

We Wish You

Merry Christmas

AND A

Happy New Year

F. G. Turnure & Son

HOME NEWS

Bulletin of The Week's Doings

See Warren's restaurant for fresh oysters.

See the complete line of rugs at Miner Bros. Co.

When you want a Short Order or Fresh Oysters go to Warren's restaurant.

Grand Chief Patriarch, J. W. Pittman of York left Friday morning for Guide Rock.

A trial of the Comet Cigar will convince you that it is well worth 10c's, while it is sold for 5c's, by all dealers.

Father Fitzgerald informs us that there will be services at the Catholic church Christmas morning at 8:30 and 10:30 a. m.

Attorney F. J. Maunday, wife and children left Tuesday evening for Beaver City where they will spend Christmas.

The I O O F. hall has been recently remodeled, papered and painted which makes a great improvement over its former appearance.

Mr. and Mrs. Len Aultz enjoyed a visit Sunday with his nephew, George Aultz and family, of Alma. They returned home in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Butler of Smith Center, Kansas are in the city this week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Leggett.

W. N. Richardson and wife arrived home Sunday from Texas, where they have been for some time in hopes of improving Mr. Richardson's health.

Miss Ethel Swall, who has been visiting the past week at the home of E. W. Coplen and wife, has returned to her home at Garden Grove, Calif.

STRAYED—1 Red Hog weighing about 100 pounds. Liberal reward for any information or return to C. F. WALLIN.

Robert Reiber arrived home the last of the week from Lincoln where he is attending the state agricultural college to spend Christmas with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Krout, living near Womer, Kansas were in town Monday doing some trading and also visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe McCracken.

Theo. Schultz, of Webster county, Neb., placed a shipment of hogs on the opening market of the week—Monday's St. Joe Stock Yards Daily Journal.

The Friday night's snow storm did considerable damage to the telephone companies' lines by blowing down several poles and breaking wires out in the country.

MAGAZINES

Don't take the time and trouble to correspond with distant agencies if you want to subscribe for a magazine or other publication—as a gift or for yourself.

A year's subscription to a magazine is a thoughtful and valuable gift. If you will make a list of the persons you wish to favor in this way and give us a list of the magazines, we shall order for you. We will give you as good service and as low prices as any agency can give.

CHAS. L. COTTING
THE DRUGGIST.

Miss Maude Hayes was down from Cowles Wednesday.

Ray Saunders and Chas. Sherer are home from Lincoln.

Tom Lane came in from Omaha Wednesday morning.

G. Polfus was up from Guide Rock Tuesday visiting his children.

Mrs. C. A. Meizer was a passenger to Hastings Wednesday morning.

George Bradshaw and wife came down from Bloomington Wednesday.

Mr. Myers, a solicitor for the Kansas City stock yards, was in town Monday.

Mrs. Arneson left Tuesday for Warren, Neb. to spend Christmas with her children.

Mrs. Bessie Anderson came from Chicago Tuesday evening to visit her mother, Mrs. Dierker.

Webster Ray went to Grand Island Wednesday morning to spend Christmas with his parents.

Howard Simpson left Wednesday morning for Armorel, Neb., to spend Christmas with relatives.

Mrs. Troyer of Palmer, Nebraska, is in the city this week visiting her friend, Mrs. W. D. Eison.

Esther Fitzgerald was a passenger to Superior this morning where she will hold mass at 12 o'clock to-night.

Zenas McCall returned home Tuesday evening from Hastings, town, where he had been the last few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Robinson came down from Clay Center this evening to visit his parents, C. D. Robinson and wife.

Mrs. Dr. Jones was a passenger to Alma Tuesday evening where she will spend Christmas with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Borfeldt.

Mr. J. F. Grimes and wife came down from Blue Hill Wednesday to spend Christmas with their son, Ned Grimes and family.

Mrs. Hassinger and daughter were passengers to Hastings Wednesday morning where they will spend Christmas with relatives.

Mrs. Georgia Perkins and daughter who have been visiting her parents, E. M. Gard and wife, returned to her home at Lincoln Wednesday.

We understand that Dr. Caldwell of Kansas City, who is visiting his brother Attorney Caldwell, has decided to locate here and has rented offices over M. A. Albright's store.

"The House of Three Rooms" will be the theme of the morning's sermon at the Congregational church on Sunday. Subject for the evening: "The Extra Mile." Everybody invited.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kinsell and daughters, Mrs. Grace Walters and Mrs. Cora Cobb were in Cowles Tuesday attending the funeral of Mrs. Watson, a sister of Mrs. Kinsell's.

FOR RENT—A good 160 farm 7 miles from Red Cloud, 6 miles south and 1 mile west. This is a good place and will rent for cash. For full particulars see or phone 12 on 9—M. L. MERRILL.

Grand Chief Patriarch Pittman of York and E. H. Newhouse, Dan Garber, Ed Hanson, Wilber Hamilton, Fred Wallin, Walt Warren, Henry Phares, Art McArthur, Ted Harris and Bert Benson were up to Bladen last Thursday evening where they conferred the three degrees on several candidates for the Bladen Encampment lodge which was instituted that night.

Mrs. B. H. Crow returned to her home at Guide Rock Wednesday morning after a two week's visit with her daughter Mrs. John Wilson.

Attorney J. C. Brooks, who is practicing law at Little Rock, Arkansas, arrived here Tuesday morning to visit his wife and children who live in the Catherston prison.

Prof. Betz has decided to relocate here and take charge of the band again. This will be welcome news to all our people because the city as a whole has been pleased with Professor's musical talent and it recognizes the fact he put the Red Cloud band where it is. We extend the glad hand and trust that Prof. Betz will now remain with us for all time to come.

COWLES

Mr. Hitchcock of Horton, Kas., is here visiting his sister, Mrs. Lingerer. Mr. Walker of the Red Cloud Auto Co. was in Cowles Monday between trains.

Prof. Wolf left Friday evening for Indiana to spend his vacation at home.

On account of the holidays school closed last Friday for a two weeks vacation.

Horace Morse is working in Saunders Bros' store during the holiday season.

Cecil Swigart who has been attending school at York came home for the holidays.

Mr. Patterson and family of Campbell came in Tuesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. J. B. Watson.

Norton Watson and Orval Watson were called to Cowles Tuesday on account of the death of their mother Mrs. Watson.

Louis Ritchey came home Saturday from Indiana where she has been attending high school. She expects to return after the holidays.

Miss Dolgas, one of our public school children, left for her home in Indiana Monday expecting to spend Christmas in New York.

Charles Crawford is here from Franklin visiting M. B. Reese and family. Charles graduated some time ago at Harry Reese which he thought had the others.

Mrs. Grace Garland and son Arthur and Miss Elsie Frazier came from Excessor Springs, Mo., Monday. They went on account of the ill health of E. A. Good who is still there, but is much improved.

Mrs. Mallick has had a new well put down recently. The roots from a big old well had become clogged the old one. It was so full of roots that the wellman had to pull the pipe thru them with jack screws.

Brubaker Bros. have been remodeling their blacksmith shop and converting the front of it into a garage and they are going to use the back room for smithing purposes. They expect to keep auto fixtures and do a general line of auto repairing and expert work.

The brick masons who have been working on our new public school building got thru the mason work Friday and left for their home at Hastings. The work on the building has been progressing very slowly on account of the inclemency of the weather. If we have a few good warm days the building will be enclosed so they can go ahead and plaster it. Harry Dedrick of Red Cloud got the job of plastering.

Our Christmas Tree

O,
our Christmas tree
so bright and green, awaits Old Santa Claus.
And the chimney place all swept and clean gapes wide
its ponderous jaws.
The little stockings are all hung up, and baby's just makes four. Won't old Santa Claus be surprised when he finds there is one more! There's an elegant place up in the tree to hang Johnny's gun, and a place for May and one for Kate to leave their dolls upon. But for little baby blue eyes a lower branch he must choose, where she may reach and find the place he's hung her first new shoes. Turn down the light a little now, so Old Santa Claus can see,
And baby and all must go to bed and to as good as can be, and tomorrow morn get up early after a long night's sleep, and come softly down to the Xmas tree
and see
Who will get the first peep.

WE WISH YOU

Merry Christmas

And the Happiest Kind

OF A

Happy New Year.

The Gowden-Kaley Clothing Co.

Red Cloud's Foremost Clothiers

20 Per Cent Discount

Just Think of it. We are really paying you to help us sell out this stock. Discount sales are frequent when the merchant wishes to clean up odds and ends, but we reserve nothing in this big, clean stock of Up-to-date shoes. We are simply changing the line and the new stock already received is included in this sale. You need shoes and we need the room. The Big Sale is still on. Come early.

Carpenters Shoe Store

Newhouse Block. First-Class Shoe Repairing

Fresh

From The Factory, a nice
Line of Useful

Xmas Goods

Don't Fail To See
and Inspect Our Line

ED. AMACK

All The Phones Furniture and Undertaking

A Lasting Remembrance

A Year's Subscription to The Chief would be A most acceptable gift to your friend at home or at a distance. 52 Newsy letters from home