March 31, 1881. CALLING BY TELEPHONE. MODERN SCIENTIFIC IMPROVEMENTS APPLIED TO THE USES OF SOCIETY. "Are you very busy to-day?" asked a fashionably-dressed young man of the young lady at the telephone head-"Not very," responded the young

"I want to make some calls over your wires," said the young man.
"You can call upon the people and I'll talk to them. Saves carriage hire and running around you know." "Why will you have first?" asked the young lady admiringly.
"You might call Mrs. Snocks."

The young lady called, got an an-awer and turned the wire over to the "Good morning, Mrs. Scooks," make. What's that? Yes, she's at fifty cents a bottle.

"Happy New Year, Mrs. Stooks; hope I hear you well, ma'am. Strange weather we're having. You sound charming, Mrs. Stooks. I congratulate you. How's that? What to introduce the young ladies? Delighted, I assure you. Ah! Miss Stooks, charmed, yes, and Miss Arabella Shooks, you flatter me, and Miss Nette Snooks, I'm overwhelmed with the honor," and the young man bowed deeply as each name was signaled to him. "Pleasant weather, ladies; would like to stay longer, but am awfully driven. Hope to see you soon again, driven. Hope to see you soon again, ladies. Well, hello, hello! Ah, yes! so do. God-bye, Miss Stooks!

Practically an egg is animal food, and yet there is none of the disagreeable work of the butcher necessary to obtain it. The vegetarians of England use egg freely, and many of these men are eighty and ninety years old, and have been remarkably free from illness. Eggs are best when cooked four minutes. This takes are at the street of Nebrassa, and State Of Nebrass ness. Eggs are best when cooked four minutes. This takes away the animal taste that is offensive to some, but does not harden the white or yelk so as to make them hard to digest. An egg if cooked very hard is difficult of digestion except by those of stout stomachs; such eggs should be eaten with bread and masticated very finely. Au egg spread on toast is food fit for a king, if kings deserve any better food than anybody else, which is doub ful. Fried eggs are less wholesome than boiled ones.

A black satin parasol is similarly trimmed with black Spanish lace, and lined with red. A plain cream colored satin is lined with delicate blue, and trimmed with an ecru flounce of Spanish lace. Some of the new styles of black or red satin have a brilliant Roman border, the usual lace flounce and linings of peach blossom, old gold or white silk; others are embroidered in an elabora'e garland of flowers, with garnet and jet or amber and jet beads Some black satin parasols have fine French teaded lace flouncing, and rings attached with gold satin balls.

Others have brocaded bord rs of gold and crimson. The fabrics are also of heavy brocade satin, glittering with threads of gold or of silver. The of the costlest materials. The linings are of sincet colors-delicate cream, new and id gold, and all shades of crimson, bright olive tints, opalescent shades, pearl, pale blue, water green, and bother be oming colors for both blende and brone te. Larger fixed parasols for coaching and seaside are covered with plain plum, purple and bottle green, satin lined with gold color or peach blossom and the last new shade of straw called gas jet. The "danier" designs of red and black checker board silk are extensively pand for linear. The checker are ly used for linings. The checks are also seen in three contrasting colors. Extremely pretty sesside parasols are covered with momie cloth, having floral strips around them. Others are of Madras gingham. Some of the latest importations have a cream colored, fine cambric ground, covered with delicate brown branches and foliage and flying birds. One gore is plain and decorated with a brown palette, the usual dabs of paint and a little water scene or pond, on which little water scene or pond, on which lillies float, some water-grasses, a sedgy bank, a gay king-fisher with a fish in its bill. This is reproduced in other dainty scenes on a similar palette on other parasols. The handles of the least expensive parasols are made of such strange light woods as Fragola, Pyreneese thistle, Tom O Shanter ash, African bamboo, palm fiber and ebony. They have gold and silver heads in imitation of bamboo, carved horn, oxidized silver pug heads, eagles and imitation of gold hammered work in abony, and shepherds' crooks tipped with gold and silver.

Would it not be wise to substitute more eggs for meat in our daily diet? About one-third of the weight of an egg is solid nutriment. This is more than can be said of meat. There are no bones, no tough pieces that have to be laid aside. A good egg is made up of ten parts shell, sixty parts white and thirty parts yolk. The white of an egg contains sixty-six per cent wa-

MICA AXLE GREASE Composed largely of powdered mice and isinglase is the best and cheapest lubricator in the world. It is the best because I does not gum, but forms a highly polished surface over the axis, doing away with a large amount of friction. It is the cheapest because you need use but half the quantity in gressing your wagon that you would of any other axis grease made, and then rus your wagon twice as long. It answers equally as well for Mill Gearing, Threshing Machines, Buggles, &c., as for wagons—Send fer Pocket Cyclopedia of Things Worth Knowing. Mailed free to any address.

is astonishing. Its effects go deeper than the mere symptoms of pulmonary disease and discharges the cause from the system. Free and painless expectoration is the mode by which it relieves the lungs, chest and throat from the burdens which oppress them; thus arresting Consumption and Bronchitis in the germ before they reach the more dangerous stages. The emaciated sufferer at the present date, and yet the preparation is only in the infancy of its usefulness. The great defect of all Cough Remedies hitherto introduced is that they are simply expulsory. Hence they are useless; for unless the causes of the acrid secretions which are coughed up are removed, and the ruptured, inflamed or maturated surfaces healed and restored to their natural tone, a cure is impossible. Fritsch's Prussian Cough Syrup accomplishes these objects. The mucus and muca-pus which are the consequence of Lung Disease, are thrown off by it, while at the same time it soothes and invigorates the weakened tissues.

"LIFE FOR THE LUNGS."

For coughs, colds, influenza, brenchial difficulties, tightness of the chest, hoarseness, sore throat, trachitis, inflammation of the lungs, difficulty of breathing, pleurisy and all disorders of a pulmonary nature, it has never been equaled.
