This Government Won't Put Its Money

In a bank that does not guarantee it against loss. Why Should You?

The United States will not deposit a dollar in a National Bank, on any other bank, unless the bank furnishes a bond for twice the amount deposited.

The United States Government can at any time make an investigation of any National Bank and learn all about its resources. But still the Government demands a guarantee for its deposits—why shouldn't YOU have protection.

Your deposits in this bank are protected by the State Guaranty Law—no matter what happens YOU CAN'T LOSE!

Red Cloud Boys Returned Tuesday From Montana

Jim Ryan and Ben McFarland returned home Tuesday evening from Glasgow, Montana, where they went to register at the big land drawing which is to be held there on September 21. The boys went over the Great Northern and report that never before had they seen such corn crops as the one raised this year between Council Bluffs, Iowa, and St. Paul, Minnesota. Jim says that the night they got into St. Paul they found themselves in the midst of a two inch rain, which was only a fair sample, they were told, of what that section had enjoyed all season.

Messrs Ryan and McFarland also state that the land which Uncle Samuel is offering, is highly productive, and are firm in the opinion that this section of the country offers rare inducements to the man who is possessed of only a few dollars and wishes to add to his pile. They state that there was 27,000 registered at the three registering places, Glasgow, Great Falls and Havre, up until Monday morning, and that it is estimated that by the last of the week, at which time the registration closes, there will be some 40,000 names on the list.

The Eighth Annual Webster County Fair

The Eight Annual Webster County Fair will be held at Bladen, Sept. 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31. We know it has been dry and it is going to be more of a job to get exhibits this year than in former years but we are sure that Webster County has the stuff and we want you to help make this Fair the best ever. Bring in your nice farm products, cattle, hogs, horses, flowers, fancy work, canned fruits, poultry, etc., and let the people see what you have. It will pay you. Remember this is your fair, send in your exhibits Sept. 23. Be here yourself during the fair take in the races, see the sights. We are going to give you your money's worth the same as ever, music, free attractions, ball games and in fact we are going to please you. Come.

Seed Corn Week

Every farmer should spend at least one day during "Seed Corn Week" (Sept. 22-27) selecting seed corn. Time so spent will pay big wages in next year's crop. After it is selected take good care of it. Dry it out thoroughly, store it carefully, and next winter test it. Then you'll know.

A Good Man Has Moved Away

Rev. Cole preached his farewell sermon Sunday night, and left Monday for his new field of labor in Platte county. Perhaps no minister has left this community, leaving so many and such sincere friends among the non-church-going as does Mr. Cole. His work among the spiritually sick and feeble has been so earnest, so sympathetic, so helpful and wise, that not those alone who have been the special objects of his ministry, but the community in general have looked to him with confidence and respect.

More than any minister who has ever been in the city he has visited the persons in jail, and interested himself in their behalf. He has tried to help them escape the penalty of their crimes, and free them from the consequences of their guilt. In this he has had the help of attorneys, who were only too glad to find themselves of service to a minister who was trying to be of practical use to the community. Of course, he insisted tenderly but firmly on appropriate changes in the conduct of the guilty parties, and to an extent unbelievable by many he found a ready response in the wills of those he tried to help.

Whether these men will prove strong enough to travel the arduous road of self-denial without his presence, is for the future to determine. Certainly, numbers of them have made a very creditable showing up to the present time. They needed Christianity and the spirit of the gospel to be manifested to them in the form and conduct of a Christian man. They had come to look upon the church and church members as cold and repulsive, disposed chiefly to condemn, and little minded to bless. They had come to regard the church as an organization of pretentious hypocrisy, without any wish or purpose to give kindness and aid to men of their type.

Rev. Cole brought them assurances of a regard of quite an other nature, and they welcomed his intervention and his counsel. Could the minister have found a church that was loyally behind him, ready to second his efforts, it is difficult to estimate the good that might have been accomplished in this city. But his church was hopelessly divided. Jealousy and envy took pleasure in distorting his actions, in disparaging the result of his labors. Pride, self righteousness and hypocritical pretense despised the poor and sinful whom he tried to lead into better ways and purer living. The respectable resented the fellowship of the hitherto disreputable. The haughtiness of caste, and the pride of outwardly seemliness refused association with those who were emerging with difficulty from the mud and filth of previous viciousness. There was little use in being the reconized elder brothers in the kingdom if fatted calves were to be killed for prodicals. In addition to this, there was an under current, busily kept active by some who could bear no equal with themselves in the counsels and policy of the church. They were determined to rule or ruin. Because they themselves could not be at the head, they would suffer no one to lead.

Bravely Mr. Cole struggled against the difficulties of his position. But no man can do his best work under such conditions. We are not surprised that he finally accepted a call elsewhere, notwithstanding that, outside his church, his standing was becoming firmer, and his energies were becoming more fruitful all the time.

A farewell reception was given Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Cole at the Baptist church on Thursday evening. A large crowd was present and a very pleasant evening was spent. V. B. Fulton and Mrs. Mildred Fulton sweetly rendered a duet; Prayer by Rev. Bates; a solo by Miss Jessie Essig; a short address by Rev. Tompkins; a solo by Mrs. McKinney; an address by Rev. Bates; a talk in behalf of the church by R. B. Fulton; a short talk by Rev. Cole, after which the audience sang "God Be With You Till We Meet Again" made up the evening's program, at the conclusion of which ice cream and cake were served.

Mr. Bernie Fruit, who for several months past has presided over the pots and pans in the Walt Warren restaurant, and whose reputation as a "waiter" is a well known quantity, severed the ties that bind on Tuesday evening. Mr. Fruit intends to leave in a few days for the north part of the state where he will devote his energy to hunting, trapping, chasing butterfly's etc. We regret to see Mr. Fruit move from among our midst, but find some little consolation in a remark we heard one of the boarders at this popular restaurant make on Monday morning, viz: Red Cloud's climate was not adapted to the proper preserving of Fruit during the winter months, and that the young man was making no mistake by going northward.

Franklin county papers are making the wise move of going to $1.50 per year, after January 1st, 1914. This is a move in the right direction. No paper can stand the pressure at a dollar now-a-days. Webster county papers with one exception have been charging $1.50 going on three years and have found it just as easy and the people just as willing to pay the price. Go to it boys and stick to it. We have been in the printing business 47 years and we have learned two things thoroughly, viz: Don't do your work for less than it's worth and don't give your paper away just to be a good fellow. No, sir!—Com. Ad.

The above is good advice brother, but if we remember correctly can recall a boast made some time ago by a certain paper, the name of which modestly forbids us calling, that it was the best weekly in Webster county, yet do we read correctly you can secure this same weekly, or if you prefer, a semi-weekly, at the modest price of $1.00 per. Strange, indeed it is strange, that in 47 years some have not yet learned that old proverb about those without sin casting the first stone.
