BE ON THE SAFE SIDE

It is true that you are not likely to lose your savings if deposited in any good bank—but you are ABSOLUTELY CERTAIN NOT to lose them when you deposit where you have the additional protection of the State Guaranty Law. Such protection is offered you here.

It is surely "good business" to deposit where you get absolutely guaranteed protection, in preference to placing money in a bank that guarantees nothing.

The State Guaranty Law is behind every dollar deposited in this bank, and when you open an account here, you are ON THE SAFE SIDE.

SEE THE NON-SKID TREADS ON NO-RIM-CUT TIRES

These are extra treads, made of very tough rubber, vulcanized on to the Goodyear tire. Thus a double-thick tread.

The extra tread consists of deep-cut blocks. They present to the road surface countless edges and angles.

Each block widens out at the base, so the strains are distributed, the same as on smooth-tread tires.

Come see how efficient, how enduring, is this Goodyear winter tread.

Change of Editors Attract A Great Deal of Interest

The following clippings from some of our exchanges will prove interesting reading, and shows how the various editors of our neighboring towns viewed the Chief under the editorship of the various public organizations, during the editor's five weeks vacation:

"At the request of Brother Hale, the ministers of Red Cloud edited last week's issue of the Chief. It would seem now that the courteous thing for the ministers to do will be to invite Bro Hale to fill their pulpits.—Argus.

Yes, that's right and he could undoubtedly fill the bill if he kept close to the "devil" while trying to make a "good impression." Of course the audience might look at him and perhaps his theology, but his sermon would be without a "i", and we think he'd see before he — away to shake the "i" of the parson if he didn't — the opportunity of reading this "i".—Com.-Ad.

Brother Hale, of the Red Cloud Chief last week turned his paper over to the ministers of that town to run as they wished. It was a very interesting issue and indicated that the ministers can write as well as preach. It would be a vast help to most newspapers if they would pay a little more attention to the spiritual wants of humanity instead of scrambling for a few paltry dollars. The Chief is an up-to-date country newspaper, and Editor Hale is a good conservative citizen, and deserves the success he is meeting with. The worst thing that we know about his politics—and now it is quite fashionable to be a democrat.—Bloomington Advocate.

Bro. Hale of the Red Cloud Chief has turned the editorship of the Chief for four weeks over to the professional clan of his town, to edit. The preachers were at bat last week and we presume the lawyers will officiate this week. It is kind of Brother Hale to let the fellows who always know how to run a paper, run one once in a while.—Riverton Review.

The Red Cloud Chief was edited last week by the pastors of the city while editor Hale sat back and smoked a corn cob pipe. To square matters now the editor will have to occupy one of the pulpits some Sunday, and invite the preachers to come and rest while he preaches. Turn about is fair play, and after that, each man would have more respect for the other man's job.—Guide Rock Signal.

Now, Brother Hale, come out of it and quit "chasing the devil around the stump" and "fess up about that failure to make good in the preaching offer. You know you backed water.—Com.-Ad.

Editor Hale has been hobnobbing with the town divines this week. He turned the Chief over to them to edit, and the "boys" did a pretty good job. But just how the parsons could connive with the "devil," passeth our understanding, but they did and survived the ordeal.—Com.-Ad.

Editor Hale of the Red Cloud Chief has turned his paper over to the different business and civic interests of the town for a few weeks and they edit the paper from first to last. This week the business men of the town have edited it and a very creditable sheet it is. We notice some mighty good articles in the paper which say many things which the real editor would not dare say.—Superior Express.

We understand that Editor Hale refused point blank to fill one of the pulpits Sunday evening. What a shame Bro. Hale, you missed the opportunity of your life. It would have been a great ad for you.—Com.-Ad. We are sure that Bro. Hale could "fill" a rather large sized pulpit. He did his "swelling up" under Republican administrations and we hope that he doesn't lose flesh under the new regime. Bro. Hosmer is a fair sized man and could probably fill the vacancy, if he wasn't so busy getting out a "Thrice-a-week" that is not to be laughed at.—McCook Republican.

Four issues of the Red Cloud Chief are being edited by the preachers, lawyers, business men and school kids of that city. The preachers and lawyers have had their innings, the business men are sweating over the task this week and young America will try his hand next week. For our part we like the Chief much better when Bro. Hale is at the helm. Preachers may preach, and preach well; lawyers may plead, and plead well; prune vendors may sell prunes and sell them well; high school pupils may parse, and parse well—but it takes an editor to edit, and edit well.—Franklin Progress.

The esteemed Red Cloud Chief was edited last week by the ministerial association. One long column was headed, "Woe, Woe, Woe" and it certainly was woe from beginning to end, enough to make the reader nutty. Aside from this wail of woe, we are safe in saying that the ministers would in time and by much study edit the paper as well as Charley Hale.—Adams County Democrat.

Good Citizenship Mass Meeting Next Sunday

There will be a union meeting of all the churches of Red Cloud on Sunday evening at 7:30 in the Opera House. The meeting will be conducted by the ministers of the various churches and three of them will make short addresses. Rev. Mr. Marsh, Presiding Elder of the M. E. church will also speak. The wet and dry proposition so soon to be voted upon will be discussed in a sane and practical way. There will be special music. We shall strive to make the meeting bright, brief and brotherly. Everybody is cordially invited. Come and bring your friends.

Cats Killed for Pelts?

Thirty cats, kept by the Paris custom house authorities to destroy the rats, which do great damage to the goods, disappeared mysteriously a few nights ago. It is thought they were killed for their pelts on account of the great rise in the market price of skins which are used in the manufacture of fashionable furs.

Saloons and High Schools

The saloon is destructive of the high school. No friend of education can favor saloons in a community. The following statistics are taken from the last report of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction:

The Low Cost of Good Living

The National Canned Food Associations have set aside the week of March 31st to April 1st., to familiarize the Consumer with the wholesomeness, the excellence and the economy of Canned Food.

They have sent out for distribution a small leaflet, entitled "How to live well without going broke or pawning the family Diamonds". One of these will be sent you with your next grocery order.

During this week we will make special prices on our Canned Goods.

Come in and get our prices by the half dozen, dozen or by the case and you will buy. Then you will have in your own home.
