessly patched and tinkered with until it was at a low point of efficiency. There were many breaks in the big pipe lines in the tunnels. Great quantities of coal had to be burned before any results could be secured, and the system was altogether wasteful and extravagant. During the past summer the heating system was thoroughly overhauled and rebuilt. The cost of the work was about $10,000, and Mr. Schurig estimates that this amount will all be made up in savings of fuel cost for the coming winter.

Fire Commissioner's Rival.
An old soldier of Lincoln, William Orr by name, is a rival of State Fire Commissioner C. A. Randall and following each and every fire in the state takes fully as great an interest in the affair as does the state official. Randall gets his pay from the insurance companies, spends what he wants to and turns the remainder over to the state. Orr gets nothing unless those to whom he writes desire to know the origin of all fire and the secret of that agency. The latter's usual charge is $15 for the secret. Sometimes it is paid and sometimes it is not. Usually the letters are forwarded to the state department and the matter ends there. Mr. Orr does not believe that many fires are the acts of incendiaries and for the sum mentioned he promises to disclose the real cause.

New Buildings for State University.
If the state will enter into a contract with the city of Lincoln whereby at least $100,000 will be expended annually in the erection of new buildings at the state university downtown campus, the city will in return purchase the property needed for campus extension and will present it to the state without cost. This is the proposition now being put into shape for submission to the city council and the people of Lincoln and to the next session of the state legislature.

File Certificates for Taft Electors.
Nominating certificates for eight candidates for presidential electors who will vote for the election of President Taft were filed Saturday with Secretary of State Wait. The certificates were in the form of a petition signed by 5,901 voters of the state who ask the secretary of state to place eight Taft electors on the official ballot. J. H. Culver, vice chairman of the Taft state organization, filed the petitions.

Greeks Getting Anxious.
Five hundred Greeks of Nebraska are anxiously awaiting a reply from the Greek minister at Washington to a telegram sent by John Beshliss, president of the local Greek organization. The telegram of the local president was sent after more than forty Greeks had come to him to find out if there were such need for them in the Greek army as to justify them in starting at once.

Governor Issues Proclamation.
Under date of October 5, Governor Aldrich has issued a proclamation announcing that on Tuesday, November 5, a general election will be held in Nebraska for the election of state officers, the list beginning with governor, also congressmen and members of the legislature, and for an expression of preference for United States senator, and also for or against five proposed amendments to the state constitution.

Want it Spelled With an "O."
Protesting against the spelling of the name Monroe, citizens of that place have filed a complaint with the state railway commission asking that the Union Pacific railroad officials be compelled to change from "Munroe" to "Monroe." The commercial club of the little town takes the matter very much to heart according to the communications forwarded to state officials, and the merchants declare that the reformed spelling of the word should be stopped at once by action of the railway commissioners.

New State Building.
Land Commissioner Cowles reports the completion of a new laundry building at the asylum at Hastings. The building cost $20,000. It is 126x142 feet, all on one floor of cement. An average of 9,000 pieces go through the laundry every work day. The old laundry building, which has two stories, will be divided into small rooms for the use of nurses and attendants who now occupy rooms in the wards. This will give room for forty additional patients in the wards.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By E. O. BELLETS, Director of Evening Department, The Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 20.

MISSION TO THE GENTILES.

LESSON TEXT—Mark 7:24-30 and Matthew 8:5-13.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Him that cometh to me I will lift up in no wise cast out."—John 6:37.

Chronologically the incident of the centurions servant precedes that of the Syrophenician woman, though we will look at them in the order suggested. The one incident occurs near the border of Tyre and Sidon, probably about May or June, A. D. 29, and the other in Capernaum during the summer of A. D. 28. Both are incidents in the life of Jesus that have to do with his ministry as the Hebrew Messiah to those who were outside of the pale of Judaism.

At the beginning of Mark's record (v. 24) we have a wonderful suggestion as to the strain of Jesus, ministry and the accompanying lesson that true righteousness cannot be hid, it speaks for itself.

There are four uses of the word "answered" in Matthew's record of his incident (Matt. 15:21-28) that are suggestive. Let us first, however, get the setting. This woman was a Greek—a Gentile; by race she was a Syrophenician, that is, a Canaanite. Thus she was a descendant of that race whom God, by the hand of Joshua, had driven out to make room for the Hebrew nation, and as such is under the ban of God. See Eph. 2:12. Yet this woman reaches Jesus, her trouble being that her daughter is possessed by an unclean spirit. At her approach she takes a lowly place at Jesus' feet and requests that he heal the child. She calls him the "Son of David," and "He answered her not a word." Matt. 15:23. She had no claim upon him as the Messiah. This was the wrong footing, for she was not a child of the kingdom. It was her need that drove her to him. How she had heard of him is suggested in Mark 3:8 and 7:24, cf. Rom. 10:17. There are some questions that silence will not answer. A wrong conclusion will be reached, as in this case the disciples came to a wrong conclusion and desired to "send her away." Contrast Jesus' patience with the disciples' impatience, "she crieth after us" and emphasize the danger of external judgment. There are many great moral issues today that are demanding an other answer than that of silence.

The Answer of Law.
Jesus then made a second answer, the answer of law, Matthew 15:24, in which he accepts her estimate of him as the Jewish Messiah. His work was primarily to the Jews (John 1:11, 12). But her need was great, and identifying herself with the need of the child she "worshipped" Jesus. He is more than the Messiah, he is a Saviour. Not yet, however, is Jesus ready to grant her request. His third answer (v. 25), the answer of mercy, is literally that first the children must be fed, and she replied, "Yes, Lord; even the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs." For this saying, viz., that she did not protest against the words he had spoken, but accepted the proper estimate of him as being the Jewish Messiah and herself as outside of that covenant, he made a fourth answer, the answer to faith. He answered: "O woman, great is thy faith," v. 28, and grants her carte blanc (v. 28), "be it unto thee even as thou wilt." As outcasts, we must cast ourselves "at his feet."

Let us now look at the account of the centurion's servant. Once more Jesus is appealed to by one who is outside the Hebrew covenant and on behalf of a servant. In the other incident there was the interruption of a seeming refusal and here the interruption of an instantaneous granting of the request. Again we need to read the parallel accounts given by the other evangelists. Verse ten of this section is the key to this whole story. What are some of the marks of a "great faith?" First, it is tested. The servant was "dear unto the centurion," Luke 7:2. Second, it is progressive "when he heard of Jesus," Luke 7:3. Third, it will be recognized by others, Luke 7:4.

The Great Faith.
The protest in v. 9, and the remarkable commendation of Jesus thereon, is a solemn warning to all who are in covenant relations with God and his Son whom he has sent. Jesus had there a glimpse of that great coming day when all Gentiles would be gathered unto him, v. 11 (cf. Rev. 7:9). The centurion received for his faith commendation, and healing for his servant as well, v. 13.

Why should there be such a difference in the treatment of these two when we read of each that they had great faith?—Matthew 15:28 and 8:10. The difference can be explained only by the fact that the Master knew all the facts about both and he adopted such tactics for each as were best suited to the case. This impresses us with the truth that personal work cannot be done by any rule of thumb; indeed, the Master seems seldom to have used the same method twice. Is there then no common factor in these two incidents? The yielding of faith always gains that which is sought.

PIMPLES COVERED FACE

1613 Dayton St., Chicago, Ill.—"My face was very red and irritated and was covered with pimples. The pimples festered and came to a head. They itched and burned and when I scratched them became sore. I tried soaps and they would not stop the itching and burning of the skin. This lasted for a month or more. At last I tried Cuticura Ointment and Soap. They took out the burning and itching of the skin, soothing it very much and giving the relief that the others failed to give me. I used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment about three weeks and was completely cured." (Signed) Miss Clara Mueller, Mar. 16, 1912.

Wise Young Man.
That was a very wise Cambridge student of whom the London story tellers were talking some time ago. One of his college friends finding himself without funds, went to this Solomon of students to borrow. He found him in bed. Seizing him by the shoulder, he shook him.
"I say," he said, "are you asleep?"
"Why do you ask?" queried the other, sleepily.
"I want to borrow a sovereign."
"Yes," said the other, turning over and closing his eyes. "I'm asleep."
