

THE WORLD OVER.

A Choice Collection of Events Gathered in a Day.

Embracing Every Phase of Life at Home and Abroad.

PARIS, June 18.—There was a great anti-Italian demonstration at Versailles last night, which, at one time, threatened to assume very serious proportions. When the first detachment of the troops returning from the Tunisian expedition marched past the Italian club-house some of the Italians gathered on the steps and at the windows hissed, which so infuriated the French populace on the sidewalk, that in a few moments there was hardly an unbroken pane of glass in the entire front of the building. Stones flew thick and fast and cries to lynch the Italians were frequent. Some of the mob endeavored to carry out this threat by chasing members of the club into the upper story and into the neighboring buildings. The mob was a well-dressed one. Several local officials were conspicuous in it and one member of the municipal council tore the Italian escutcheon from the club and threw it into the streets. The mob did not disperse until it had created a general havoc in the club rooms and then only with long and prolonged cheers of "Abas L'Italie." The police, who seemed to be nowhere in sight when the tumult was at its height, arrived after the mob had left the club-house, and formed a guard at the door to prevent further excess. News of the affair spread quickly over all Versailles and the greatest excitement prevailed late into the night. Fresh crowds gathered in front of the Italian club from time to time, giving utterance to the same resentful feeling towards the Italians, and "Abas L'Italie" was heard in the streets and cafes until long past midnight.

Ocean Disaster.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS. LONDON, June 18.—Dispatches from Melbourne confirm the loss of the Austrian mail steamer Tarama, together with over one hundred lives, including four New Zealand delegates to the Wesleyan general conference, which meets at Adelaide. The names of the four ministers are Connolly, Armitage, Mitchell and Richardson. The steamer was making her regular voyage from Dunedin to Melbourne when the disaster took place.

San Antonio Paragrafts.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS. SAN ANTONIO, June 18.—The revenue cutter Corwin, on exploring expedition, has arrived at Omaha, en route to Seal Islands, thence to Plover Bay and the northern shores of Asia. Henry Williams, an assayer, was killed by the bursting of a shotgun at Brooklyn mine, near Reno. William Shaw committed suicide at Tucson by tying his hands and lying down in a water ditch.

Frisco Flash.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS. SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—The supreme court has issued a writ of prohibition against the assessor, judges, who have granted injunctions, commanding them to stop all proceedings in the Slicker's case until further order of the court and show cause on the 10th of July why the writ should not be made perpetual. This takes the debris question out of the courts. Moses C. Andrews, ex-state senator from Tuolumne died to-day.

Blazing Tallow in Hogville.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS. CINCINNATI, June 18.—At 3:30 o'clock this morning, fire at Atkinson's soap and oil works, Fifth street, near Eagleston avenue, was found to be on fire. The flames spread with wonderful rapidity and alarm. After alarm was turned in. At one time it looked as if the whole of that city would go. Burning oil and grease made a great blaze, visible all over the city. The fifth house of the same firm took fire, and all are a total loss. At four a terrific explosion took place in the building by burning oil and grease. A few moments after the wall fell in with a crash. The building destroyed was full of soap and tallow candles and benzine. The loss is not less than $100,000. Haines' soap works and two rows of brick dwellings adjoining, used as tenements, were badly damaged but it is not known to what extent.

A Dyer to Live.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS. CLEVELAND, Ohio, June 18.—The Penny Press contains an account of a clear case of Enoch Arden. Five years ago James Dyer was reported lost on the steamer Harvest on Lake Michigan. After some time his wife married a man named Andrews. Lately Dyer turned up and sought out his ex-wife and during the absence of Andrews, removed some of the furniture and wearing apparel to Chicago. The woman is respectable and sensitive, and brooded over her misfortune, but decided not to yield to Dyer's demands.

Another Expedition.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS. ASTORIA, Oregon, June 18.—Advices from Omalaska to-day, under date of May 22, state that the revenue cutter "Corwin," Capt. Hooper, arrived there May 17th, and was making active preparations to leave for Seal Island, going hence to Nunivik, on Plover Bay, Siberia. He will there land sledges, parties to visit the shores of Asia. At Omalaska he took on a full supply of fuel and covered all his sledges with sea lion skins.

NEW YORK NOTES.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS. NEW YORK, June 18.—The presidents of the trunk lines at a meeting just held resolved not to countenance any time contracts. Henry Bergh, president of the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, has written a letter to the New York State association for the protection of fish and game, sharply criticizing the coming pigeon shoot at 2,000 birds to test the skill of the members at the Coney Island tournament. William Eiler, aged 15, died last evening from overstudy at school, and Lizzie McFurn, aged 16, residing a few blocks from Eiler's, attempted suicide yesterday by jumping into the East River because she failed to pass examination for the Normal college. She was rescued by a boatman as she was sinking for the third time.

The contract of the Italian government for all the Kentucky tobacco it will want this year, was closed with Maas & Mathias, of Maimben, Germany, a few days ago, but the exact terms are unknown yet, and trade here is much excited on the subject. Bids were invited for fifteen million kilograms, equal to 22,500 hogsheds, Messrs. Abenheim & Co., New York, agents for these successful bidders, say that their cable advices announce that the contract was for 7,500,000 kilograms only, or about 11,000 hogsheds, but the firm gain the privilege of delivering a few thousand hogsheds more, and was secured against competition by a condition that no other contract was to be made this year. Other firms say the Italian government would not have advertised for 22,500 hogsheds if it had wanted only 11,000, and no government that authorizes the tobacco trade ever grants conditional contracts. Yost, Rose & Co., and Gresson are said to have received cable dispatches putting the contract at 21,000 hogsheds without conditions or privileges. Future prices of tobacco here and in Kentucky depends largely on the extent of this contract.

Destructive Fire.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS. APPLETON, Wis., June 18.—The Appleton woolen mills, owned by Hutchinson, Reeves & Harwood, and a large furniture factory adjoining, owned by J. F. Atkinson & Bro., of New York, were burned last night. Loss on mill, $60,000; on factory, $25,000. An employee at the latter place, James A. Moran, was caught in the building and burned to death. Those being the principal industries of the place, over 300 men are thrown out of employment.

A New Nebraska Railroad.

TOPEKA, Kansas, July 18.—The latest important railroad enterprise here is the incorporation of the "Nebraska, Topeka, Iowa & Memphis" road, the papers for which have just been filed. The road is to run from this point south to Grant, Kansas, thence south through Missouri and Arkansas to Memphis. It will also run from this point north to Lincoln, Nebraska. Eastern capitalists have agreed to take the bonds and assume the construction, aid for which will be voted by the townships through which the road passes. All preparations are made for the survey. The route will traverse a country having no railroad facilities at present, tapping the rich coal mines in southern Kansas and Missouri.

The Stomach Ache.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS. CHICAGO, June 18.—For the first time since the commencement of the fast Grignon-to-day complains of feeling badly. He slept about six hours last night, but it did not rest him. The trouble this morning was weakness and sinking sensation. He explains that these symptoms are not alarming, that a fasting man must expect sudden letting down every week or two, but after getting accustomed to them he expects to feel as well as ever. His weight, this noon, shows a loss in the past 24 hours of 1 1/2 pounds, or 29 1/2 in the past 21 days. The temperature is 98 1/2, respiration 14, pulse 58, but very weak.

Twain's Loaded.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS. RENO, Nev., June 18.—Assayer Henry Williams was killed at Brooklyn this morning by the bursting of a shotgun.

A Dark Layout.

LEAVILLE, Col., June 18.—Gilbert, who was to have been hanged to-day, has been reprieved by Gov. Pitkin for forty-one days.

Peoria's Boat Pullers.

CHICAGO, June 18.—The crews of the Farragut boat club left for Peoria this morning to practice over the course of the Mississippi Valley regatta, which begins Wednesday.

A Terrible Death.

FREMONT, Neb., June 18.—Last evening Dodge county met a severe loss in the accidental death of Mr. John Kern, a prominent man and farmer of this locality. At the time of his death Mr. Kern owned quite a herd of blooded cattle and it was while attending and caring for them that he came to his horrible death. He had been out in the pasture herding the cattle all day, and towards evening he lay down upon the grass to rest, first tying his horse's bridle rein to his wrist so that it might not get away from him. Being tired and greatly exhausted Mr. Kern fell to sleep, and his horse, becoming frightened, ran away dragging him along until he was bruised and beaten to death. When found he was fearfully mangled and life was wholly extinct. Mr. Kern was an old and highly esteemed citizen of Dodge county, and, at the time of his decease, quite a wealthy man. He leaves three or four sons, men grown, residents of the county, who are all well-to-do. In their present affliction they have the unqualified sympathy of the entire community in which they live.

SOCIAL SIMMERINGS.

Over the Flame and Dust of the Heated Term.

The Festive Picnic and the Light Fantastic.

While Cupid Stirs the Compound With His Arrow.

Society Notes and Polite Personalities.

If heat and dust exercise any influence over social pleasures, the past week should be set down as very uneventful. But society refuses to be hampered by any such trifles as a lack of sprinkling carts or the height of the thermometer, and while Hanscom park and a shady lawn are available will not be deprived of its accustomed pleasures. So although the closing days of June can scarcely be called the height of the social season we have several important events to chronicle during the week, the first of which is the which took place at Hanscom park on Monday evening. The picnic was very informal and correspondingly enjoyable. The following ladies and gentlemen composed the party: A. E. Touzalin and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thrall, Miss Alice Thrall, Col. J. J. Dickey, Miss Della Dickey, Hon. G. W. Doane and wife, Miss Doane, Miss Wells, Miss Barkalow, Miss Steele, Miss Wakely, Miss Berlin, Miss Hall, Messrs. Ross, Morris, Ringwalt, Patrick, Drake, Wood, and Newt. Barkalow.

COMPLIMENTARY SUPPER.

On Tuesday evening a supper in honor of Consul Benj. Barrows was given at the residence of Mr. Joseph Millard, on Farnham street, to a select circle of that gentleman's friends. The close of the afternoon was spent in social converse, and at seven o'clock the party sat down to an elegantly prepared supper. The invited guests were Judge Wakely, General Manderson, L. M. Bennett, P. W. Hitecock, Marshal Bierbower, C. E. Yost, E. M. Morsenan, J. W. Gannett, W. W. Morse, William Wallace, Lynn Richardson, G. W. Liningor, J. C. Cowin, Ezra Millard, Webster Snyder, L. S. Reed, J. M. Watson, Richard Carrier.

A DELIGHTFUL OCCASION.

A most delightful little party was given Friday evening by the Misses Etta and Lizzie Wells. The early evening until eleven o'clock was pleasantly spent in conversation and dancing, when the German was taken up and was not concluded until early in the morning. Although the party was almost impromptu and very informal a most enjoyable evening was spent by all the participants. Among those present were the Misses Doane, Steele, Berlin, Wakely, Horbach, Barkalow, Ross, Hall and Mrs. Price, of Fremont; and Messrs. Drake, Wood, Berlin, Jas. M. Ross, Clarkson, N. Barkalow, Savage, W. B. Scott, and Ringwalt.

NOTES.

Master John McCormick celebrated his thirteenth birthday on Thursday afternoon, by giving a party to his numerous young friends. About fifty young ladies and gentlemen responded to the invitation and passed such an afternoon and evening of enjoyment as only children can have. Master McCormick has one-half of the happy anniversaries of the occasion which were wished him by his friends he will live to be as old as Methusalem and enjoy his thousand years a hundred times as much.

A number of Omaha's young ladies have been spending the week with the Misses Wells and participating in a carnival of social enjoyment.

The Pleasant Hours club

The newly married couple will spend their honeymoon in the east.
