After second joint ballot the convention adjourned.

EPITOMIZED REPORT.
Of Yesterday's Important Telegraphic News, Condensed from the National Associated Press Dispatches.

W. H. Vanderbilt has just driven his road team "Small Hopes" and "Lyanster" to a top wagon at Gentlemen's driving park, one mile in 2:24. He expects to beat 2:23.

The death is announced to-day of James B. Wooster, a well known physician, inventor and writer of this city. His age was 81 and was born in Nova Scotia.

Twenty-four hundred immigrants have landed at Castle Garden in the past twenty-four hours.

The superintendent of the labor bureau at Castle Garden has just received an application for 500 to 1,000 Norwegian and Swedes to work on the railroads in New Mexico at $2.50 a day.

DUBLIN, June 23.—The body of a tenant farmer named Kennedy was found in a field with several ghastly wounds inflicted on different parts of his body. His pockets were rifled, indicating robbery, but the fact that Kennedy received several threatening letters lately, is looked upon as another aggravating outrage.

SPORTING RECORD.

PEORIA, Ill., June 23.—At a meeting of the executive board of the M. V. A. R. A. last night the Mississippi, of St. Louis, were disqualified on the ground that as one of them was a tug boat hand and the other had recently been a rafterman, they were therefore not strictly amateur. The crew were entered for the free-for-all four to be rowed to-morrow.

The fine-haired members of the association are jubilant will the public are indignant at the decision. The cup for the championship of the Mississippi valley has to be won three consecutive times before the award can be made. The Modoca had won it twice and would have carried it off had not the Mississippi crew reorganized, entered and gobbled it in the two last races for the cup. The next race for the cup comes off in about six weeks with strong prospects of the Mississippi crew winning.

Yesterday the Modocs did not win a race, which made St. John, of St. Louis, their patron saint, so mad that he entered protest against the Mississippi as stated. The latter club were to have been the opponents of the Modocs in the free-for-all four, to be rowed to-morrow.

Rather Thin.

WATER, Ill., June 23.—Sheriff Barber of this place has received a letter from a man now serving out a sentence in the penitentiary at Wau-pun, Wis., in which the writer confesses to a murder alleged in this county a year ago, at which time the writer claims he committed a robbery. The letter sets forth that he was interrupted at the time of the robbery and shot a man who he supposed was an officer about to effect his arrest, the singular part of the story is that while the facts of the robbery tally exactly with a minute description given in the letter nothing has ever been known of the alleged murderer. The ground where the body is claimed to have been hidden is being carefully searched. It is thought to be the scheme on the part of a jail bird to get out of the penitentiary in order to be brought here and then effect his escape.

Important Changes.

CHICAGO, Ills., June 23.—It is stated on authority that important changes are about to be made in the management of the Chicago postoffice for political reasons. John M. Hubbard, superintendent of the carrier service, and an active Blaine man during the campaign, has already been asked to resign before July 1st.

French vs. Italian.

PARIS, June 23.—The ill feeling between the Frenchmen and the Italians grows worse hourly, several breaches of peace took place here last night. Several provincial towns report like

DAVENPORT'S DOSE.
Administered to the Bradley Investigating Committee.

The President Entirely Unconcerned About Conkling and Platt. And is Entirely Ignorant of Who Strahan Was.

Bradley Investigation.
NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS.
ALBANY, N. Y., June 23.—The Bradley bribery investigating committee met this morning. The first witness was James Tellinghast, former general superintendent, and now assistant to the president of the New York Central railroad who was examined particularly regarding the $20,000 check which he had cashed in Albany. He testified that he procured money for the purpose of closing out a real estate transaction in Buffalo where he resided. That the negotiation could not be completed and he loaned the money to a Buffalo bank which was short of currency. Note one dollar was paid to any member of the legislature. The loan to the Buffalo bank was purely accidental, as the bank happened to have the money in its possession.

The next witness was Charles H. Ingersoll, who testified that he was in intimate terms with Senator Session's, and that he also knew Bradley. Bradley told him he should stop voting for Conkling and Platt, and vote for Depew; he told Sessions so. This was one afternoon before the election at Albany took place. John I. Davenport, chief supervisor of New York city, sworn, despite the protests of Bang's counsel for Bradley and the committee, who stated he has no further testimony to offer on his side, and objected to Davenport's testimony until all other witnesses were sworn.

Failure.
NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS.
MILWAUKEE, June 23.—Albert Slocum, the largest manufacturer of Log-horn straw hats in the northwest, has made an assignment. His liabilities are $250,000; assets, $191,000. The failure is attributed to small demand and large stock on hand.

Short Honeymoon.
ATLANTA, Ga., June 23.—At Rogers' Mill, Bartow county, Ga., Mrs. John Middling was accidentally knocked off the ferry boat. Her husband jumped to her rescue and both were drowned. They were found locked in each others arms. They were recently married.

Terrific Storms.
NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS.
CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., June 23.—The towns along the line of the Memphis and Charleston railroad seem to be singled out by furious storms. Three destructive storms prevailed last week, damaging several towns severely, and last night another passed over Huntsville, Ala., blowing down and entirely destroying a large three story brick cotton seed oil mill which was in the course of erection.

Bridge Lease Confirmed.
ST. LOUIS, June 23.—The report that the Gould syndicate have leased the St. Louis bridge from London bondholders, is fully confirmed. All railroad center here have also pretty well decided to unite in building a union depot further west than the present one, which is inadequate to meet present requirements. It is owned in Cincinnati and stockholders refuse to make the necessary improvements.

A Temperance Lecture.
DETROIT, June 23.—Matthew O'Donnell, of East Saginaw, committed suicide this morning in a horrible manner. He cut his abdomen open with a razor and pulled his entrails out, and then cut his throat. He had the delirium tremens at the time.

A Serious Strike.
HUNTINGTON, Ind., June 23.—A strike occurred at Antioch, four miles from here, at the railroad shops yesterday. The strikers refused to let men work, got drunk and broke into Brubaker's saloon. Brubaker fired on the mob, fatally wounding three and seriously wounding four others. Mr. Dawson, a justice of the peace, in trying to quell the mob, was riddled with buckshot and killed. The greatest excitement prevails and mob threatened to burn the town.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

BRADY WANTS A TRIAL.
WASHINGTON, June 23.—In the criminal court to-day, ex-Secretary Assistant Postmaster-General Brady, made through his counsel an application that the grand jury should examine the star route cases in which his name is connected at once. Judge Cox said the officials of the government charged with duty in the case did not present any accusations against Gen. Brady or anyone else, and it would therefore be perfectly futile to take the matter up. He could not see how the case could come up before the grand jury, and though parties might have to suffer he was obliged to refuse the motion of Brady's counsel.

ANOTHER COMET.
The Smithsonian institute has telegraphic announcement of discovery at the Paris observatory at three a. m., June 23d, of a large comet in 5 hours and 33 minutes right ascension and 41 degrees north declination.

Mr. James Daley, who resides at No. 551 Ninth avenue, New York, says: "About five years since, I fell from a scaffold and severely injured my back, and have been a sufferer ever since. A short time ago I slipped and fell on the sidewalk, and greatly aggravated my old trouble. While in this unhappy condition a friend recommended St. Jacobs Oil, and I was induced to give it a trial. After applying it for a short time, I was completely cured, not only of the back effects of my last fall, but of those consequent upon my first hurt, and which had lingered with me for five years. I can therefore conscientiously bear testimony to the wonderful curative properties of St. Jacobs Oil."

Davenport testified further that Knox said he had been in Washington ten days endeavoring to bring about a better state of feeling between the president and Conkling. Davenport believed that if Strahan had answered affirmatively, that he would be appointed. He did not say that he could not accept the office without reference to the office of senator. Strahan did not ask him if he would be expected to oppose Conkling's election.

At Davenport's request the despatch that passed between him and Knox and between him and members of the investigation committee were put in evidence.

The famous midnight dispatch from Knox to Davenport was as follows: "WASHINGTON, D. C., June 19.—Telegraph immediately about Strahan. If he will not act, who is next best? How will Erhardt or Hugh Gardiner do? If neither, name best man. Telegraph immediately and full name. (Signed.) H. E. K. Arlington.

Davenport also gave copies of his telegraphic correspondence with Postmaster-General James and Knox granting permission to state what was said between them concerning the marshaling.

Arthur W. Hickman, a member of the assembly testified that on June 8th when Bradley swears that Sessions offered him a bribe, in the evening Bradley said to him (Hickman) that "in obedience to the will of his constituents he should quit voting for Conkling and vote for Cornell and Rogers."

This closed the testimony and the counsel submitted case without argument.

Griscoom Lively.
CHICAGO, June 23.—Griscoom slept soundly for six and a half hours last night and awoke refreshed. To-day for the first time since the commencement of his fast he started out for a walk attended by watchers, going out to Lincoln Park and making a long tour through that interesting place. Returning the party made a visit of inspection to a palatial private residence in course of erection on north side. The party started out at nine fifteen, returning at eleven forty-five, having walked seven miles. Weight at noon was 165; being one pound less than yesterday, pulse 57, respiration 15, temperature 98.4.

Identified.
NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 22.—Thor. Hooper, late agent of the National Dispatch line and Vermont Central road at Chicago, who suddenly left that city last week with an alleged shortage of some $10,000 dollars in his accounts, is claimed to have been seen on the streets here yesterday by two well known railway men. He was recognized but not spoken to. They are confident that it was not a case of mistaken identity.

A Fraudulent Debtor.
NEW YORK, June 23.—Albert Slocum, a manufacturer of straw goods of Milwaukee, whose assignment with liabilities of $250,000 was telegraphed from Milwaukee, has been arrested in this city on the ground of alleged fraudulent disposition of property with intention to defraud creditors and alleged fraudulent statement to obtain credit. While in charge of the office, it is said, he was allowed to telegraph to Milwaukee to have his assignment made there. He evidently had a deed prepared to have it filed at short notice. It is alleged he told Zimmerman & Co., at whose instance he was arrested, they could take 45 cents on the dollar, or he would fix things so they could. He owes them $61,000.

How It Was Done.
The case of the State of Nebraska against Edwards and Griffin, the tramps arrested for burglarizing the jewelry store of Mr. Joanson, is on trial yesterday in the district court. Gen. O'Brien appears for the defendants and N. J. Burnham in behalf of the state. According to the testimony of one of the defendants he was walking along the street quietly, when he was either pushed, or stumbled against the window. In his fall he broke the glass, and in endeavoring to recover himself, somehow the watches stuck to him. The case is being fiercely fought.

An Ancient Comet Discovered.
NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS.
CHICAGO, June 23.—A brilliant comet, having a tail about six feet long, seen with the naked eye, was observed here at half-past three o'clock this morning moving westward. This afternoon dispatches were received from Prof. Swift, of the Warner observatory, and Prof. Sharpless, of the Haverford college, reporting that the comet was seen early this morning in the constellation of Antea, eight degrees from Capella, having a westerly motion. It is supposed to be the same comet seen here and not improbably the comet of 1812, for the discovery of which a reward of $200 has been offered.

LONDON, June 23.—A new comet was visible in the northern heavens early this morning. Astronomers predict that by the 26th inst. it will be visible all night.

Satisfactory.
Mrs. Wallace, Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "I have used BURDICK BLOOD BITTERS for nervous and bilious headaches, and have recommended them to my friends; I believe them superior to any other medicine I have used, and can recommend them to anyone requiring a cure for biliousness. Price $1.00, trial size 10 cents."

Mr. Stobbin on the Situation.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE BEE.
OMAHA, June 23.—I deny the assertion published in this evening's Bee that the waiters did not concoct any plan to get rid of the obnoxious head-waiter. He quit himself, and yesterday morning Dick Kitchen himself, in person, begged the boys to go to work for him, in my presence. Three accepted the offer and six walked in the office and demanded their pay, and got it too, and walked out peacefully. I know they are colored boys but they are gentlemen also.

Fire Department Meeting.

At the meeting of the fire department held Wednesday, it was found that a minority only favored accepting the invitation of the Cheyenne boys to visit that city on July 4th. A committee, however, was appointed to inquire about railroad fares. E. G. Ryley resigned the presidency of the department, and M. Goldsmith was elected instead. Wm. Webb, No. 1; Wm. Ryan, No. 2; Gustave Anderson, No. 3; Julius Treitschke, hook and ladder were elected trustees.

Concert on Capitol Hill.

On Saturday evening the Omaha musical union (Søenerfest orchestra), F. M. Steinhäuser director, will give a concert on Capitol Hill, beginning at 7 o'clock, sharp. The following is the programme:

- 1. Teufels March, Steinhäuser
- 2. Overture, "Diana Blanche", Hoidies
- 3. One Day at Manhattan Beach, grand selection, Steinhäuser
- 4. Priests' March, "Athalia", Mendelssohn
- 5. Overture, "Maritana", Wallace
- 6. Loreley, Paraphrase, Neswada

A Discovery.

For some time past articles belonging to the guests of the Omaha house have been gradually disappearing. Finally George Hart, employed about the place as a porter and runner, fell under suspicion. His valise was examined yesterday and a revolver and silver watch belonging to guests were found. Hart was arrested by Officer O'Donohue.

Slocumb Investigation.

The grand jury were busy all day yesterday taking testimony on the cases of the violation of the liquor laws, and by evening some startling action on their part is expected. They have examined quite a large number of citizens, including several prominent city officials. Nobody seems able to indicate the outcome of the investigation.

CAN IT BE TRUE,

That a Daughter Treated Her Mother So Shamefully.

A lady sends a communication for publication in The Bee in which she makes some rather severe strictures upon one of her neighbors, charging brutal treatment of her mother. The lady says the woman's mother is nearly sixty years of age and very infirm, but notwithstanding this, she was put out of doors a few days ago. Her condition is pitiable, and but for the kindness of the neighbors would be absolutely terrible. The poor old woman, according to the communication, is not only without shoes but without the money to purchase them. The conduct of the daughter is all the more reprehensible from the fact that she appears to be in fair circumstances. If the facts of the case are nearly as bad as stated the daughter's conduct can only be characterized as inhuman and unworthy her sex. For the present THE BEE will not mention any names until such time as the matter can be more fully investigated. However the names are now at this office, and should the case develop as bad as it appears on its face, it will be treated in an entirely different manner.
