The young men of each of the twenty arrondissements of the capital are called out in their turn. The ceremony takes piace on the ground floor of the Palace of industry in the Champs Elysees. A large tem-porary salle is formed for the recep-tion of the district, with his triccolored scarf, and the military authorities in scarf, and the military authorities in mufti are seated round a large greenbaized table. The Tirage takes place in alpha-bethical order, so many letters being called up at the same time.
