

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Monday Morning, July 16.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier... By Mail...

OFFICE: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

Additional local on seventh page. Cheap Railroad Tickets at Bushnell's. There was a German school picnic yesterday in Palmer's grove.

Why cannot Council Bluffs have some open air band concerts in the park? Some of the High school alumni had a pleasant picnic at Bay Lake Saturday.

The American Express company's office is being greatly improved and refitted. The Sixth street bridge is now open for business, and ready for another wash-out.

The Congressional folks will have a social at the residence of Mr. J. Mueller next Thursday evening. Owing to the absence of the rector on a vacation, there were no services at the Episcopal church yesterday.

The Odd Fellows here are maintaining a very good library for the benefit of members of the order, and have just issued a new catalogue. Rev. H. W. Cloakery, of Springfield, O., preached at the Protestant church yesterday, and Miss Nellie Bangs, of Chicago, presided at the organ.

Burglars or sneak thieves have taken from Mr. Strohbehn's residence on Sixth street, some clothes and a pocketbook, containing papers of value to himself. Work has begun on the old agricultural works, and the ruined walls of the brick building are being rebuilt for the occupancy of Mr. Hendrick's machine shop.

There was a very beautiful display of pond lilies in the window of Harkness Bros. dry goods establishment Saturday, attracting the attention of many passers-by. Miss Kate Reilly has purchased the property next to the city building on Broadway, and now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. D. Harding as an electrical institute.

Sunday services are still kept up at the jail, Mr. Rice assisting by others conducting the same, and the prisoners seem to take much interest and pay good attention. The night dummy is being pretty well patronized between here and Omaha, as by it persons can cross the river as late as 10 o'clock, thus proving a great convenience.

ing singing, praying and dancing. Whether poor whisky is the cause, or insanity, is not decided. Sheriff Guittar was out yesterday in the vicinity of the chase after the Polk City murderers, and brought back many details of the exciting scenes. When he started for home, it was a matter of doubt whether the crowd would hang the prisoner captured or not, but it seems from later reports that cooler judgment prevailed, and the jail at Harlan used for safe keeping.

Attorney John Lindt has returned from Hastings where he has been defending B. P. Nehor, who was arrested at the instance of the insurance company on a charge of burning his own property. The justice decided to hold the defendant for the action of the grand jury, but his attorney, as usual, is confident he can pull his client out all right in the end.

There has for some time been an ill feeling between a colored family and a white family living near the brick yards and Saturday night the war of the races broke out so strong that the police interfered and arrested them; they being Mrs. Susan Wells, John and Louise Wells, Mrs. Webster, Dick Webster, and other boys. They will have a chance to air their grievances in court this morning.

Still another proclamation now appears, and if proclamations were shovels the filthy alleys would be all cleaned before this. The city marshal, the board of health, the chief of police, the city physician and the council have all had their say, and now comes the mayor, informing the citizens that they can dump their garbage on the fair grounds, in a slough north of the amphitheatre, and urging them to clean up. Now if the city attorney would file a proclamation in court, that might settle it.

Why are you ill? Why do you suffer? Everybody knows all aches and pains, all languor and debility are cured by Brown's Iron Bitters. Dr. West, Dentist, 14 Pearl street.

AN IMPORTANT PRISONER. He is Charged with Burglary, Jail Breaking and Horse Stealing. Marshal Scott Williams, of Iowa City, reached this city Saturday, having in charge a young man named Murray, whom he had arrested at Iowa City, and was taking him back to Wakeeney, Kansas, where he was wanted badly.

Mr. Joseph Lucas, of that place, served as an additional escort to the prisoner, he having been one of the victims of the fellow's depredations. From them it appears that young Murray was arrested in Kansas for participating in a heavy burglary, and while in jail awaiting trial managed to break jail and then stole a horse from Mr. Lucas, and ran away with this. Murray is a cowboy, and is rather a hard looking customer for one of his years, and the officers took no chance with him, but kept him closely ironed on the trip.

PERSONALS. Mrs. W. S. McMicken is now visiting her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Hanchett, and expects to make her permanent home in this city. Her husband is expected to be here soon, and they will probably then settle in a home of their own. Mr. McMicken will be remembered by many whose acquaintance he formed while he was here about two years ago, during the severe illness of Dr. Hanchett. Both he and his worthy wife will be heartily welcomed as Council Bluffs residents.

Mrs. Fox, of Corning, Ia., who has been visiting her children, Mr. Charles Fox, of the firm of McAtee & Fox, and Mrs. Schulz, departed for home Saturday morning, accompanied by Mrs. Schulz. They will stop a few days at Emmerson, Ia., visiting friends. C. E. Stone, the efficient and popular night manager of the telegraph office here, leaves today for Ogden, where he has been given a more important and more lucrative chance to work the wires.

J. W. Chaffin, now editor of the Red Oak Express, was in the city Saturday. At Red Oak, as here, he sustains himself as a clever writer and an excellent newspaper manager. W. M. H. Kernan, of Bellefontaine, O., was in the city Saturday interviewing and having interviews. He was formerly editor of the Oklahoma States. Governor William Hale, of Wyoming, was in the city Saturday and left for Cheyenne, where he hopes to still further gain in health and strength.

Mrs. F. C. Meyers, of Wheeling, West Va., accompanied by her niece, Pauline Fox, are visiting her cousins, George and Wm. Keelie, in this city. E. M. Galligan has gone to Clark, Dakota, to make some homestead improvements, expecting to return as soon as they are completed. Josiah Williams, now of Omaha, paid one of his frequent, but not too frequent, visits to his friends in the Bluffs Saturday.

BROKEN OF HIS SLEEP. A Farmer Stays Awake Nights to Shoot Mysterious Visitors.

Cries of Pain and Trails of Blood Show that Some Shots Told. There have been some mysterious doings near Henderson, which have caused no little excitement and much curious speculation among the people of that community. It appears that there have been some mysterious night raiders at the place of Mr. D. Hongas, and the cause of their coming, and their peculiar actions are still not clearly known.

The Henderson correspondent for the Macedonia Tribune gives many details of the first night's visitation was discovered by Mr. Hongas and his man Mr. Landers, going to the barn to see about some chores, before going to bed. They found a man standing on the porch of one of the buildings on the place, an old house, the man evidently trying to get inside. Landers gave the fellow chase, and having a buggy whip in his hand, got so near the fellow as to give him several cuts with it, but the fellow got away.

About 1 o'clock the same night, two or three hours after the above occurrence, the gates south of the barn were heard to open, and soon after one of the horses in the barn gave a snort. Hongas and Landers started out armed, and found three men at the barn door, who at once ran. Landers chased them and fired four shots, the last of which seemed to have had effect, as one of the men cried out, "For God's sake, boys, don't leave me, I'm shot." The fellow stumbled and fell, but got away in the darkness. The next night, while on the watch for more of the mysterious visitors, the three men were seen from an upper window, and several shots were fired at them, and they fled down through an orchard. A trail of blood was found all through the orchard the next day, and a box on which the wounded man had evidently sat down, was found covered with blood, while a pool of blood was noticed on the ground near by.

The next night a watch, was naturally kept up for the intruders, and as Landers sat near an upper window in the house, a shot was fired at him, just missing him and passing into the ceiling. He returned the compliment, but nothing new was heard, and nothing strange has since transpired except the hearing of signals in a heavy piece of timber lying near the house, and in which it is supposed that the fellows kept hiding, it being so extensive and thick a piece of woods as to preclude much chance for making a capture possible.

EMBROIDERIES. Harkness Brothers have just opened a fine lot of new Swiss and Irish Point Embroideries. Call and see them. Are you going to housekeeping? See Mandala's stock offered at reduced prices. Real Estate Transfers. The following deeds were filed for record in the county clerk's office, July 14, reported for The Bee by P. J. McMahon, real estate agent.

WINDOW SHADES AT COST! At Beard's wall paper store next to the postoffice. CORNICE POLES AT COST! At Beard's wall paper store, next to post-office. Glenwood Cleanings. GLENWOOD, Ia., July 12.—This morning an excursion train, of four coaches and a baggage car, with three hundred people arrived in our little city, hailing from Macedonia and Carson. The excursion was under the management of Hon. B. F. Clayton, of Macedonia, and was gotten up by the Sabbath Schools of Macedonia and Carson. Upon their arrival at the depot they were met and escorted to the park below the institution for feeble minded children, where Mr. T. L. Stephens in a few words gave them a hearty welcome. Mr. F. M. Powell, superintendent of the institution then invited the visitors to visit the institution, which many of them did after dinner on the grounds. The fine band from Carson gave the citizens as well as the excursionists some choice music. At four o'clock they started homeward well pleased with Glenwood.

Horrors of Hydrophobia. Mr. P. H. Ryan, of Red Oak, was in the city a few hours on Saturday last. He was one of the men who was bitten by a mad dog some two months ago. He was on his return from Monticello, Mo., where he had been to consult an old doctor who makes a specialty of treating this disease. One of the men who was bitten at the same time recently died a horrible death. Mr. Ryan informed us that before he left home he had all the symptoms of hydrophobia. Sharp, shooting pains starting from the wound and darting through the muscles, followed by a free discharge of saliva into the mouth. Since he had visited this old doctor and begun using his remedy he had felt nothing of the kind and he was confident that the danger was past. He says if anyone would give him the whole state of Iowa he would not go through what he had endured for the last two weeks.—Mt. Pleasant Free Press.

Our New Loan and Improvement Co. Investigation into the matter convinces us that one of the most equitable, reasonable and feasible plans of building houses is that proposed and in operation by the Mercantile Loan, Trust and Improvement company of this city. By investing in shares in this institution, which is backed by some of our best and most reliable business men, it becomes possible and comparatively easy for a man of moderate means to secure a comfortable home for himself and family. In taking a certain number of shares, at a certain monthly payment, in a few years a man can own a house of his own for about the same as he pays monthly for rent. We believe the Mercantile Loan and Trust company, by organizing and opening up for business, have filled a long felt want in Council Bluffs. Their plans and system of loans will bear the most careful scrutiny and examination, and we have no hesitancy in pronouncing them reasonable and equitable, and backed by gentlemen of honor and integrity. As the company exists it becomes at once an institution of value and credit to our city and those who desire houses. Their president is T. A. Kirkland; vice president, Judge Peake; secretary, I. K. Beery; treasurer, Col. Beebe, and their office is in the basement of Shugart & McMahon's new block, corner First avenue and Pearl street. jan27-1y.
