

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Tuesday Morning July.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier... 20 cents per week; By Mail... $1.00 per Year.

MINOR MENTION.

Cheap Railroad Tickets at Bushnell's. Jack Shields still keeps out of the reach of the police. The case of the State vs. Evans, for assaulting one Nagelschneider, is to come up again before Justice Abbott to-day.

C. R. Mitchell, of the Rock Island has sold his property to Mr. McAdams, who has recently returned from the west. The latter will take possession about July 1.

H. Martins having sold out his interest in the St. Joe house, Mr. N. D. Kuhl will continue in the business as sole proprietor.

There ought to be some straw spread in the yard back of the calaboose, so that when prisoners lean against the door and fall out they won't hurt themselves.

Rev. J. Fisk officiated Saturday at a pleasant wedding, by which Mr. Clarence E. Stevens and Miss Lizzie Eadman were united.

There was a more favorable change in Mrs. George T. Phelps' condition yesterday, consciousness returning, and other indications being more hopeful.

The telephone office is to be moved again. This time into the office now occupied by Mynter & Adams, corner Main and Broadway.

Judge Aylesworth begins to think it is a good time for him to take his summer vacation. Not a case was incourt yesterday.

Some of those who suffered from the dynamite explosion feel that they have not been used well. Those who kicked got satisfaction, while those who took it easy got nothing. These propose to kick now.

George Christ, a colored man who does not get much good out of his name, was arrested yesterday for stealing a watch. He tried to sell the ticker to Mrs. Davis, and she gave the police traces of him.

Lon McCracken, who was married to C. D. McCracken in Avoca in May, 1875, now seeks to get a divorce from him on the ground of desertion and drunkenness.

Little Jimmy Davis, who lost both legs by the cars, now puts in his time on the streets selling peanuts, photographs, etc. At the time of the accident he showed he had pluck, now he shows he has enterprise as well.

The city marshal gives notice that unless filthy alleys are cleared there will be some arrests. There has already been so many proclamations that the public don't heed them any more.

It is to be hoped for the sake of Superintendent Farnham's reputation that the statement is true that he was not consulted about the appointment of teachers. As long as the board was set on making such appointment it was very thoughtful of them not to involve the superintendent in the matter.

Jasper Hansen went into Bill Loutrup's saloon and asked for a drink, which was refused. Bill wanting him first to pay what he owed. Hansen refusing, Bill seized his hat, whereupon Hansen had him arrested.

Justice Abbott went to Omaha yesterday to see about some of the details of the proposed Denver trip of the A. A. B. It is expected that a large delegation from the post here will attend the reunion at Denver, which occurs week after next.

Justice Schurz has joined two more couples in wedlock, one being William Gates and Mary A. Lanning, late of this city; the other Homer Mason and Hannah Ogden, both of this county.

One of the finest private displays of fireworks during the prolonged celebration, was that at A. W. Street's residence on Saturday night, Miss Lou Street thus entertaining a number of her friends.

The last trial of the case against Callison at Oakland, which has attracted considerable attention on account of Story's story as to how he was spirited away from being a witness, has resulted in the hanging of the jury, or rather, the jury hanging. There are several other cases against Callison for selling liquor in violation of law. The case against Story for perjury is to come up before Justice Schurz on Thursday next.

Col. Sapp is working enthusiastically on the new Crescent arena, and says it will be, when finished, the finest drive in the state. It was suggested to him yesterday that the arena, if done, the council will give it away to some railroad company, as they have Union avenue; but the Colonel says if any council tries such a scheme he will whip them individually, collectively and by piecemeal. The Colonel had better get in command of the Union avenue forces.

Would it not be a good idea for the city council to pay for Union Avenue before it gives it away? There are a number of condemnations which have not been settled for yet. It would be very funny if some of these property owners should conclude to fence up their lots, which are not yet bought by the city, thus shutting up the street entirely. But there is little satisfaction for a man in ordinary circumstances to try to fight the Union Pacific. That is one reason why the council so utterly disregarded the will of the people. They knew the people couldn't very well help themselves. Brave men, they.

It is understood that the appointment of teachers were made by the board of education without consulting the Superintendent at all. It may be that men who are engaged in the lumber business, drug business, railway office, etc., may know more about what the schools need than a man who has devoted not one year but many to educational matters, but it is quite possible that such a man might give the members of the board a hint or two, at least, which might be of value. It looks as if the board were more anxious to serve personal ends, and dispose of teachers positions, as they would give credits to pet children, than to act for the real good of the schools.

Educational interests are too precious and effect the lifetime usefulness of so many, to be trifled with for the sake of favoring some aspirant for the position of superintendent, or for rewarding some political friends. Let the board beware of those who want to use them as stepping stones for their own ambition, let them forsake political methods and habits, and act openly and squarely for the good of the schools.

The case of the State vs. Paul Plackard, for assault, has been dragging along for about a month, until witnesses are about tired out, and a good sized bill has been run up for the county to pay. The case was first continued because one of the attorneys was going away, then two or three continuances were granted because one of the witnesses was sick and the other the prosecutor intended that she would swear to all that it was claimed she would swear to. Yesterday it came up again, and then the defendant took a change of venue, the case going to a justice who was not to be home in the afternoon to hear it. The case was set for this morning, and preparations are being made for another continuance. It ought not to take more than an hour or two to try the case after it is got at, but it is the getting at a case which disgusts those who want justice dealt out.

It is seldom that you will feel unwell or suffer from indigestion if you use Brown's Iron Tonic.

CHEAP RAILROAD TICKETS. Chicago, $11; St. Louis, $10; St. Paul, $10; Kansas City, $5, at Bushnell's.

FAR TOO FAMILIAR. A Little Girl Tells Strange Stories of a Broadway Jeweler.

A serious charge was yesterday lodged against A. P. Tenney, who keeps a little jewelry store on Broadway near the city building. A little girl aged about nine years, whose family live in the city, informed her parents that Mr. Tenney had been altogether too familiar with her, and had attempted liberties, which if true, would be the deepest possible disgrace. According to the girl's story she repulsed these advances, and was given a ring to keep still about the affair. Her father on hearing these statements armed himself, and came down to the store Saturday night last, so enraged that had he found the object of his wrath, he would doubtless have attempted to take the law in his own hands. Not finding Mr. Tenney, he went over to police headquarters, and there interviewed the chief, and was persuaded to a more reasonable course.

Yesterday the little girl was brought into court, and Mr. Tenney was brought in also. They met face to face, and while the latter denied the girl's story throughout, the girl stuck to it, and insisted it was true.

The girl's family shrink from prosecuting the case, saying that they do not want the girl disgraced by the publicity of a trial, and the case may be dropped. Mr. Tenney is very stout in his denial, saying the girl was frequently around his store, and was behind the counter, saying she would be clerk for him, and he took her by the arm and led her out. He says that whatever jewelry she got at the store she took herself, and that it was not his gift at all. The little girl, however, could not be bought to take back the ugly charge, even when faced by him, but stuck to it tenaciously. It is to be regretted that the real facts cannot be got at without involving those who are involuntary participants in the matter.

GENTLEMEN—Your Hop Bitters have been of great value to me. I was laid up with typhoid fever for over two months and could get no relief until I tried your Hop Bitters. WARNING! It is not to be wondered at that most Americans are Dyspeptics. Swallowing ice cold drinks on a hot summer day does the mischief. Why then not add 10 drops of ANGIOSTURA Bitters, the most renowned Tonic of exquisite flavor, and thus avoid all danger of cold in the stomach.

Our New Loan and Improvement Co. Investigation into the matter convinces us that one of the most equitable, reasonable and feasible plans of building houses is that proposed and in operation by the Mercantile Loan, Trust and Improvement company of this city. By investing in shares in this institution, which is backed by some of our best and most reliable business men, it becomes possible and comparatively easy for a man of moderate means to secure a comfortable home for himself and family. In taking a certain number of shares, at a certain monthly payment, in a few years a man can own a house of his own for about the same as he pays monthly for rent. We believe the Mercantile Loan and Trust company, by organizing and opening up for business, have filled a long felt want in Council Bluffs. Their plans and system of loans will bear the most careful scrutiny and examination, and we have no hesitancy in recommending them to all reasonable and sensible, and backed by gentlemen of honor and integrity. As the company exists it becomes at once an institution of value and credit to our city and those who desire homes. Their president is T. A. Kirkland; vice president, Judge Peake; secretary, J. K. Beacy; treasurer, C. B. Bushnell; and their office is in the basement of Shugart & McMahon's new block, corner First and Pearl streets. jan27-1y.

Disruption of Copartnership. Notice is hereby given that the partnership lately existing between S. C. Rose and P. J. Mc Mahon, as partners in the business of Rose and Mc Mahon, has expired on the 10th day of June 1883 pursuant to the terms of the articles of copartnership. S. C. Rose. P. J. McMahon.

CHANGING ITS BED. A Proposition to Give Indian Creek a Chance to Sleep in the Country.

The Indian creek problem is still a puzzling one. At is well enough for folks to say, "let it alone," but the trouble is the creek won't let the folks alone. Something must be done to prevent further devastation. It is now proposed as the most practical remedy for existing evils and best preventive of future ones to change the course of the creek by giving it a new bed, running it from the northeast corner of the city limits almost due west to the lake, thus carrying the bulk of the water which now comes down through the city, directly into the lake, not allowing it the freedom of the city any longer.

Alderman Sidentopf is an enthusiastic advocate of this plan, and it certainly seems a feasible one. During the last flood much of the damage was caused by the great body of water which flowed into the creek in the country, and then came sweeping down through the city in great waves. If the new bed is made from the point where the creek now strikes the city limits, almost due west to the lake, this great body of water resulting from a heavy rain will not disturb or molest the city at all, and will leave the present bed of the creek inside the city limits, for the purpose of draining the city proper, and for this purpose it is thought the present bed will be all sufficient. The new bed would be about a mile in length, and probably a strip of land fifty to one hundred feet wide would be all that it would be necessary to procure.

There will be some expense attached to the scheme, but it is evident that whatever is done will cost money. Closer investigation and more thought may give some better plan than this, or may point out disadvantages to this, but it certainly is a plan worthy of careful consideration.

CATARH. The remarkable results in a disease so universal and with such a variety of characteristics as Catarrh, prove how effectually Hood's Sarsaparilla acting through the blood, reaches every part of the human system. A medicine, like anything else, can be fairly judged only by its results. We point with pride to the glorious record Hood's Sarsaparilla has entered upon the hearts of thousands of people it has cured of catarrh.

Dr. West, Dentist, 14 Pearl street.

Every lady uses Pozzoni's medicated complexion powder. It is a household treasure. The madam first to go down town without first rubbing it on. If the lady cries she goes for the puff-box. If the "old man" comes home ruffled or chafed, because his wife is dull, &c., Pozzoni's powder cools and allays his troubles. Then all is gladness joy. No family should be without it.

James and the Pears. Evansville Argus. "James!" "Yes, pa."

"There were seven California pears in that cupboard. Six of them are gone. Do you know anything about it?" "Never took one of them."

"Certain, pa. Wish I may die, if—" "You wicked, lad boy; how often have I told you never to use such an expression. Here comes ma; let us see if she knows anything about it."

Mamma says she saw James take at least five of them.

"You little rascal! How dare you tell me you never took one, and here's only this little one with the grub-eaten side left?"

"Oh, pa, don't hit me. I said I didn't take one of them—and—and—that's the one I didn't take."

It seems impossible that a remedy made of such common, simple plants as Hops, Mandrake, Dandelion, &c., should make so many and such great cures as Hop Bitters do; but when old and young, rich and poor, pastor and doctor, lawyer and editor, all testify to having been cured by them, you must believe and try them yourself, and doubt no longer.
