RED CLOUD, NEBRASKA, JANUARY 16, 1913.

NUMBER 3

Y. M. C. A.

Opened Monday

On Monday evening occurred the opening of Red Cloud's new Young Men's Christian Association rooms. All the rooms were filled with spectators, standing room was at a premium. The rooms were carefully prepared and present a pleasing home like effect. The main room is arranged for basket ball, base ball and other indoor athletics. The west room is fitted up for a reading room and chess and checker head quarters. The north room is equipped with a billiard table and a pool table. The walls of all these rooms are freshly papered and painted and everything is new and clean.

The Red Cloud Citizens Band began the ceremonies with one of its magnificent musical selections. Chairman Blackledge then asked the attention of the audience for a few minutes and gave a detailed history of the movement that made it possible for this city to have an organization of this character. He said that the initial credit belongs to Superintendent Moritz because he alone raised the original fund for the payment of two years rent and the purchase of paraphernalia. Prof. Moritz raised about seven hundred and fifty dollars. This amount was subscribed and paid by sixty five citizens of the town. Dr. Boles was entitled to credit because he had worn his fingers to the quick in splicing ropes and driving tacks. Paul Storey was commended for his efforts in attempting to out do the Professor in raising funds, he worked himself from sickness to health and back to sickness and his labors were meritorious. Frank Cowden likewise deserved mention for his boosting proclivities but they developed in such an unusual state that he had been transferred to Yuma, Colorado where he was still telling about the Red Cloud Y. M. C. A. Flave Grice was praised for the fusses he had with John Tomlinson over the installation of the electric lights.

Mr. Blackledge then stated that the people of Red Cloud had contributed the sum of twelve hundred forty six dollars for the new organization, nearly every dollar of which was paid in, he called attention to the following rules which were adopted:

I will be industrious and truthful at all times.

I will keep myself clean, physically, mentally and morally.

I will not use profane or obscene language, or liquor or tobacco in any form in or about the rooms of the association.

I will not engage in rowdyism, or boisterous conduct, in or about the rooms of the association, or be destructive of its property.

I will conform to such rules as shall be from time to time promulgated by the Executive Board, submit to the authority of the director or person in charge of the rooms, and agree that any violation on my part will forfeit my rights of membership.

The membership fees payable in advance are:

For boys between the ages of 12 and 16 two dollars annually.

For youth between ages of 16 and 20 three dollars annually.

All over twenty years five dollars annually.

The Chairman's address was followed by a spirited game of basket ball between the high school boys and the team from Cowles in which the Cowles club proved to be the victor by the score of eight to six.

The girls then played a game of basket ball and succeeded in putting more spirit and enthusiasm into the game than the boys did. After which Rev. Bayne gave an exhibition of Indian club swinging. The Reverend gentleman showed that he was perfectly familiar with this form of exercise and his swinging called forth many remarks of commendation. The adults then engaged in a hot game of two old cat in which the honors were
