

SUBWAY CAVES IN

MANY LIVES CRUSHED OUT IN NEW YORK SUBWAY.

CURRENCY REFORM MESSAGE

Many Suffragets at Funeral of Miss Davison—President Wilson is Preparing Message for Congress.

New York.—Eleven workmen were killed and two injured, one fatally, when tons of rock and earth crashed down in the excavation being made for the new subway.

Militants at Suffraget Funeral. London.—Suffragets, militant as well as non-militant, came from all parts of England Saturday for the funeral of Miss Emily Wilding Davison.

INSISTS ON CURRENCY REFORM.

President Wilson Preparing a Message for Congress.

Washington.—President Wilson still wants currency legislation enacted at the present session of congress and will bend every effort to accomplish that purpose.

Leave for Gettysburg June 27.

Lincoln, Neb.—One hundred and seventy-five veterans of the 301 entitled to take the trip from Nebraska to the Gettysburg peace celebration to be held on the famous battlefield in July.

Lepor Occupies Private Car.

Vallejo, Cal.—A Kaolwi, a Filipino boy, left Mare island navy yard for Seattle, traveling in a private car.

Columbus, O.—The question, "Did General John H. Morgan, the dashing confederate raider, tunnel his way out of a cell in the Ohio penitentiary while a prisoner of war, or did his guards allow him to escape?"

Mexico City.—A general shake-up in the cabinet of President Huerta occurred Friday. General Manuel Mondragon resigned as minister of war

LOBBYING FINE ART

SCOPE OF INVESTIGATION IS WIDENING OUT.

STUDY EUROPEAN METHODS

Nebraskans Will Make Scientific Research into Ways of the Old World—Nebraska Insurance Expensive.

Washington.—Lobbying as a fine art, how it is done, and who is responsible, what ends are sought and what results are accomplished, probably will be investigated by the special senate lobby committee before it concludes its work and submits a report to the senate.

VICTOR MURDOCK

Victor Murdock is the floor leader of the Progressives in the house of representatives. He is a representative from Kansas.

along the same lines through paid agents in efforts to create public sentiment favorable to the cause concerned.

Big Money for Insurance. Lincoln, Neb.—The people of Nebraska last year paid out $15,038,279 for fire, life and other kinds of insurance and got back from the companies in loss payments about half that much.

TO STUDY EUROPEAN METHODS.

Nebraskans Will Make Scientific Probe of Old World Ways.

Lincoln.—W. C. Andreas, dairy inspector for the state food department, will leave this week for a trip to Europe.

Fairbury, Neb.—Miss Irene Noble, the young lady who was probably fatally shot in Los Angeles, Cal., the last of the week by Fred E. Kolb,

Buenos Ayres, Argentina.—The American meat packing companies operating in Argentina are not considered a "trust" by the Argentine government.

NEBRASKA STANDS AT FRONT

SECRETARY McADOO READY TO EASE FINANCIAL MARKET.

Crop Conditions in Nebraska Are Above the Average—Bulgaria Wants Arbitration to Take Place at Once.

Washington.—Secretary McAdoo says his statement announcing that $500,000,000 of the emergency currency would be forthcoming, should banks need it, is made in response to numerous inquiries from bankers.

Want Arbitration at Once.

London.—Official confirmation of the news of the acceptance of Russian arbitration by the Balkan allies is still lacking, but diplomatic circles believe the report to be correct.

FIRST IN UNITED STATES.

Crop Conditions in Nebraska 12.7 Per Cent Above Average.

Washington, D. C.—General crop conditions on June 1 averaged for the United States 0.5 per cent lower than on the same date last year, and 1.2 per cent lower than the average condition on June 1 of recent years.

C. O. D. for Parcel Post Packages.

Washington.—Instructions to postmasters have been issued for the handling of C. O. D. parcel post packages. The regulations will be effective July 1.

Anti-Free Sugar Methods.

Washington.—Truman G. Palmer, representative of the United States beet sugar industry, testified before the senate lobby investigating committee that a series of charts, prepared by him argumentative against free sugar and published as a senate document had attained a circulation of 320,000 copies under the franking privileges of Senator Lodge.

Disapprove of Burials at Sea.

Lincoln.—Burial at sea does not meet with the approval of the members of the Nebraska Funeral Directors' association and its delegates to the national convention, which convenes at Milwaukee in October.

Harrisburg, Pa.—More than 22,000 applications have been filed with the Gettysburg semi-centennial celebration commission from Pennsylvania for transportation to the historic town to participate in the four days' celebration beginning July 1.

Cleveland, O.—Dragged from his rowboat by a big fish, Hugh E. Walker, aged 17, became entangled in his fishing line and was drowned several hundred yards off shore in Erie Lake.

Women May Vote in Illinois.

Springfield, Ill.—The woman's suffrage bill, which passed in the senate recently, has been passed in the house by a vote of 77 ayes, a bare constitutional majority.

CONSERVATION WILL HELP TO REDUCE COST OF LIVING.

Supreme Court Affirms Publicity Law Affecting Publications—Turkish Grand Vizier Assassinated at Capital.

Washington.—Conservation of natural resources as an important factor in reducing the cost of living was emphasized by speakers at a meeting here of the advisory board of the national conservation congress.

Turkish Grand Vizier Assassinated. Constantinople.—The Turkish grand vizier, Mahmoud Shekfat Pasha, was assassinated at noon Wednesday by two men armed with revolvers.

Constantinople.—The Turkish grand vizier, Mahmoud Shekfat Pasha, was assassinated at noon Wednesday by two men armed with revolvers, who attacked him while he was proceeding in his motor car to the sublime porte.

NEWSPAPER ACT IS SUSTAINED.

Supreme Court Affirms Publicity Law Affecting Publications.

Washington.—The validity of the "newspaper publicity law," enacted in 1912 as a provision of the postal appropriation act, is upheld by unanimous decision of the supreme court of the United States.

Women Conspirators Executed.

Peking.—Some women of modern education were among the alleged anti-government conspirators who were placed under arrest at Tien Tsin and Peking in the last few weeks.

To Segregate Whites and Blacks.

Washington.—Representative Aswell of Louisiana has introduced a bill to separate white government clerks and employees from negroes.

New Plant Industry Building.

Lincoln, Neb.—The new $82,000 plant industry building at the state university farm was formally dedicated Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Taft Lunches With President.

Washington.—Among former President Taft's engagements while here attending a meeting of the Lincoln memorial commission was a luncheon with the president and Mrs. Wilson.

Tribe of Ben Hur Compromise.

Lincoln.—The insurgent members of the Tribe of Ben Hur have effected a compromise with the supreme officers of the order and will withdraw their protest against the reorganizing of the organization in Nebraska.

Decision Strikes Responsive Chord.

Lincoln, Neb.—The decision of the high court of the land in the Minnesota rate case struck a responsive chord with Nebraska railway commission and the state's legal department.

Postmasters Gather at Lincoln.

Lincoln, Neb.—Former Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Degraw of Washington arrived in the city Tuesday to participate in the eleventh annual convention of the Nebraska State Postmasters' association.

GREAT FOSSIL FIND

STATE BOARD DISMISSES THE COAD CONTEST.

GOSSIP FROM STATE CAPITAL

Items of Interest Gathered from Reliable Sources and Presented in Condensed Form to Our Readers.

What is considered the most important collection of quadruped fossils ever secured by the state museum from the state has just been unearthed by a party of geologists from the state university, led by Prof. Erwin H. Barbour, curator of the state museum, University of Nebraska.

Board Dismisses Contest.

The action of the state board of irrigation which was taken Saturday clears the way for the completion of the fourth, and what is said by some engineers, to be the best water power plant that can be built on the streams of Nebraska.

Will Make Two Days' March.

Total expenses of the extensive and warlike national guard maneuvers which Adjutant General Hall is planning for Nebraska soldiers for the month of August will reach about $30,028.

Not Ready to Decide.

While the state board of health is getting reports from the state hospital for tuberculosis at Kearney concerning the tests being made by the Duket cure there, it is not ready to give any verdict yet, according to Dr. Carr, secretary of the board.

Not All Pay Big Money.

Don't expect to get rich by investing in fire insurance stock is the tenor of a statement issued from the office of State Auditor Howard by Insurance Deputy Clancy.

BRIEF NEWS OF NEBRASKA.

Palmyra will have Sunday ball. Fairbury is enjoying a building boom this year.

Over 300 delegates attended the Eagles' convention at Beatrice. Over fifty pupils are attending the summer session of Peru normal.

Postmasters of the state are holding their annual meeting at Lincoln. There is every indication of a bumper crop of wheat in York county.

Freemont is considering the purchase of a new automobile fire truck. Hastings high school last week graduated the largest class in its history.

Kearney is to have one of the original old-time Fourth of July celebrations.

The last of Hemingford's board sidewalks have been replaced with cement walks.

The state convention of the P. E. O. will be held in Hebron, June 18, 19 and 20.

Miss Buelah Raeder will umpire the ball games at the Eagles' meet at Beatrice.

William Smith, a rural mail carrier at Staplehurst, suicided by taking carbolic acid.

Nebraska City's mayor has gone after the owners, and has issued 300 dog licenses.

Frederick Bogle of Pawnee had a leg broken in an auto accident at Loveland, Colo.

Ohio is again agitating a city water plant. The question has been defeated before.

Frank Huffaker, near Broken Bow, was kicked in the face by a pony and badly disfigured.

The seventeen-year locusts have appeared in large numbers in the vicinity of Louisville.

C. T. Boggs, for many years a prominent resident and business man of Lincoln, is dead.

Jefferson county farmers are complaining of the long-continued spell of cold, damp weather.

Rev. Father Moriarty of North Bend, accused of using city water unlawfully, was acquitted.

The Farmers' Grain company elevator at Bee was totally destroyed by fire Saturday night.

John C. Stewart and family of York have gone to Scotland, where they will spend the summer.

A. A. Walkup of Ord, who was kicked by a mule a week ago, died Monday from the effects.

Mr. and Mrs. George Armstrong celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at Auburn, Saturday.

The dental office of Dr. E. J. Hoopman at Madison was robbed of gold and other metals valued at $300.

Willard Avery was seriously injured when a hay stacker fell on him as he was harvesting alfalfa near Edgar.

Louis Danfilaz was instantly killed when the engine he was aboard went into the turntable at Grand Island.

Young men of Verdigre are anxious to organize a machine gun company for representation in the N. N. G.

Complaint is made that it is difficult to hear the curfew bell at Fremont, and a whistle has been substituted.

William Maddox, 76 years old, residing near Weeping Water, suicided by hanging himself in the barn on his farm.

The first crop of alfalfa that is now about all in stack is by far the heaviest ever harvested in the vicinity of Garrison.

Ethmer Haynes, at Garrison, ran a small wire in his thumb, causing blood poisoning, and he is now in a local hospital.

Dr. W. H. Kerr of Falls City, en route to Minneapolis, was stricken with a hemorrhage and taken from a train at Council Bluffs, where he is now in a hospital.

Frank Mulhair of Lynch marketed sixteen white faced steers on the South Omaha market Tuesday which brought $8.50 a hundred, nearly the same level as the Chicago market.

The steers were fed on snapped corn and alfalfa.

A license to operate a saloon at Latham has been granted by the board of supervisors to Charles Eckart of De Witt.

The Fremont board of education has about perfected plans for a summer school for the benefit of backward pupils.

The order of the Degree of Honor, which has concluded its district convention at Lincoln, will meet next year at Uida.

The second summer school session opened at the Hastings high school with a good enrollment in normal training and high school subjects.

Frank Mastney of Clarkson got his hand caught in a corn sheller and will lose several fingers in consequence.

The new $82,000 plant industry building at the state university farm at Lincoln was formally dedicated Tuesday.

David Primrose, who has had charge of the physical work at the York Young Men's Christian association, has resigned.

Hoag, in Gage county, had a cloudburst Friday that did considerable damage to crops in that vicinity.

Three inches of rain fell in an hour. Ray Smith, a Harvard boy, has been presented with two medals, in recognition of meritorious service while in the U. S. navy.

Heavy rains have washed out a great deal of the late planted corn around Union, and growing wheat has been badly lodged.