

TAKES A BRIEF REST

PRESIDENT WILSON GOES INTO A FEW DAYS' RETIREMENT.

HAVE PLAN TO OUST HUERTA

Revolutionists Have Great Hopes of Change in Administration—Repairing Damage of Bombardment.

Washington.—President Wilson is resting on the presidential yacht Sylph somewhere on the Potomac river near Chesapeake bay.

Repairing the Damage.

Mexico City.—When tourists again visit Mexico City they may be disappointed not to find on all sides evidence of the damage done by shot and shell during the ten days' fighting in February.

HAVE PLAN TO OUST HUERTA.

Revolutionists See Hope of Change in Administration.

Eagle Pass, Tex.—Revolutionists in Piedras Negras, the Mexican town opposite Eagle Pass, drew from Luis Saldana, a prisoner, what purports to be a plan for the immediate elimination of President Huerta of Mexico.

Declares for Open Caucus.

Washington.—It is doubtful if any man in public life in Washington gets more satisfaction out of the "open caucus" plan just adopted by the republicans than Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska.

Outside Counsel Not Necessary.

Sacramento, Cal.—A party vote of forty-one progressive ones against eleven democratic and one Taft republican are in the lower house defeated a resolution inviting the governors of Nevada, Washington, Oregon and Arizona to participate in the conference with Secretary of State Bryan on the anti-alien land ownership legislation.

For Relief of Tornado Victims.

Washington, D. C.—The Red Cross has wired $10,000 to Lillian B. Stiff, nurse in charge, to be used in the relief of Omaha tornado sufferers.

Another Levee Goes Out.

Natchez, Miss.—A long threatened break in main line Mississippi river levees along the west bank in upper Louisiana came early Sunday morning, when lake St. John levee, twelve miles north of Ferriday, La., went out, turning the flood waters loose upon fine farming lands and villages of lower Texas and Concordia parishes.

Insurance Companies Withdraw.

Pittsburgh, Pa.—The western insurance bureau, holding an annual convention here, decided to withdraw from the state of Missouri because of antagonistic legislation which they assert has been enacted and which seriously interferes with their business.

DOINGS AT WASHINGTON

ACTS OF THE NATIONAL LAWMAKERS.

Events of Importance as They Transpire in Both Branches of Congress.

Washington.—After an hour's conference at the White House Wednesday, President Wilson directed Secretary Bryan to proceed at once to Sacramento to co-operate with Governor Johnson and the members of the California legislature to frame a law concerning the ownership of lands by aliens, so the bill will not conflict with the treaty obligations of the United States, particularly with Japan.

Saturday.

The Senate—Not in session; meets Monday. Prominent women suffragists addressed senate woman suffrage committee, arguing for constitutional amendment giving women the right to vote.

Fisheries commission decided to recommend confirmation of nomination of Hugh M. Smith as commissioner of fisheries.

Kern resolution for investigation of West Virginia coal strike ordered favorably reported.

The House—Resumed debate on tariff bill.

Representative Curley introduced resolution for constitutional amendment to give congress power to make uniform hours of labor throughout the country.

Special committee which investigated assault on Representative Simms by C. C. Glover, Washington capitalist, found Glover guilty of contempt of house and recommended his arrest.

Representative Campbell introduced bill to create a bureau of public highways and appropriate twenty-four million dollars for use among states.

Representative Bartlett introduced bill to reduce first class postage to 1 cent an ounce.

Friday.

The Senate—Not in session; meets Monday. Territories committee began hearings of Alaska railway development.

The House—Met at 11 a. m. and resumed general debate on tariff bill.

Representatives Palmer, Moore and Gordon speaking.

Appropriations committee ordered sundry civil bill favorably reported.

Adjourning at 9:10 p. m. until 11 o'clock Saturday.

Thursday.

The Senate—In session 2 p. m. Senator Kern served notice on finance committee Democrats he would refuse to be bound by caucus action on tariff on free wool measure.

President Wilson sent a number of nominations for confirmation.

Republicans in caucus determined upon no reprisals on democratic nominations.

Adopted Senator Smith's resolution calling on the president for report of claims of American citizens for losses of property in Mexico.

The House—Met at 11 a. m. and resumed general debate on tariff bill.

CAPITOL OFFICIALS' DIFFICULTIES

OCEAN TO OCEAN HIGHWAY

SECRETARY BRYAN WILL COUNSEL WITH THE CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE.

Good Roads Enthusiasts Will Meet in Fremont—Mexican Government Has Floated a $7,500,000 Loan.

Washington.—William J. Bryan, secretary of state, left Washington Thursday for Sacramento, Cal., where he will begin consultations with Governor Johnson and members of the California legislature in an effort to frame an anti-alien land law that will not be in conflict with treaty obligations of the United States with Japan.

Mexican Government Makes a Loan.

Mexico City.—The Mexican government has floated a loan of $7,500,000 for one year at 8 1/2%, bearing 5 per cent interest, through Couits & Co., bankers, of London, according to information which apparently is reliable.

FOR OCEAN-TO-OCEAN HIGHWAY

Good Roads Enthusiasts Will Meet to Lay Plans. Fremont, Neb.—A meeting of good roads enthusiasts of Nebraska, especially those interested in the Platte valley cross-continent route, will be held in Fremont, May 22, when plans will be laid for entering into the movement for an ocean-to-ocean highway, in pursuance of the Indianapolis plan.

Farewell to Ambassador Bryce.

New York.—James Bryce said farewell to the American people at a dinner given in his honor by the Pilgrims society of the United States.

"Scutari is Montenegro."

Cettine—"Scutari is from today Montenegro." was the defiant reply of King Nicholas to the European invitation to surrender the hard-won Turkish citadel.

Germany Hoarding Money.

Berlin.—More than $100,000,000 is reported to be missing in Germany. Rank reports indicate that this amount has been hoarded by banks and individuals since the beginning of the Balkan war through fear that a general European conflagration may come.

A massive silver loving cup was presented to Postmaster General Burleson by the Texas delegation.

CALIFORNIA INSISTS STATE IS NOT TO BLAME.

Governor Morehead Signs the Bill Giving to Voters the Right to Settle Question of University Extension.

Sacramento, Cal.—Not the dignity of Japan, but the dignity of California is at stake in the controversy over the anti-alien law, according to Governor Johnson, and if the plans of the majority party here give offense to the government at Tokio, the California executive absolves the state from blame on the ground that federal statutes already have drawn the line which the state seeks to establish.

While working with a lighting plant in his store, J. J. Mutchie of Eddyville was dangerously burned by an explosion of wood alcohol.

Mrs. Eliza Murdock of Raymond was fatally burned when her clothes caught fire as she was burning rubbish in the yard at her home.

The work of raising funds for the erection of a modern Y. M. C. A. building at North Platte is meeting with almost unlooked for success.

Change in Postal Savings System. Washington, D. C.—An order transferring the postal savings system, which, since its creation, has been a separate bureau under the direction of the postmaster general, to the bureau of the third assistant postmaster general, effective May 1, was issued by Postmaster General Burleson Thursday night.

Under the new arrangements, said Mr. Burleson, "the operation of the system in conjunction with the other financial divisions of the department, not only will avoid the duplication of similar work and make possible substantial economies in administration, but will open the way for important improvements and extensions."

SIGNS THE REFERENDUM BILL

University Removal to Be Settled by Vote of the People.

Lincoln.—The governor has signed the McKissick bill, which creates a special university building fund out of a three-fourths mill levy and which recommends the submission to the people of the question of deciding upon the permanent location of the state university.

Vicksburg, Miss.—The main line of the Mississippi river levee broke Monday afternoon at Woodlawn, Miss., near Shippers' Landing, four miles north of Mayersville.

Washington.—Beginning the debate in the house Wednesday on the democratic tariff revision bill, Representative Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama, the majority leader, predicted great relief for the nation through the passage of the pending bill.

The Diller business men's association has set April 24 as annual good roads day.

The Civic Improvement league of Beatrice has installed rest rooms in the basement of the library building for women shopping in the city.

The Beatrice public schools are making extensive preparations for an outdoor May festival and fete day to be held there about the first of the month.

Mrs. J. D. Taylor, a heroine of the Omaha tornado, died there Friday from exposure and overwork that night.

The Wilhelm Rieper estate of 480 acres, located southwest of Utica, was sold at public sale. The land brought $45,075.

The Farmers' creamery at Cortland reports business so increasing, that it has some difficulty in keeping up with its orders.

Miss Mae Alexander, teacher in the grammar department of the Desher schools, has accepted a similar position at Nelson.

Richard Urlick was seriously injured when the sewer excavation in which he was at work at West Point caved in on him.

BRIEF NEWS OF NEBRASKA.

A local council of Boy Scouts has been organized at Cortland.

A produce firm at Liberty is buying and shipping a carload of eggs a day.

Jerry Staats of Fremont suffered a stroke of apoplexy and is in a serious condition.

Carl Wheeler caught an eighteen-pound channel catfish at Fairbury one day last week.

Hastings is installing its system of electroliners, and will soon be ready to turn on the lights.

Music will be taught in Wymore's schools the coming year for the first time in many years.

Frank Tracy of Norfolk accidentally cut off the tip of his nose while shaving with a safety razor.

Word has been received at York of the death at Roseburg, Ore., of J. M. Reese, an old resident of York county.

Ben Rainey, for many years chief of police at Plattsmouth, will retire to a farm to spend his declining years.

Dr. Condra of the state university delivered his lecture on "Soil Conservation" at the court house at Seward.

Mrs. J. D. Taylor, a heroine of the Omaha tornado, died there Friday from exposure and overwork that night.

The twelfth annual convention of the Lancaster County Sunday School association will be held at Hickman on Tuesday, April 29.

Joseph Kreegl, a farmer near Burks, was instantly killed when a Burlington passenger train struck him at a crossing near that place.

Mrs. Eliza Murdock of Raymond was fatally burned when her clothes caught fire as she was burning rubbish in the yard at her home.

The work of raising funds for the erection of a modern Y. M. C. A. building at North Platte is meeting with almost unlooked for success.

The question of extending the Missouri Pacific railroad from Virginia to Beatrice is being discussed by the commercial club of the latter place.

Baseball is much in evidence over the state, nearly every village being represented by a more or less pretentious aggregation of players and fans.

Perk Lilly of Shubert had his hand badly injured by being caught in a corn sheller.

The night before her 86th birthday, Mrs. Sarah Miller of York, fell down the basement steps of her home, striking on her head, her neck being broken. Death resulted instantly.

Work on the new $40,000 German Lutheran high school and business college at Desher is progressing rapidly.

Ralph Hubbard, an employe of the Beatrice gas company, came near being asphyxiated by gas while at work in a main.

Rev. F. N. Swanberg, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church of Holdrege and president of the Nebraska conference, is dead at his home in that place.

H. C. Woods of the University of Nebraska, by special action of the board of regents, has been appointed one of the two new fellows in the college of engineering of the University of Wisconsin.

Mrs. George Hampton of Auburn, in getting into a buggy, slipped from the step and was dragged for a considerable distance, one of the wheels passing over her head, causing painful but not serious injuries.

The commencement exercises of the Shubert public schools will occur Friday evening, May 23.

W. M. Stevens of Terry, S. D., while waiting for a train at Edgemont, was struck and seriously injured by a switch engine.

The Diller business men's association has set April 24 as annual good roads day.

The Civic Improvement league of Beatrice has installed rest rooms in the basement of the library building for women shopping in the city.

The Beatrice public schools are making extensive preparations for an outdoor May festival and fete day to be held there about the first of the month.

Mrs. J. D. Taylor, a heroine of the Omaha tornado, died there Friday from exposure and overwork that night.

The Wilhelm Rieper estate of 480 acres, located southwest of Utica, was sold at public sale. The land brought $45,075.

The Farmers' creamery at Cortland reports business so increasing, that it has some difficulty in keeping up with its orders.

WOMAN SUFFERED

TEN YEARS

From Nervousness Caused by Female Ills—Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Auburn, N. Y.—"I suffered from nervousness for ten years, and had such organic pains that sometimes I would lie in bed four days at a time, could not eat or sleep and did not want anyone to talk to me or bother me at all. Sometimes I would suffer for seven hours at a time. Different doctors did the best they could for me until four months ago I began giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and now I am in good health."—Mrs. WILLIAM H. GILL, 15 Pleasant Street, Auburn, New York.

"Doctor's Daughter Took It." St. Cloud, Minn.—"I was so run down by overwork and worry that I could not stand it to have my children talk aloud or walk heavy on the floor. One of my friends said, 'Try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for I know a doctor's daughter here in town who takes it and she would not take it if it were not good.'"

"I sent for the Compound at once and kept on taking it until I was all right."—Mrs. BERTHA M. QUICKSTADT, 727 1/2 Avenue, S., St. Cloud, Minn.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound may be relied upon as the most efficient remedy for female ills. Why don't you try it?

Screwdriver of Importance. The engine had gone to pieces, the screw revolved no more, and the yacht of the millionaire rolled helplessly in the trough of the sea.

Anxiously signaling for help was the wireless operator. He was approached by the owner of the craft. "I wish," said the latter, "that you would advise my wife, in Brooklyn, of our accident."

"Shall I tell her the engine is broken, sir?" asked the wireless man.

"By no means!" exclaimed the millionaire. "Those bald words would be discomforting to the sensitive woman. Send her a message which, while not transgressing the truth, will make her think our accident is only a trivial one. Tell her our screwdriver is broken."—Judge.

Important to Mothers. Examine carefully every bottle of CASTORIA, a safe and sure remedy for infants and children, and see that it bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher in Use For 30 Years.

Children Cry for Fletcher's Castoria.

Alcoholic Consumption Large. The alcoholic consumption a head in this country is a little less than 23 gallons a year, of which 21 are contained in beer.

Just the Right Age. "Has the millionaire Prudence married much of a past?" "Sixty-nine years."

"It's no trouble at all," says a bill collector "to find people out."

Helping a Woman

Generally means helping an entire family. Her back aches so she can hardly drag around. Her nerves are on edge and she is nearly wild. Headache and Sleeplessness unfit her for the care of her family. Rheumatic Pains and Lumbago rack her body. But, let her take and all these ailments will disappear. She will soon recover her strength and healthy activity for Foley Kidney Pills are healing, curative, strengthening and tonic, a medicine for all Kidney, Bladder and Urinary Diseases that always cures.

Foley Kidney Pills

Get a Canadian Home

In Western Canada's Free Homestead Area

THE PROVINCE OF Manitoba. 160 ACRES WESTERN CANADA FREE. has several New Homestead Districts that afford rare opportunity to secure the best of agricultural lands at reasonable prices.

For Grain Growing and Cattle Raising

this province has no superior and in profitable agriculture shows an unbroken period of over a quarter of a Century. Perfect climate; good markets; railways convenient; soil the very best; and social conditions most desirable.

W. V. BENNETT, See Building, Omaha, Neb. Canadian Government Agents, or address the Superintendent of Immigration, Ottawa, Canada.

W. N. U., LINCOLN, NO. 13-1913.