Other Political News

Special dispatch to THE BEE.

DES MOINES, Ia., June 28.—An enormous crowd has filled Des Moines to-day, and packed all the hotels and boarding houses with a sweltering mass of delegates and visitors to the republican state convention.

There are no present indications as to the other officers. It is generally conceded that Senator Life Young, of Cass county, is the leading candidate for the lieutenant governorship.

James F. Wilson is here and has his headquarters sandwiched between the gubernatorial candidates. He is industriously working his senatorial chances.

WASHINGTON WAITS.

SUSPENDED OPERATIONS FOR THE PRESIDENT.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—Secretary Kirkwood having obtained the opinion of the attorney general as to the Indian troubles on the Choctaw and Chickasaw lands, that it is the duty of the department and not of the Indians to remove the intruders from the lands, he telegraphed it to-day to Agent Tuffs at Muskogee, and instructed him to give notice that the law will be enforced but to suspend the removals until further instructions.

TO TAKE A PLEASURE TRIP.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—President Garfield, accompanied by several members of the cabinet, will leave on Friday first for a New England trip, including Williams college, and will be absent about ten days.

URING DAVIS' REAPPOINTMENT.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—The president was waited on to-day by a large Pittsburg delegation accompanied by Chas. Foster and candidate Richards, of the Ohio state ticket, who urged the reappointment of Thomas J. Davis as collector at Pittsburg.

CABINET MEETING.

There was a full attendance at the cabinet meeting to-day, with the exception of Attorney-General McVeagh who is still absent from the city.

SECRETARY KIRKWOOD DETAILED.

Secretary Kirkwood detailed the recent experience of frontier officers in the Choctaw and Chickasaw land troubles, and hoped for a happy issue on the basis of the attorney-general's decision.

THE ALBANY MIDDLE.

The Monotony Relieved by the Indictment of Senator Sessions.

Vice-President Arthur Favours Uniting on Depew and Conkling.

VERY LITTLE CHANGE.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 28.—The joint convention resumed its session at 12 o'clock. The first ballot for successor to Conkling resulted: Conkling 39, Wheeler 42, Lapham 11, Crowley 2, Cornell 4, Roach 1, Folger 1, Rogers 1, Potter (dem.) 49. Total 147.

THE OFFICIAL JOINT BALLOT FOR A SUCCESSOR TO PLATT RESULTED: Depew 56, Kernan 49, Platt 27, Lapham 3, Cornell 2, Crowley 6, Freeman 1, Haskins 1, Wheeler 1. Total 147.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 28.—After the balloting a resolution was offered, that when the convention adjourn Saturday it be to meet on Monday at Richfield Springs. The motion was declared out of order. The half breeds resolution offered yesterday for four ballots daily was discussed at length. Old Salt Aymar and others favored it. The democrats opposed. The stalwarts said it was foolish to continue balloting when no result could be achieved. Erastus Brooks (dem.) made a long speech in favor of an adjournment sine die. The roll call on an adjournment until to-morrow resulted in 78 ayes and 70 nays, and the convention adjourned.

ALBANY, June 28.—The indictment of Senator Sessions this afternoon by the grand jury has varied the political excitement in Albany and given a new subject to quarrel over. The indictment was a surprise. There had been rumors that Sessions would be indicted, but no one believed this, and at midnight last night the stalwarts denied the rumor. This morning about 11 o'clock District Attorney Herriek met Peckham, one of Sessions' counsel, and, without saying it in 20 many words, intimated that the grand jury might, during the day, bring in an indictment against Sessions. Peckham's counsel expressed surprise, and said that Sessions would appear with counsel.

SESSIONS APPEARED WITH COUNSEL at the afternoon session of the court, when the district attorney stated that an indictment had been found by the grand jury against Sessions, charging him with an attempt to bribe Assemblyman Bradley by giving him $2,000 to vote for Chauncey M. Depew for senator. The indictment as it was handed up to the court was brief, containing only the single charge. Sessions said that he was ready to proceed with an immediate trial. The district attorney replied that he would proceed with the trial when he was ready.

THE COUNSEL PROTESTED in a hot speech that the delay was a political scheme and calculated to prejudice the public mind. The district attorney replied that he would not be able to try the case before the next term of court in October, and in the meantime would insist that Sessions be held in bail of $2,000. Bail was furnished and Sessions released. The grand jury have also, it is said, found indictments against A. D. Barber and E. J. Phelps of lobby fame. It is expected that others will be indicted, soon. The indictment of Sessions has destroyed all chances of an immediate compromise of the election or adjournment, and the probabilities are that the senatorial contest will be indefinitely continued.

SESSIONS, in an interview to-night, stated that he had been treated very unfairly by the grand jury; that he intended to take only formal notice of the bribery charges, and would not present any indictments; that he went before the jury for the purpose of making a counter charge of perjury against Bradley.

VICE-PRESIDENT ARTHUR, in Albany, the city to-day. He says that the quickest way to settle the deadlock is for the republicans to unite on Conkling and Depew.

JOSEPH A. BONHAM, Esq., the well-known lawyer, 117, South Seventh street, Philadelphia, Pa., thus relates his experience: "About two weeks ago I was seized with what the doctors called muscular rheumatism in my right leg. The leg below the knee was swollen until I could hardly stand upon it. I had seen St. Jacobs Oil advertised, and sent to the drug store near my house, on the corner of Nineteenth and Market streets, for a bottle of it. I rubbed my leg with it that night and in a short time the pain seemed to go away. Next morning the swelling had shifted from under the ankle to the upper part of the knee. I applied the Oil again and the swelling in a short time went away, leaving a very slight pain. I didn't use any more Oil, as I thought the attack was over. About a week later it appeared again in the same place. The leg swelled so badly that after coming down town and walking several squares, I gave completely out. I went home intending to try some French medicine, but I forgot to get it, and having a part of this bottle of St. Jacobs Oil in the house yet, I tried it again, bathing the limb thoroughly. When I got up in the morning the pain and swelling were both almost gone, and after one more application I was as well as ever, and from that time to this I haven't been troubled."

SATISFACTORY.

Mrs. Wallace, Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "I have used BRADDOCK BLOOD PURIFIER for nervous and bilious headaches, and have recommended them to my friends; believe them superior to any other medicine I have used, and can recommend them to anyone requiring a cure for biliousness." Price $1.00, trial size 10 cents.

NO HOPE FOR HOPE.

NEW YORK, June 28.—Information was received at the central office this evening that James Hope, the bank burglar and father of Johnny Hope, who is now serving a term of twenty years in the state prison for robbing the Manhattan bank of this city, had been arrested in San Francisco for burglary, and that he will be brought to this city at an early date.

Mexico Matters.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 28.—An official dispatch from the scene of the Morelos railroad accident places the number of killed at 180. There were 300 passengers on board the train at the time of the disaster. The government investigation is proceeding.

CARLOS PACHECO assumed to-day the office held by General Diaz, who has resigned and will go to Oaxaca, of which state he will probably be elected governor. Since Francisco will go as governor of the district vice Pacheco. This change is the cause of some remark as Pacheco is reported to be interested in the Morelos railroad, and in which other officials are involved. The papers are attacking the government and demand that the blame for the accident be fixed where it properly belongs. It is thought that nothing will come of the investigation.

CONTINUATION OF THE STEWART STORY.

NEW YORK, June 29.—3 a. m.—The publication of the revelations regarding the latest search for A. T. Stewart's body are continued this morning. It appears that the detectives who had the matter in charge became aware that Judge Hilton had had several interviews with the police and had arranged to arrest instantly all parties concerned, immediately upon the identification of the remains. The grand jurors declined to complete this negotiation and Kelly informed the detectives that rather than submit the body would be destroyed. The detective alleges that Judge Hilton sent the detective instructions that he should get employment in the mines, and thus leave the movements of Mike Kelley. This is as far as known as it now stands, and the detective alleges that there is no possibility of the recovery of the body, unless ample security for reward and immunity is given to the grave robbers.

MURDERER CONFESSES.

NEW YORK, June 28.—Kaukowski, the murderer of Mina Muller, in the woods near Guttenberg, N. J., made a full confession to the district attorney to whom he recited all the details of the crime. Kaukowski said that he became infatuated with the woman, and for a long time neglected his family for her, and that finally he became tired of her and tried to get rid of her but she would not leave him. Then he determined to kill her so that he could get back to his wife and children, and that the taking of her watch, money and clothing was an afterthought, as he believed that he could raise money on them to give to his wife.

FIVE PERSONS KILLED BY THE EXPLOSION OF A BOILER.

MAYSVILLE, Ky., June 28.—The steamer Rochester exploded her boiler at 1:30 p. m. to-day, about three-fourths of a mile from this city. Engineer Cass Naylor, of Manchester; Samuel Rigolds (colored) porter, of this city, and James Carr, deck hand, of Mayville, and Joseph Miller, deck-sweeper, were killed. A passenger, whose name is not known, is also supposed to be lost. Among the injured are Leo Smith, of Cincinnati; Basson Cooper, of Manchester; Mr. M. McCarthy, of Chicago; Jim Severs, fireman, fatally; John Cunn, of Marietta; most of them slightly. The boat is a complete wreck.

A HOTEL THIEF DETECTED.

ST. LOUIS, June 28.—Considerable excitement has been caused by thefts at the new Southern hotel. Diamonds, jewelry and all sorts of valuables have been taken from the rooms. This morning the thief was discovered in the person of a colored porter named Grayson, who was employed in the drug store of A. A. Mellier, on the first floor of the hotel building. A lot of pertumery and jewelry goods were recovered. The jewels are said to have been sent to Indianapolis.

A BLACKMAILER ARRESTED.

CHICAGO, June 28.—Theodore Lange, a reporter on the German papers, was arrested to-day, and held in $5,000 bonds on a charge of blackmail. He had been writing letters to Mrs. Sophia Schmidt, making her give him a large sum or he would expose her for fraudulently getting insurance policies on the life of her husband, Henry Schmidt, for $22,000; when he was about dead with consumption. She went by appointment to meet Lange, and had the detective near by to arrest him.

A NEW HAMPSHIRE HAIL STORM.

ANDOVER, N. H., June 28.—A terrible hail storm passed over this region this afternoon, destroying fields of corn, apple trees, old buildings blowing down fences and seriously injuring the crops. It lasted about fifteen minutes and was of great fury. Considerable damage was also done in Franklin.

INDIANIONS.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—For the upper Mississippi Valley, fair weather, wind mostly west, stationary or lower temperature and higher barometer. For the lower Missouri, colder, partly cloudy weather, and local rains, followed by clearing weather, with mostly north, stationary temperature and higher barometer.

THE FASTER HOLDING FAST.

CHICAGO, June 28.—Grisoom finished the 31st day of his fast at noon, feeling weak and languid and still complaining of hunger. His weight at noon was half a pound less than yesterday, temperature 97, pulse 52, respiration 13.
