

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

The News Budget Which It Developed Yesterday.

Opening of the Great Races at the Park To-day.

Breezy Little Notes For General Reading.

MASONIC LIBRARY.

The masons of Council Bluffs have taken a new departure. It has been said that that order was the "camping ground of the human heart," and now it seems that the order here propose to make it the "camping ground of the human mind."

THE RE-UNION.

The following will be the programme carried out at the grand re-union now taking place at Shenandoah: Salute at sunrise from Independence battery of Council Bluffs; 8 a. m., guard mount; 8:30 to 10:30 a. m., reception of visitors; 10:30 a. m. to 2 p. m., grand re-union of regiments, companies and squads; at 2:30 p. m. speaking will begin; at 4 p. m. there will be a grand review of all the soldiers in camp by his excellency, Governor Gear, and other distinguished officials of the state.

HE "SEED IT AFORE."

One of Iowa's tall, hard-fisted corn-pullers from Keg creek being in Omaha last Saturday went to Forepaugh's circus and took a seat near the elephants, when Mr. Smith announced to the audience that Mr. Forepaugh had a standing challenge open to the world of $10,000 that the like was never seen upon the face of the earth.

HAIR-SPLITTING EXPLANATION.

There is a conductor in the employ of the U. P. dummy train, who, notwithstanding he got taken in when he had his clothing made, knows just what the fare is from Council Bluffs and return; fifty cents from Council Bluffs to Omaha and twenty-five cents from Omaha to Council Bluffs.

YESTERDAY MORNING.

Yesterday morning the city of Council Bluffs was favored with some soul stirring music from Fall McFadden's celebrated drum corps summing the old veterans of the war to their place of rendezvous previous to taking up their line of march for the Union Pacific transfer grounds, where they took the Cannon Ball route for their camping grounds at Shenandoah.

TO-DAY'S PROGRAMME.

The following are the entries in the 227 class, purse, $500: Corbin Bashaw, by Wash Corbin, Chicago. Edwin B., by Edwin Bither, Racine, Wis. Business, by W. L. Beck, Chicago. Mattie Graham, by J. A. Batchelor, Fairmount, by B. J. Johnson, Oreston, Iowa. Ethel Medium, by Mark Hopkins, St. Clair, Mich. Pine Leaf, by A. D. Carson, Kansas City, Mo.

Brown Dick, by Wade Carry, St. Joseph. Lady Kern, by W. W. Aldason, Kansas City. Clifton, by A. J. Ingerham, Cheyenne, Wyo.

Almont Raven, by James W. Zibbie, Fallerton, Neb. A CALIFORNIAN'S OPINION.

Mr. Berry, the wealthy Californian, who is in the city for a few days, staying with Mr. Harrington, one of the proprietors of the Polish company, took a drive Sunday over the city. He is delighted with Council Bluffs and her surroundings.

The Land League meeting that was to come in St. Joseph's academy Sunday afternoon was postponed until next Sunday evening, when M. G. Griffin will speak, taking as his subject, "Ireland's sufferings."

Mace Wise has disposed of all his old horses and buggies and purchased new ones in their stead. Mr. Wise proposes to keep pace with the times.

Harry James, who keeps a grocery store on the corner of Main street and Willow avenue is as busy as any man in the city. Some of his customers live quite a distance from the store and he keeps his team running about all the time.

Mrs. Henry Dale and her daughter Manie have recently returned home from an extended pleasure trip to Harrisburg, Penn. During their absence they have visited a number of places in the Allegheny mountains.

The steamer gave Bayles' park a good wetting down last Saturday evening, which made it the coolest place in the city.

The city engineer, Mr. Judson, has established a grade on Mill street, between North Sixth and Scott streets. There is a portion of the sidewalk on the west side of North Main street left in a very dangerous condition. It should be attended to at once.

The woman who fainted on lower Broadway under such peculiar circumstances last circus day has since died.

John Vernon, who struck the old man from Omaha with a brick Sunday, was an employe of Mr. Knepper, cigar maker on lower Main street.

Thomas Hendry, of iron works fame, has just completed a contract with a mining company in Colorado for an immense silver smelting apparatus. The most of the machinery has been forwarded, but the furnace is still in the shop not quite finished.

Burghart, the beer man, will soon erect a fine house near his bottling establishment.

Conrade Geise finds that the pure crystal water from which his beer is manufactured makes a splendid card for him.

Mrs. Burke, who will ride against Miss Pinneo next Saturday, is of the opinion that Miss Lizzie Pinneo, sister of her competitor, is the best rider of the two. For a choice, she would rather ride Miss Minnie for a purse.

Look out for accidents going and coming from the races. There will be plenty of time, and no need of rushing.

"Uncle John" Phillips, who, by the way, can make Rome howl when he undertakes to deliver a speech, remarked the other day, on his return from the west, that if he had a choice between traveling west of Council Bluffs and Omaha for amusement and standing on Iowa soil and blowing rice through a goose quill, he would select the latter by a large majority.

Mr. Barry, the iron manufacturer's agent for Council Bluffs, has contracted with L. M. Tully's, of the real estate firm of Burnham & Tully's, for an elegant iron fence extending along the entire front of his residence in Tully's Glen, with two massive double iron gates with single gates consecutively. We are informed that Mr. Tully's intends to ornament his grounds with a fountain and iron and wire summer houses and with iron yases, settees, &c., from the same agency.

Hon. George Carson, ex-member from Pottawattamie did not get eaten up by the wolves of Montana, but got home in good health and can be found on duty at his office as usual.

Sunday night, about eleven o'clock, sneak thieves entered the wholesale store of Miller & Co., on Broadway, and made away with about six dozen pocket-knives and four revolvers. The thieves entered by cutting one of the side panel windows of the front door. A young man clerking for the firm, who sleeps over the store, heard a noise in the night and got up and went to the window and listened, but hearing nothing further, retired. As yet there is no clue to the thieves.

Two men from Omaha came over to the city yesterday filled up with beer, and being a little too full were obliged to get rid of it. So they repaired to Bayless' park. Officer Cusick this evening, knowing what they had done, arrested the men. They were taken before Judge Burke, who fined them $1.50 each.

Harry Inman bought a splendid stepper a short time ago, and has been trying him on the streets of the city. Sunday, however, he was overhauled by the police and arrested for fast driving. His case was continued until 1 o'clock, September 5.

Mrs. C. E. Stout and daughter, who have been on an extended tour through Montana, visiting Helena, Jefferson City, and Salt Lake City, Utah, have returned home, feeling very much improved for the journey.

St. Patrick's Benevolent association will give a grand festival at Dohany's open house, Wednesday evening, August 31.

Pretty dry up at Judge Burke's court yesterday. Vernon who struck the Omaha man on the head with a brick had his trial and was fined $8.45, including costs. The man McGraw from Omaha who was wined into a saloon by the gay and festive Miss Maitland and returned the favor by stealing her watch and chain, was sent to Perry Reel to be fed at the expense of the county for thirty days.

The young colored boy who stole the watch at the Driving park went to Mrs. Davis, the woman who keeps the three ball house on upper Broadway, to make a raise on the time piece. Mrs. Davis was put on her guard and left the store with the watch, informing the lad she would make inquiry in regard to its value. She went, however, directly to Chief Field, and delivering him the watch, they both returned to her shop, but the colored boy had skipped.

There was a slight altercation on lower Broadway, yesterday, between two colored men. There was some loud talk but no hair pulled.

Tim Tomer appeared at police headquarters yesterday and demanded trial. He says there is not a word of truth in all he is accused of. His policeman's uniform fits him better than any alley gull's in the city, and that the council have no right to dismiss him without giving him a chance to defend himself.
