THE ONLY DEMOCRATIC PAPER IN WEBSTER COUNTY

All the newspaper boys up and down the line were under the impression that editor Hale of the Chief was one of the "40" editors who were to speak in that many churches in Omaha on the Sunday during the June Press Association, but since he learned the his office force was planning to go along and slug in the choir, he declined on the grounds that one "devil" behind the pulpit was enough without having them grin at him from the choir loft. Guide Rock Signal.

Every time the closet of your neighbor is opened a little you strain your neck to peek, and then afterward strain your tongue in talking about it? Do you ever stop to think that some day a tragedy may take up its abode in your home? Can't you get it into your head that some day the tongue of slander may cut like a sharp sword. Misfortune and disgrace may have overtaken your neighbor, but it does not become you to get on the housetops and shout it to the world. You will not be called upon to pay for nor answer for any of the sins of your neighbor. You have all you can tend to to pay for your own indiscretions. Some day one near and dear to you may fall—the prison walls may open to a son or the scarlet letter of eternity blight a daughter, when a home is in mourning over a tragedy the best thing you can do is to keep your mouth shut unless you can say something that will come as a rift in the clouds. Then again, you know you may be no better than your neighbor. The only difference is that your neighbor was caught and you, up-to-date have kept the sunlight away. Be charitable, my friend, for you know not the day nor hour when the blight will appear in your sacred circle.

Corn Cultivation

Corn planting is the latest this year that it has been since 1892. With the heaviest crop of alfalfa in years ready to cut before corn planting is completed, we foresee busy times ahead of the farmers. In some instances corn cultivation will necessarily be neglected while caring for the alfalfa.

The first cultivation of corn is by far the most important. If the weeds are not destroyed then, the chances are that they never will be, as they are usually too large to cover at the second cultivation. It is these same weeds located in the hills of corn which sap the ground during July and August and shorten the yield. Our greatest loss of soil water is not by evaporation from the surface but by transpiration from plant leaves. It is not a matter of "getting over the corn", but of getting the weeds that we need consider. A six-shovel cultivator is far better than one with four, as a greater part of the ground is stirred. The weeds are uprooted instead of being merely covered. The greater the number of shovels, the shallower may be the cultivation and yet stir the surface soil. This gives a lighter draft. Deep cultivation is not only unnecessary but is a detriment when the corn gets large enough that the roots occupy the space between the corn rows.

Mayor's Proclamation

May 30th, 1913 being Memorial Day and a legal holiday I request that all business be suspended between the hours of 1 and 4 p. m., and that the stores may close up in order that all who desire may participate in the memorial exercises.
D. E. SAUNDERS, MAYOR.

He "Raises Cattle to Sell."

J. L. Christian Ridicules the Idea of Holding Young Stock

"The so called educated agriculturists have been howling hot and cold in the same breath ever since cattle prices got up a little, informing stock farmers that they must keep back their calves and young stock till they reach a certain age, and all that."

J. L. Christian of Red Cloud, Neb., made this remark today in discussing the cattle industry, and at the same time furnishing an illustration of what he did in handling a bunch of cows.

"A year ago," Mr. Christian explained, "I bought a string of cows at $38 per head. Last season they raised for me 50 calves. I let the calves run with the cows until late in the fall, and then fed the cows and marketed them last winter at $65 per head. On May 15 I brought to Kansas City the 50 calves, then less than 11 months old. They netted me $50 each. In this whole transaction I violated the advice sent out so freely by the class of men I mentioned. But I am in the stock farming business for the money there is in it, and whenever I see an opportunity to sell a carload of fat cows or coming yearling cattle at a profit I let them go right then. I am not raising cattle to keep, but to sell."

Mr. Christian was for five years a cattle salesman on the Kansas City yards before locating on a farm where he lives in Nebraska, where he has been making money ever since he went there.—Kansas City Daily Drovers Telegram, May 27.

Last Trip For Veterans

On July 4, the survivors of the Battle of Gettysburg will be entertained by the government on the battlefield. The legislature appropriated $4,000 to pay railroad fare for the Nebraska veterans who participated, but as the fare is $15 and there are about 200 entitled to go the state officers are making an appeal to the citizens of the state to take up collections at Memorial day exercises to assist in raising the amount necessary. The amounts collected are to be forwarded to Capt. A. M. Trimble, Capitol Building, Lincoln, Neb.

Decoration Day

On Friday, May 30th, all comrades of the G. A. R. and W. R. C., with all soldiers of the Spanish-American war, will meet at the G. A. R. hall, at 1 o'clock, p. m., where line of march, commanded by J. W. McCracken, will form on Webster street and march south and west to the cemetery, headed by the Red Cloud Concert Band.

Details will be assigned by the post-commander and president of the W. R. C., to decorate graves of comrades and members of the W. R. C.

After decorating the graves, the line of march will form a hollow square at the monument of the Unknown Dead, where there will be exercises by the W. R. C. and comrades of the G. A. R. Benediction.

After which the column will march to the opera house, where the following program will be given:
Music by the Band.
Invocation—Rev. Bates.
Music.
Reading—Lincoln's Address at Gettysburg—Chaplain Boyce.
Male Quartet Inavale.
Music—Choir.
Reading List of Dead Comrades—B. Kizer.

TOOK HINT FROM NEWSPAPER

How One Woman Kept Clippings on All Subjects in Which She Might Be Interested.

A young wife who was always well informed and brimful of ideas, stories, and current topics, explained her method thus:

"I formerly worked on a daily newspaper where they had a 'morgue' which is newspaper slang for a filing cabinet devoted to clippings and information on every subject under the sun. When I married I resolved to adopt the system, on a smaller scale, to my own needs, and reserved a couple of pigeon holes in my desk for the purpose. Then I purchased at a newspaper office two dozen stout No. 12 manilla envelopes. Those I labeled.

"In pigeon hole No. 1 I placed Gift Suggestions, Holiday Celebrations, Parties and Entertainments, High Cost of Living, Household Economics, Dress, Attractive House Plans, Home Decoration and Applied Art, Gardens, Fancy Work, and two envelopes for Receipts.

"In pigeon hole no. 2 I placed Book Reviews and Authors, Art, New Plays and Players, Prominent People, Current Events, Anecdotes, Poems, Family History Data, Nature Study, Vacation Suggestions, and two blank envelopes for other subjects in which I might become interested.

"Into these envelopes went all clippings from magazines and newspapers pertaining to these subjects. When a friend went to Rome to live, I added 'Italy,' so that I might keep in touch with her. When my club began the study of German I had a ready receptacle for copies of German notes. Thus my 'morgue' grew, so that now I have four pigeon holes, and 49 envelopes, containing a useful fund of information on every subject in which I am, or expect to be interested, logically grouped for instant reference. I consider it my most valuable aid to efficient life."—Woman's World.

Resolutions Too Fragile.

"Resolve to live a hundred years, and you will do it," declared a St. Louis physician. But being a physician, he ought to know that good resolutions are easily broken.
