Oliver Wright has purchased a farm near Oxford and the latter part of the week he moved his personal effects to that place.

Oscar Hughes of Hastings spent a few days the latter part of the week in town visiting his brother-in-law, Geo. VanCamp.

Mrs. Earner returned home Saturday from a visit with her daughter in Montana and her daughter Mrs. Sid Longtin in California.

Don Saunders and Lloyd Bradbrook returned Sunday from Kansas City where they have been for several days looking after business affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jenkins returned to their home in Beatrice Sunday they being called here by the death of Mrs. Jenkins mother, Mrs. A. Cummings.

E. Stewart and family of McCook have rented the Geo. Lindsey farm and the first of the week moved their personal belongings onto the same.

Cecil Matthews, editor of The Riverton Review spent Saturday in this city. They had the misfortune to break a piece on their press and Cecil brought the same down with him to have it welded and while waiting on the blacksmith took occasion to do a little "political fence welding" in a personal way.

H. E. Elsinger, of Omaha, an expert machinist and auto repair man, arrived in the city the last of the week and has leased the Dr. Cook auto garage, where he will conduct a general auto repair shop. Mr. Elsinger is a brother of Mrs. Deck, the manager of Everybody's Five and Ten Cent Store and comes highly recommended as an expert in his chosen profession. The Chief extends the glad hand.

Mr. Arthur Bonkettus McArthur, one of the heavy men employed in The Chief office, left Monday for Guide Rock where he went to assist in the office of The Guide Rock Signal, for a few days. Harry Vaughan, the editor of that newsy sheet, telephoned a "distress call" to us that morning saying he was short a man, owing to sickness, and realizing that it required a "real man" to fill the bill, we sent Mac.

Rev. E. N. Tompkins, Attorney Frank Munday and Prof. Moritz went up to Oxford last Friday evening to attend the Inter State High School Oratorical contest. The contest consisted of a debate between three representatives from the McCook high school and three from the Oxford high school. The report of the judges were two in favor of Oxford and one for McCook. The subject debated was, "Resolved that Cities Should Adopt the Commission Form of Government" and those attending from here report it as being "a red hot debate."

C. R. Murphy of Riverton was attending to business matters in the city on Saturday.

The city council is in session as we go to press, and rumor has it that this session marks the end of the long drought.

James Rupp, a brick-mason of considerable note, who resides in McCook, arrived in the city Sunday to look after some business affairs.

John Schlieff, the expert auto repair man in the employ of the Red Cloud Auto Company is kept extremely busy these days. This week he put in good shape and returned to its owner, who resides in Riverton, a car which was considered by some to be most past repairing. Schlieff is truly an expert in his line, and is a good example of one who has completely mastered their chosen profession.

Mrs. Margaret A. Scott and daughter, of Benkelman spent Tuesday in this city. The ladies had been visiting in Superior for a few days and were enroute to Franklin where they intended to visit a short time also. While here they placed an order with The Overing Bros., Monumental Works for a monument which is to be delivered at Benkelman. It surely speaks well for this concern when people will come from towns such as Superior to purchase here.

Some few weeks ago a tent which belonged to Holten Letson was stolen out of his yard. Suspicion was attached to a certain party and on Saturday Wesley McRoberts was arrested in Superior and the tent was found in a box which he had shipped from here a few days previous. The tent was returned to Holten and he has decided not to prosecute the case, being satisfied with its return. McRoberts paid the costs and has been released from custody. Little is known here concerning McRoberts. He came here a few months ago from Iowa with his wife and baby, and while not possessing any of the earmarks of a retired man of wealth, seemed to possess a great dislike for work. He got off easy, indeed.
