The TEPEE

Friday and Saturday
NOV. 7-8

Another fine four reel program for these dates

BY FIRE and WATER—A pleasing Edison drama. An appealing story that teaches a sound lesson.

THE COUNTERFEITERS' CONFEDERATE—A story of orphaned twins. A startling illusion will be seen in this picture. One twin falls into the hands of the underworld, the other into favored walks of life. Both sisters are portrayed by Miss Nilson in a dual capacity. In the climax the twin sisters meet. So wonderful is the illusion that you can realize that Miss Nilson and her sister are one and the same person.

PATHE WEEKLY—With its pictures of world wide events.

ON THE DECK—Comedy.

HER WOODEN LEG—Comedy.

First show at 7:30. Matinee Saturday afternoon at 2:30 and 3:30.

Monday and Tuesday
NOV. 10-11

THE LINE UP—A fine two-reel special which is in truth a feature. A pretty and convincing story introducing college life, foot ball, etc.

NAPOLEON WHIFFLES.—A fine Pathe Comedy.

Wednesday and Thursday
NOV. 12-13

THE HINDO CHARM.—A bitograph drama featuring Costello. A charming picture taken in India.

A MODEST HERO.—An interesting Biograph drama.

BATTLE FIELDS around CHAT-TANOOGA.—A fine scenic.

RIGHT NUMBER but WRONG HOUSE.—A good Comedy.

Dr. Boles was called to St. Joe Wednesday by the serious illness of "Babe" McKimney.

Mrs. Miss Nellie Maurer, Cross and Nicholson were in Superior Wednesday attending the Dental Association.
