

THE DAILY BEE.

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Friday Morning, July 20.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier - 30 cents per week. By Mail - $10.00 per year.

OFFICE: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

Cheap Railroad Tickets at Bushnell's. Charles Green and John Markey were $7.00 drunks in the police court yesterday.

Information is being filed now against delinquents on licenses, especially the common carriers. Deputy Clerk Warren is making up the calendar for the next term of the circuit court.

Complaint was filed yesterday against Julius Kahler, John Donahoe and Peter Donahoe for assaulting a telegraph messenger boy.

The sneak thieves seem to bent on getting clothing. Besides Farman and Metcalf Bros., Rodda & Co. have had some goods stolen lately.

The first paving in the city is proceeding well, it being in the alley between Main and Bancroft streets. The work so far as done seems admirable.

Sneak thieves got away with a pair of pantaloons from Metcalf Bros' store. The goods were afterwards found at Goldstein's where they had been pawned.

S. S. Keller is making some improvements in the second story of his furniture establishment, making the upholstery department lighter and more convenient.

The Congregational social last evening proved an enjoyable affair, it being held at Mr. Mueller's residence, and well attended. A musical and literary programme was provided.

A team attached to the elegant new delivery wagon of McClung's cracker factory took a lively run in the Fourth ward yesterday. The horses both fell, and thus came to a stop. But little injury was done.

Frank Champlain, the veteran conductor of the C. & N. W., who lately resigned the punch he has handled for thirty years, is receiving many complimentary notices on his record as a railroad. He merits them.

The report is current of the attempt made by a young lady on Avenue A to commit suicide by eating sugar of lead. Cause unknown, and she is reported as being safe on this side of the river yet.

The citizens of Oakland have subscribed $3,000 for a public hall to be erected at once. If they are going to keep on amusing themselves with liquor and perjury trials, some such roomy place is needed for the lawyers and their audiences.

M. Flamont, the postmaster at Minnola, who was in the shooting scrape lately reported from that place, had his examination at Glenwood, and was promptly discharged, it appearing that he fired in self defense. The other man is to have a hearing Saturday.

The lot owned by the county near the court house, and which was intended as the site for a new jail, not in there, or turn out in the street and go by. She claims the fence is on her own ground, but an information has been filed against her, to see whether it is or not.

The police made an enthusiastic rush for a mysterious trunk which was sent to one of the depots yesterday, and which was supposed to contain some of the clothing stolen lately. They became satisfied the trunk and its owner were straight and had their chase for nothing.

Belle Clover has built a high fence across the sidewalk beside her house, thus causing passers-by to either turn in there or turn out in the street and go by. She claims the fence is on her own ground, but an information has been filed against her, to see whether it is or not.

The residents of Walnut tried to get up a mobbing affair Monday night. Seizing a half witted sort of a fellow for some supposed offense, and riding him on a rail, they then were about to tar and feather him when the city marshal interfered. The victim naturally left the city, and as that was what they wanted, it saved the tar and feathers.

The report that Gen. Grant had dropped dead in the street, created considerable excitement here yesterday until it was learned that it was the signal merely for the telegraphers to strike. So far as the Council Bluffs office is concerned the strike cuts no particular figure, as the operators are still at their posts, though all messages are received subject to delays.

Clerk of the courts Street has been sending out requests to the papers of the county to urge those who are interested in the probating of wills at the coming August term of court, to attend to the matters at once; also to urge doctors to report promptly deaths and births, and ministers and justices to report weddings. Most of the papers are complying with the request of the clerk, and the variety of editorials on the text is quite amusing.

The condition of the present city calaboose is simply horrible. There are no sleeping accommodations beyond a bare board, or the floor, and the fifth, the stretch, and the heat, make the place one not fit to keep vermin in. The place was partially scrubbed out yesterday, but especially when it comes but once a month or so. The place is a disgrace to any civilized community.

Fifty more cases have been started for the collection of delinquent poll tax. It costs $2 only in cash to settle the poll tax problem, but a judgment is got against a fellow it takes $9 and all the costs, and nothing is exempt from execution to satisfy this judgment. In fact, a man who has such a judgment hanging over his head, cannot even take a bath without running the risk of an officer running away with his shirt.

Justice Schurz has commenced suit against the county for $225, fees which he believes are due him, and which the board of supervisors lopped off at a recent meeting. Justice Schurz believes he is honestly entitled to the amount, and does not enjoy being deprived of his just dues, nor of having his billcut down as though he was overcharging the county. Those who know Justice Schurz know that whether his claim is successful or not, he is honest in pressing it. He has retained Wright & Baldwin in the case.

L. S. Peterson, who keep a boarding house, is charged with taking a rather strange way to force a boarder to pay up. It seems that a young man named H. C. Hansen, owed him two or three dollars, and Peterson succeeded in getting hold of a letter belonging to the young man, and which had just reached here from the Old Country. Peterson would not let the young man have the letter or open it until he paid up his bill. The young man in return has had the landlord arrested for petit larceny. The case is to be heard Saturday.

Last evening the members of Harmony band held an informal social musicale at their rooms, which were beautifully decorated for the occasion. The company gathered on the occasion was confined to the members of the band and their ladies, with representatives of the press. The band played several selections, and Glenn's orchestra furnished music for the dancing. Refreshments, games, and social chat also served to while the happy hours away, and altogether the occasion was a merry one, and all participants enjoyed it heartily.

It is stated that Council Bluffs has four cases of smallpox. If this be true the papers of that hamlet have been very quiet over the matter; as we have noticed nothing regarding the disease, in their columns. Gentlemen, why is this? Will it hurt the business reputation of the city if noised about? Come down the aisle, brethren. - [Walnut Bureau.]

Fortunately for Council Bluffs there was no case of smallpox for the papers to report. Whenever there are any True BEE frankly states the fact, and when they are all cured, and danger is past, comes to the front to tell the people that too. At present there are none to report. So the Bureau might as well shut up its drawers.

Dr. P. W. Poulson returned yesterday morning from a two days' trip south to Kansas City, and along the Fort Scott & Gulf railway. The weather was clear and pleasant, and the country was booming in richness and beauty, and could never have been in a better condition. All through southern Missouri and south-eastern Kansas the corn is in the finest growth possible.

The doctor visited his brother, Dr. L. H. Poulson, at Paola, Kansas. It may be gratifying to his many friends to learn that he is getting better health all the time, and improving financially also. The two brothers had a consultation about the sickness of an old aunt, now 83 years, living at Ovid, Bear Lake valley, Idaho. Dr. Hiram J. Poulson from the Iowa State university, a son of the doctor here, was sent to her assistance a couple of weeks ago, and is now rendering professional services at her bedside.

Many complaints are made of a gang of rough boys who hang about the vicinity of Stewart's packing house and indulge in all sorts of deviltry. They generally pitch onto other boys. One little fellow says they pounced onto him and took a new lesson from him. Another boy was thrown down and fifty cents taken from him. A messenger boy for the telegraph company, Mr. Bramard's son, was in that vicinity with a message, and was assailed by brickbats that he had to retreat, together with another boy who was accompanying him. His father then went in to see him, or rather followed on behind, and when the brickbats began flying the second time, he gave the assailants a chase and succeeded in getting the names of some, and running others to their homes. Complaint was filed against several yesterday, and an attempt is to be made to punish the worst of the gang, and break up the proceedings.

When you feel life is a burden, and nothing you try seems to ease your dyspepsia, find a sure relief in Brown's Iron Bitters.

Don't wait until your children choke to death with diphtheria. Send at once to Dr. Thomas Jefferson, Council Bluffs, for his sure preventive and cure. In seven years trial it has proved infallible.

ROGERS' RESIGNATION. A Change in the Superintendency of of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb. The following is the full text of the resignation of the Rev. A. Rogers as superintendent of the institution for the deaf and dumb:

COUNCIL BLUFFS IOWA, July 17. To the Honorable Board of Trustees of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb: DEAR SIRS: After serving as superintendent for three years I have come to the conclusion that it will be to the best interests of the institution to tender to you my resignation, to take effect as soon as you select my successor. I am prompted to decline your re-appointment at an increased salary, because my inclination, as well as the wishes of my family, lead me into another field of work.

The material interests of the institution are now in such good condition that the superintendency can change hands without serious embarrassment to the good work. In going out from this work I shall carry with me an abiding interest in the prosperity and growth of the Iowa institution for the deaf and dumb.

Thank you for all your kindness in the past, and assuring you that I can but feel an interest in your personal happiness and prosperity, I am, yours respectfully, A. ROGERS, Superintendent.

The resignation comes as a surprise to the many friends of Mr. Rogers, who have watched his work with satisfaction, and who have been interested not only in his personal success, but in the success of the institution. Mr. Rogers is a Christian gentleman of more than ordinary ability, especially in the pulpit, and the public will not allow his talents to lie dormant, but will make new demands upon his usefulness in some other field.

Why are you ill? Why do you suffer? Every body knows all aches and pains, all languor and debility are cured by Brown's Iron Bitters.

Real Estate Transfers. The following deeds were filed for record in the county clerk's office, July 20, reported for the BEE by P. J. McMahon, real estate agent: Robert Percival to Charles Sexey, swd ne 1/4, 25, 75, 42-$800.

Mary J. Hubbard to Addie C. Johnson, part ne 1/4, 30, 75, 42-$1,100. P. Judson to Mary Seidendorf, lot 2, block 15, Deer's sub-$507.

H. A. Terry to Mikel Jusain, part of lots 9, 10, 11 and 12, block 126, Crescent City-$10.

Mary P. Seesley to John B. Morton, lots 7 and 8, block 10, Minden-$425. Total sales $2,372.

BOLD AND SLICK.

Thieves Successfully Capture a Bundle of Coats From a Clothing House.

Tossed Out of the Window While the Clerk's Attention is Diverted.

Farman's store was sickly robbed at a late hour in the evening, by two bold fellows, who assumed the role of customers and pretended to want to buy some goods. They were taken up onto the second floor to be shown some, and after inspecting without buying turned to go down stairs again. The salesman who had been showing the goods was ahead, and the fellow in the rear slyly and coolly did the plundering unobserved at the time. The windows of the building along the side of the store, and opening on the street, were open, and on tables were piles of clothing covered with a long stretch of cloth to keep the dust off. As the fellow passed along he pushed a pile of coats out into the street, the coat falling on the sidewalk below. The clerk noticed nothing at the time, but after the fellows had left the store he went back up stairs to turn out the lights preparatory to closing the store for the night, and then noticed that the strip of cloth, used in protecting the goods, was partially shoved out of the window, and attracting his attention by its strange position, the loss of the goods was discovered. It was too late then; the fellows having had a chance to get away with the goods they had thus tumbled in the street. Investigation showed that the thieves got twelve or fifteen coats at least.

Chas. A. Fox, of the firm of Fox & McAtee, has taken a vacation of a couple of weeks, which he will spend at Colfax, Iowa. Charlie has been very attentive to business, and it is hoped that the springs will have the desired effect, and he will return fresher than ever.

P. J. Devine, general agent of the Minneapolis harvesting company, and who makes his home in Kansas City, was in the city yesterday on his way to the shops in Minneapolis. Here he met his brother, L. A. Devine, who is with T. W. McCargar, the general agent of the Buckeye.

IOWA ITEMS. Creston is having a good growth this season. The Boonsboro coal mines have closed for a while. The drain tile works at Boone employ forty men. Davenport proposes to collect licenses from all saloons within the two-mile limit.

The Burlington company will build a library at Creston for the use of employees. The capital stock of the Ottumwa plow works, now $15,000, is to be increased to $25,000.

The contract has been let for building the $5,000 wagon bridge across the Big Sioux at Hawarden. Senators Allison, Wilson, D. B. Henderson and Gov. Sherman were billed for a grand rally at Clarinda.

The election in Iowa does not take place until next November, but the liquor question rages like the Dog Star. The State Prisoners of War association will meet in Des Moines on September 5 to discuss the best means of getting pensions. The Okaloosa Packing company has failed, with liabilities amounting to $45,000, and the Sabula packing-house is in the sheriff's hands.

C. W. Cook, an Odebolt man, writes the Odebolt Reporter from Herefordshire, England, that he has brought up a bunch of 300 head of Hereford cattle, which he will bring over in the steamer Quebec. These cattle are for three Sac county men.
