PATENTS

You Can't Tell.
Interested Lady—Oh, dear, look! That's Mr. Rhymer, the celebrated poet. See how his finger touches his lip, and how his lofty brow is knit in thought. Oh, I wonder what sweet morsel of verse he is meditating?
Mr. Rhymer (to himself)—I have to order sugar from the grocer's, beef at the butcher's, pay for last week's bread and bring some soothing syrup for the baby. I wish to goodness Mary would attend to all these things herself!

What's the Use?
"It did Jack no good to marry his stenographer, for she continued the habit of the office in their home."
"How so?"
"When he starts to dictate she takes him down."

It's the easiest thing in the world to instruct another how to do things.

CONSTIPATION

Munyon's Paw-Paw Pills are unlike all other laxatives or cathartics. They coax the liver into activity by gentle methods, they do not scour; they do not grip; they do not weaken; but they do start all the secretions of the liver and stomach in a way that soon puts these organs in a healthy condition and corrects constipation. Munyon's Paw-Paw Pills are a tonic to the stomach, liver and nerves. They invigorate instead of weaken; they enrich the blood instead of impoverishing it; they enable the stomach to get all the nourishment from food that is put into it. Price 25 cents. All Druggists.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Director of Evening Department The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)

LESSON FOR MARCH 9
THE DESTRUCTION OF SODOM.

LESSON TEXT—Gen. 19:12-17; 23-25.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Come ye out from among them, and be ye separate saith the Lord, and touch no unclean thing."—1 Cor. 6:17.

No teacher of this lesson should omit a study of chapter 18, even though he may not refer to it explicitly in this connection. We have there presented a believer's privilege, (1) friendship (v. 17) (a) with God, (b) with man. (2) Intercession, v. 23; (3) knowledge, v. 25, 1 c. The art, the power, the place, the glory, the spirit, of intercession, yes, the blessing of intercession is to be coveted by all believers. Abraham's intercession prevailed though outwardly it seemed to fail, see 18:26. The prepared teacher ought also be familiar with the story of the change of Abram's name and of God's dealing with Abraham and Sarah as recorded in chapters 17 and 18.

Lot and Sodom.
I. The Warning, vv. 17-23.—Lot had "pitched his tent towards Sodom," and now the time for the execution of another judgment upon sin had arrived. God, however, here gives us another illustration of his mercy which always precedes judgment. That mercy was not only to a righteous man, one who had therefore a degree of worthiness, but also to an undeserving member of the same family, see 7:1 and Acts 16:31. First of all, Lot is called upon to separate himself from his neighbors. Lot attempted to convey this warning to his sons-in-law, but it was too late, his testimony, his manner of life, his aims, and his ambitions had corresponded with theirs for such a period of time that the fact of his belonging to the family of the promise was forgotten and "he seemed as one that mocked unto his sons-in-law." God is calling us from the corruptions and the plagues of Babylon (Rev. 18:4) and to separate ourselves from Sodom, see the golden text. While God is long suffering (2 Peter, 3:9) we must also remember that if men will sin willfully, if they persist in their wickedness, judgment is sure to follow, v. 13, also 2 Peter 3:10, 11. When judgment does come, as it did in this case, God knows how to save his own, 2 Peter 2:7-9. The voice of sin cries from our cities today. The voice of poverty, of intemperance, of injustice, and it reaches "before the face of the Lord," (Jas. 5:4) and unless America heeds, unless men repent, God will most certainly punish, Acts 17:30, 31. This punishment of Sodom was not only the development of their own wickedness, but by direct agency of God's destroying angels. Look up the subject of judgments.

Lot, we are told, was a righteous man, 2 Peter 2:7, but he was most sadly connected with the world, and hence lost his testimony (v. 14). The church of today is constantly hindered by the incubus of believers of this type. God expects the disciple to so separate himself from things that though he may be "in the world, he is not of the world."
Even Lot was loath to leave (vv. 15, 16), and later many of the Israelites were full of regret over the missing flesh-pots of Egypt. The angels of God had to fairly drag Lot out of the doomed city. He came near losing his very life as he persistently clung to his property. The greatest weapon and the most efficient one the devil has to use in his warfare for human souls is procrastination.

God's Patience.
The long suffering and patience of God are most wonderfully shown in verse 16, and the whole secret of Lot's salvation was that the "Lord was merciful unto him," Eph. 2:8.
II. The Destruction, vv. 23-29.—Lot escaped to a little city, Zoar, which God in his mercy promised not to destroy (v. 21), and it was not till Lot was clear of Sodom that destruction came. God could not break his word. He had promised Abram, and had Abram pursued his importunities, chapter 18, doubtless even Sodom might not have been so utterly destroyed. There was, as has been suggested, probably a volcanic eruption of gases, petroleum, etc., but there accompanied it a supernatural manifestation also, for it "rained down," v. 24. The words "looked back," referring to Lot's wife, imply more than a mere passing glance. Her heart was in the city she was leaving, that city so full of pride, of bread, and of ease, Ezek. 16:49. She died as did Phly at Pompeii, suffocated by the gases, and her body became incrustated with the salt.
Life is a gift of God, we hold it only upon certain conditions; we can choose good or evil. God loves us and wishes all men to be saved, promises pardon to the penitent and foretells doom for the impenitent. Mr. Moody's story of "Judge Lot" would be effective in presenting this lesson. Present to the boys the slogan of "clean living; clean speech; clean athletics." Forget not to show love to strangers, Heb. 13:2. Sodom needed ten men to redeem it. What American city has but ten righteous men in it? Read Deut. 22:30. The punishment of crime is a stern necessity.

Increase in Sales of Liquor.

Omaha.—According to the receipts of the internal revenue collector for the district of Nebraska, the consumption of beer in this territory is increasing. The month of January shows a marked increase over the corresponding month of 1912. In January of 1912 the total internal revenue receipts for taxes paid for the manufacture of beer were $248,235.72, while the total amount received in internal revenues for the corresponding month of the year 1913 is $258,721.45, an increase of more than $10,000 for a single period of thirty days.

To Receive Gov. Morehead and Staff.
Washington.—The appointment of Representative Dan V. Stephens as chairman of the committee to receive Governor Morehead of Nebraska and his staff when they come to the inaugural ceremonies has been formally ratified by the Nebraska inaugural committee. Mr. Stephens said that the following Nebraskans were to serve on the committee: Representative Loveck, Charles E. Magoon, formerly of Lincoln, and Dr. Davidson formerly of Omaha.

Straighten That Lame Back!

Backache is one of Nature's warnings of kidney weakness. Kidney disease kills thousands every year. Safety is only certain if the early warnings are heeded while help is possible. Doan's Kidney Pills have helped many thousands to get rid of backache, strengthen weak kidneys and regulate bladder and urinary disorders.

Don't neglect a bad back. If your back is lame in the morning, if it hurts to stoop or lift, if the dull aching keeps up all day, making work a burden and rest impossible—suspect the kidneys. If the urine is off color and shows a sediment; if passages are irregular, too frequent, too scanty, or scalding, this is further proof. There may be dizzy spells, headaches, nervousness, dropsy swellings, rheumatic attacks, and a general tired-out, run-down condition.

From Serious Dropsy To Perfect Health
George Davis, 524 S. 23rd St., Vincennes, Ind., says: "My back ached day and night. I became nervous and irritable and had such headaches, I thought my head would burst. I could not work without terrible dizzy feelings and was afraid to venture far alone for fear of falling. For days at a time I could not urinate, and finally when the passage did take place, the odor would be stifling. My feet and arms were swollen to twice their natural size. When I touched the swollen area, a dent would remain. I finally began using Doan's Kidney Pills and soon noticed a change for the better. The swelling in my limbs and arms went down, the dizzy spells left, and ere long I was in as good health as ever before in my life."

Use Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy that is publicly recommended by 100,000 persons in many different lands. Doan's act quickly, contain no harmful nor habit-forming drugs and are wholly harmless, though remarkably effective.
