FIRE
THE ALARM is a dreadful thing for the man without insurance. Every time he sees the engines racing along his heart comes up in his throat if the fire is anywhere near his place. What folly, what mistaken economy.
THE COST OF INSURANCE is so small that it need hardly be considered. The freedom from worry alone is worth it many times over. Have us insure you to-day.

Frame Construction Is Most Preferable

for home building not only on account of its economy, but because of its adaptability to changing conditions. Homes built of wood are easily moved from one location to another; they can be altered or enlarged without injuring their general appearance for the reason that painting will make the old look as good as the new. Instead of painting being considered an expense it should really be held as an improvement because it freshens up the whole appearance of your home, and instead of ultimate decay and deteriorated value as is the case with substitutes that can only be renovated by building a whole new house, your home becomes constantly more valuable. This is only one of the little things to consider when building a home. "Little drops of water, etc., make a mighty ocean." Come in and we'll tell you more about lumber.

BEST OF PURIFYING AGENTS

Charcoal and Quicklime Are Nature's Remedy--How to Get Most Lasting Results.

Charcoal and quicklime are the best known purifiers. The best plan for utilizing charcoal in the food closet or in the cellar bins where fruits or vegetables are kept is to suspend it in a net bag. Any coarse open net will do. Make a number of bags sufficiently large to hold several large lumps of charcoal. Do not powder the charcoal, but fill the bags with the lumps, and after they have had an opportunity to absorb all sorts of bad smells and mustiness, and leave the atmosphere pure and sweet, their usefulness will not be over. Remember that the power of charcoal to serve its purifying purposes is proportioned to its freshness, and the freshening process is restored by heating. At least once a week take the charcoal bags down, empty them in a fire pot kept for the purpose and heat the charcoal very hot. The freshened lumps may then be restored to the net bags and serve a new period of usefulness.

Boxes of lime and jars of plaster are very effective in absorbing dampness, but their useful properties are not fully secured unless these disinfecting and purifying absorbents can be placed in the best form to be effective and easily handled. In the form of a pad with the layers of lime or plaster or a combination of each evenly distributed, their absorbent qualities will be more than doubled.

WOMEN'S BANK MEETS WANT

London Institution, Run By and For the One Sex, Has Proved a Success.

The possibilities of banking as a career for women have been demonstrated by Farrow's Bank for Women, which was inaugurated a couple of years ago in London, and which managed entirely by women, proved so successful that it was recently moved to new and enlarged quarters.

The bank's success, in the opinion of Mrs. Kate Reilly, the manager, is largely due to the hearty support it has received from women.

"The eagerness with which women of all classes and from all parts of the empire took up the idea of an institution devoted entirely to their needs was in itself a proof that Farrow's novel departure was fulfilling a long-felt want," Mrs. Reilly said.

"Our bank gives women the privilege of consulting one of their own sex about their business affairs.

"The business transacted here is the same as that transacted by any other joint stock bank, and the fact that all our staff consists of women is good evidence that one sex is not more gifted than the other in accuracy and a head for figures.

"A feature of our establishment here is a rendezvous room for our clients, where they can meet their friends and write letters."

Model Farm Colony.

The Brazilian "Jornal do Commercio" announces that the minister of finance of the state of Parana has received from the Brazil Railway company a report of the development of the fazenda at Caramby, on the railway north of Ponta Grossa, which was acquired by the company to demonstrate the possibility of growing wheat, the latest modern machinery being imported therefor. Eighty houses have been built for colonists, and so far fourteen families have been established in them. The fazenda possesses pedigree stock, Swiss bulls of pure race having been imported, and includes a dairy fitted with most modern appliances, also from Switzerland, for making butter and cheese. An agricultural expert is on the fazenda for the purpose of instructing the colonists. An arrangement has been made for introducing colonists from Holland, and already 400 pounds of Dutch cheese are produced weekly, finding a market in Curitiba, Ponta Grossa and Sao Paulo.

Turkish Women's Strong Point.

Turkish women are said to have one accomplishment in which they excel the women of all other nationalities. They know how to sit. Hester Donaldson Jenkins calls attention to the fact that the Turkish verb to sit is used where occidentals would use to live, or stay, or visit. To the question, "Where are you living?" one gets the reply, "I am sitting in Stamboul." Or, to the question, "Are you married?" the answer will be "No, I am sitting at home." And when they sit they sit quietly, "in the perfect repose of a sleeping cat." They don't have to keep their hands busy. They crochet or knit. They just sit.

Nogli's Nerve Tonic.

Having been dedicated to the profession of arms, General Nogli was taken, while still a small boy, to see a criminal decapitated, and was rebuked for shuddering at the spectacle. After nightfall, when all was darkness and silent, he was required to go alone to the burial ground and bring back the culprit's head. The ordeal was designed to strengthen his nerves, and teach him to fear nothing, living or dead.--Francis E. Leupp, in the Atlantic.

In the Meeting.

"Who is that man who is gesticulating so frantically to be recognized by the chairman?"
 "I don't know his name, but he is a carpet manufacturer."
 "Then by all means let him have the floor."

Not Silence, but ADVERTISING, is Golden to the Business Man.

Not a Universal Emporium.
 "Come in and have it charged," was the inviting sign in front of a place of business in a Jersey town. A stranger, being somewhat low in funds, walked in briskly. "I understand that I can get things charged here," he said, addressing one of the employes. "Only storage batteries," replied the other man--Judge.

Warning to Boreas.
 When the man upon whom you are calling begins to drum on his desk with his fingers, he is not drumming "the devil's tattoo" at random. He is ticking out a clear, emphatic telegram, hot from the wire--"Will this fellow never go?" Its meaning never changes, and you ought to understand it at the first drum.
