A good housewife never opens the condensed milk can with her husband's razor, nor will a loving husband carry the horse with the nutmeg grater.

An Iowa editor on being asked, "Do dogs pay?" replied "a good many do not; they take the paper several years and then have the postmaster send it back marked "refused" or "gone west."

The prosperity of our country depends so largely on the prosperity of our farmers, that everything possible should be done to render life in the rural districts agreeable as well as profitable, and nothing could conduce more to the comfort and happiness of our people than the improvement of roads.

The schoolma'am is the guiding star of the republic. She takes the little bantling fresh from the home nest, full of his pouts, his pets and his passions, ungovernable in many cases, a rampant, riotous little wretch whose own mother often admits she sends him to school purposely to get rid of him. The schoolma'am takes a whole cartload of these little anarchists, half of whom singly and alone cannot be handled by their own mothers, and she puts them in the way of becoming useful citizens.

More spectacular than ever, witnessed by more people than ever before in the history of Ak-Sar-Ben festivities, the parades which featured the annual play time for Nebraska in Omaha last week, were easily the center of attraction among the many entertainments provided. The Floral parade, held on Tuesday afternoon, was witnessed by the largest crowd that ever viewed a daylight parade in Omaha. With fifty boats and more in line, it remained for Neligh, Nebraska, the only out of town entrant, to capture first prize for decorated autos. A high wind-mill effect caught the attention of the judges' eyes and the $100 bill. The Electrical parade of Wednesday evening was more gorgeous than ever with its floats depicting various tales from the Arabian Nights. Each was a masterpiece. The German parade on Thursday was a fitting climax to a series of successful events. With twelve floats, each telling a story of German influence in American progress, and thousands of Germans in line, the parade was enthusiastically cheered along its entire line of march. The 1913 Ak-Sar-Ben was a success thanks to the loyal support of thousands and thousands of loyal Nebraskans. More than 100,000 passed through the carnival gates, testifying to the carnival as a play ground for Nebraskans and their brothers and sisters from neighboring states. With the high class attractions on the grounds, thoroughly censured by a ministers' committee, the carnival met with popular favor in that all semblance of roughness had been eliminated.

Odd Fellows In Lincoln

Grand Lodge and Other Departments Will Meet in Capital City

The Nebraska Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows will convene in Lincoln on October 14-16, together with the Grand Encampment, the Patriarchs Militant and the Rebekahs. This means that upwards of 2,000 Odd Fellows and their wives and daughters will foregather in the Capital City on those dates. The local committees have been busy for weeks making all preparations to make the stay of the delegates and visitors something to be remembered in the annals of the order. Very recently the Odd Fellows and the Rebekahs celebrated another anniversary of the founding of Odd Fellowship, and at all of these celebrations the forthcoming conventions in Lincoln were discussed with growing interest. It is believed that the parade of the Nebraska brigade of Patriarchs Militant will be the largest and best ever held in the state.

FIRE

THE ALARM is a dreadful thing for the man without insurance. Every time he sees the engines racing along his heart comes up in his throat if the fire is anywhere near his place. What folly, what mistaken economy.

THE COST OF INSURANCE need hardly be considered. The freedom from worry alone is worth it many times over. Have us insure you to-day.
