Went Down the Wrong Way. National Associated Press. CHICAGO, June'30. - While Detective John Ender, of the central police sta-tion, was explaining a slight-of-hand trick to some associates to-day, the silver half dollar which he was using, accidentally slipped down his throat. The coin could not be got out, and he was only saved from suffocation by the physician forcing it further down and below the opening of the respira tory organs. The coin now restr midway between the throat and stomach. The physicians are unable to dislodge it, and serious results are
