Mrs. Charles A. Schellak and little daughter, Eva, returned home Monday evening from a visit with relatives and friends in Hastings and Fairfield.

Ed. Herrick, the popular wire chief for the Bell telephone company spent Monday evening between trains 15 and 14 in Franklin. We learn that it was not toll trouble which called Ed. to that place, but that a young lady resides there whom he is trying to secure for keeps. Strange, indeed it is strange, how many of the boys are going westward in their search for queens, when this city is so crowded with them.

House to rent. Inquire at New house's store.

Wade Koontz's bull dog on Tuesday morning killed the pet deer which Wade has owned for some time. The deer and dog had been together a great deal, and to all appearances they were on the best of terms. What caused the dog to attack the deer is a perplexing question.

J. A. Bradford, Ed. Herrick and Kenneth Williams assisted Supt. Guy Zeigler of the electric light plant, made some necessary repairs on the wiring system on Sunday. The work was done on Sunday on account of the current being off—and while the boys were rather loathe to work on this day, they did so after it was made clear to them that it was an urgent necessity.

E. Henry Phares, Esq., left on Sunday morning for McCook, where he remained until Tuesday morning—just to be near "her." Rumor has it that Henry is making preparations to forever forsake the paths of single blessedness, and that he is planning to enter into the joys of married life, as soon as the harvest days are over, but on asking him about it, we could get no reply, but we did not fail to note that absent, far-away look in the young man's eye.

The threshing machine of John Callaway who resides eleven miles south of this city in Smith county, Kansas, was blown up on Monday morning. The party who is responsible for the act is not known, though it is supposed to be some one who held a grievance against Mr. Callaway. The family of Geo. Reed, have for their guests this week Mrs. I. L. Reed and daughter, Miss Guilema, of Montpelier, Idaho. The young lady is principal of the public schools at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Engstrom were greatly surprised last Thursday evening when about nine o'clock about 60 neighbors and friends gathered in with their ice cream and cake and gave them a surprise. All report of having a good time.

The Degree of Honor met Tuesday evening for installation of officers. Mrs. E. Welsh, Chief of Honor, sent in her resignation and it was accepted. Mrs. Mary Huffer was installed as chief of honor to fill the vacancy. A good time was had.

Mrs. Chas. Dickerson returned to her home in Lincoln the first of the week after spending a few days visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Kizer. She came to attend the Kizer family re-union which was held on Sunday.

Red Cloud's ball team went to Lebanon on Tuesday where they crossed bats with the Lebanon team on that day, also on Wednesday. On Friday they play the Westwick team on the home grounds. This will be a good game and you should not fail to see it.

The Miner Bros. Co.'s ad will be found on another page of this paper. They are putting on a big sale which will run for a week and are offering some real bargains in every department. Do not fail to read their ad and to take advantage of the bargains offered.

Card of Thanks.
We wish to express our sincere thanks to our many friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy during the sickness, death and burial of our husband and father.
Mrs. Anna McPartland and family.
Mrs. Sarah Farley.
Mr. John Farley.

Connie Starke left Monday via the Rambler automobile for Milwaukee where he will visit relatives.

Frank Abel, the popular clerk at Miner Bros., spent one evening the latter part of the week in Franklin. The exact reason of his trip we were unable to ascertain, but never the less have our own idea, since hearing the young man remark what a fair set of damsel's resided in this village to the west.

Picture taking opens a new world of entertainment to the children and they never tire of the fun. The Kodak puts this pleasure in the hands of young or old at small cost. Is simple enough for a child to use with good results—so efficient the expert cannot exhaust its possibilities. Ask us about this.—Newhouse, Jeweler. adv.

If we count correctly some seven distinguished citizens of this great commonwealth have paid $5.10 each to His Honor—Jas. A. Burden, police judge in and for this said city, this week, for "stanking up." And yet some complain of business being rather dull?

W. E. Bear, the obliging jeweler in the E. H. Newhouse jewelry store, returned home Sunday from a visit with the old folks at Fort Lamarie, Wyo. W. E. tells of catching some awfully big fish, of repairing a lot of fence, and of doing a good many stunts—which might cause us to doubt, were it any one else but him telling it.

The boys who participated in the endurance run of the Lincoln Daily Star, under the auspices of the Lincoln Automobile Club, were loud in their praise of the treatment they secure at the hands of Roy Oatman, proprietor of the Royal hotel where most of them spent the night. Mr. Oatman had breakfast prepared for them at an early hour Wednesday morning in order that they could secure an early start. They also spoke in flowery terms of Jim Peterson at whose garage most of the automobiles were housed for the night.

The city took on a metropolitan appearance Monday evening. Some of the boys from that well known dry state to the south of us called Kansas, arrived in town early in the day and proceeded to "tank up." Along toward evening they were lined up so they did not know whether they were in Kansas or Red Cloud, and proceeded to perform a few flish stunts. However, Sheriff Heide and Marshall Christie taken a hand in the game, and about five of them spent the night at the Hedge Hotel. Surely, if business keeps up, it will be necessary for the council to provide a patrol wagon with a real chauffeur.

Glacier National Park Newly Revealed Wonderland

This region of majestic, glacier-capped mountains—the climax of the rugged grandeur of the Rockies—is reached by the Great Northern Railway from Glacier Park Station, at which point the Railway Company has constructed a hundred thousand dollar hotel. An automobile road has been built from this station to the interior of the Park. A detour of from one to four days can be made at the very moderate cost of from $10 to $25, including, hotels, automobiles, launches and coaches, covering distances of from forty to one hundred and fifty miles.

As all hotel and transportation arrangements in the Park are under the supervision of the Great Northern Railway Company, the comfort and enjoyment of tourists is assured. In making a tour of the Pacific Coast, a detour into Glacier Park will prove to be one of its most interesting features.

Stickney Gasoline Engines ARE THE BEST

An Elm Fence Post—No!

You wouldn't, at smaller cost, consider an elm fence post against a cedar or oak—its worthless because it won't last—The Stickney Engine is like a cedar or oak—It will give you the best service.
