The cholera is increasing in violence in the east.

The question that is now agitating political circles is whether a postmaster is a bigger man than a United States senator.

Two more southern editors have been trying the difficult job of fighting a duel, but at last accounts no one had been injured.

Senator Manderson says and senator Van Wyck says no and if the rope doesn't break something is bound to give way in the vicinity of Fifteenth and Dodge streets.

The indignation of our citizens upon whom the city council have endeavored to foist a worthless sandstone is at fever pitch. It is very doubtful whether the machine has yet been oiled enough by the contractors to make it work surely and with ease.

Whatever steps are taken by citizens interested in the paving matter ought to be taken at once. There is no time to be lost in blocking the game that is about to force on Omaha for paving purposes, a material that is being condemned, even for street guttering.

There is a report from Washington that a certain Democratic Representative in Congress will on the first day of the next session introduce a resolution in the House to investigate the newspaper charges concerning the appointment of Stanley Matthews as Justice of the Supreme Court for a consideration of $100,000.

Crook has again been heard from, and this time from Washington. After a long conference yesterday with the President and Secretary Lincoln, Mr. Teller was visited, and the indications are that the conclusion of the talk was not to his liking.

The printer's strike collapsed yesterday and fifty men who had staid work and were earning good wages have been forced to seek employment elsewhere.

The question of pauper emigration has finally been brought into parliament by the rigorous action of the authorities in New York.

The six months which closed last week were a profitless half year for trade. For the first time since 1878 failures exceeded those in the corresponding period of 1872 and 1873.

France and China had come to a peaceful understanding regarding the question of the Chinese war. It is said that the Chinese want a peaceful agreement with the United States as an intermediary.

The statement that France and China had come to a peaceful understanding regarding the question of the Chinese war. It is said that the Chinese want a peaceful agreement with the United States as an intermediary.

The latest news from Panama confirms the report of the treaty of peace between Chili and Peru, and publishes the following abstract of its provisions.

The Italian Minister of War has just issued a discouraging report on the subject of malaria in Italy, with a statistical map showing the position of the malarial districts and their relative standing as respects the danger of infection.

The question of pauper emigration has finally been brought into parliament by the rigorous action of the authorities in New York.

The French Republic has driven a sharp bargain with the Papal States by using as a leverage its right to buy out the roads at a cost after a certain period.

The cholera still rages with unabated vigor in the East, although its ravages, up to the present time, seem to be confined chiefly to the settlements at the mouth of the Nile.

HONEY FOR THE LADIES.

Quant Egyptian designs appear on the handkerchiefs and are tastefully carried.

Very pretty new fans are leaf-shaped, veined and shaded in natural tints, with natural wood sticks.

Instead of bracelets, narrow ribbons match the chief color in the costume are tied around the wrists.

Coaching parasols are of red, blue and cream silk, with lampion handles, and very ornate ones are striped in the same way.

Sonora bonnets are fashionably trimmed with the linen canvas ribbon, with a gilt cord on each edge.

The knotted silk handkerchief is as much used as ever. It is now produced in soft China silk in all the art shades, and serves in the country as sufficient finish to a morning gown.

Yell are now very little used except by tourists, and, therefore, the choice has very much diminished, manufacturers not being stimulated in the direction of novelty.

I don't like to have my husband's tea-table, remarked a young married lady, "but I put up with it, for the tinfoil is just too handy for anything in doing up my front crinoline."

No, said a bride, "I am not willing that our wedding tour should include the Yellowstone park. Yellow don't agree with my complexion."

Fretty but very cheap, chintz dresses are now worn on the street by ladies of wealth. The fashion was started by sensitive mistresses who wish to avoid being mistaken for their own maids.

In north Brazil there are no professional dressmakers, the finest ladies usually making their own costumes.

The youngest telegraph operator in the world is probably a little girl 19 years old, Hattie Hutchinson by name, who lives in Texas.

The man who dropped a tin tobacco tag into the gutter, and who says he at least deserves the credit of having put in an appearance.

A New Haven (Conn.) woman joined the Salvation Army last week, leaving her neighbors to look out for the salvation of two small children left in a chair in the yard.

A Pennsylvania Protectionist was shocked when he went to church and heard the minister announce that salvation was free.

The Baptist pastor at Cherryville, Ind., does not weigh more than 125 pounds and one of his neighbors, who is a heavy man, has been invited to preach at his church.

A Maine man has will $2,000 to the Methodist church, and his native town on condition that it give up the way to the cemetery.

At a recent meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association in New York, an enterprising stockbroker placed in each chair a paper on the subject of "The value of the dollar."

At the last meeting of the Lincoln club the committee on fisheries reported the close of the season and were discharged.

At a county court held at the county court room in Omaha, July 30, A. D. 1883, Present A. M. Chadwick, Justice of the Peace.

On reading and filing the petition of Thomas J. Heston, who claims a certain instrument on which he is in court and purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, also a second instrument on file and purporting to be a codicil to said will, and testament may be duly proved, filed and recorded as the last will and testament of said deceased as a codicil thereto and said petitioner and James A. Crighton may be appointed executors thereof.

Ordered, that July 30th, A. D. 1883, at 10 o'clock A. M., be assigned for hearing said petition, when all persons interested in said matter may appear at a county court to be held, in and for said county and show cause why the same should not be granted, and that notice of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof be given to all persons interested in said matter, by publishing a copy of this order in the Omaha Daily Bee, a newspaper printed in said county, for three successive weeks prior to said day of hearing.

A true copy. County Judge. July 30th.
