

State Woman Suffrage to Petition Legislature

Omaha, Dec. 10th.—After one of the most successful and best attended meetings ever held, the Nebraska Woman Suffrage Association came to a close on Friday morning, December 6th. Just twice as many delegates were registered this year as the previous one, there being sixty-two besides the state officers.

A resolution of thanks to the Omaha committees and the Bureau of Publicity of the Omaha Commercial Club was drawn up by the Association, for the gracious hospitality and excellent work done preceding the convention.

The association pledged itself to initiate a petition under the initiative law to be presented to the Secretary of State and to also petition the present legislature. The individuals of the different societies which make up the state association pledged $2,700.00 to defray expenses for the work of the coming year.

The officers elected for the coming year are: Mrs. Draper Smith, Omaha, president; Mrs. Mary Kovanda, Table Rock, vice president; Miss Mary Williams, Kenesaw, corresponding secretary; Miss Daisy Doane, Omaha, recording secretary; and Mrs. Will E. Hardy, Lincoln, Treasurer. Two auditors comprise the state board, Mrs. Hyland H. Wheeler, Lincoln, and Mrs. M. M. Claffin, University Place, being elected to these offices. Dr. Inez C. Philbrick, of Lincoln, Nebr., the retiring president was made honorary president, as is also Miss Hayward of Chadron.

Country Merchant Need Not Fear Parcels Post

When the parcels post is once put into active service it will be up to the merchants in the country towns to let the people know that they can and will sell them goods just as cheap as the department stores in the cities do, or can afford to sell the same class of goods. As a rule many country merchants carry just what their customers send off to the mail order houses for, but they fail to let the public know what they carry in stock and the prices at which it is sold. On the other hand the mail order houses keep eternally advertising their goods and prices and they get the orders, too. If country merchants would do as the city merchant does they would have nothing to fear from the parcels post.—Monroe Appeal.

One Thousand Delegates Already Appointed for Farmers Convention

Omaha, Dec. 9th.—More than a thousand delegates have been appointed to attend the Nebraska farmers association to be held in Omaha, December 16 to 19th. From every angle the meeting indicates a grand success. The program is the best ever published, and if weather conditions continue to be as they now are, there is not a doubt but what there will be from a thousand to fifteen hundred delegates in attendance.

The first session of the convention will open Tuesday evening at 7:30 p. m., at Hotel Rome; President L. C. Lawson, Clarks, Neb., presiding. Mayor Dahlman will address the convention, his topic being "Opening the Gates of the City"; this will be responded to by Hon. J. B. Grinnell, vice president of the Congress, after which president Haverstick of the Omaha Commercial Club, and Mr. J. S. Canady, Minden, Nebr., President of the State Co-operative Shipping Association will extend greetings. Then follows the regular program:

The Parcels Post.

The parcels post system of mail delivery will be inaugurated January 1, 1913, then it will be no uncommon thing for people to do most of their shopping by mail. For instance, if the housewife wants a package of starch or some sugar all she will have to do is to phone to town and have it sent via parcels post. This is going to be a great innovation in the way of shopping convenience, but it will be hard work for the mail man, and hard on the pockets of the express companies.—Ex.
