LOCAL BREVITIES.

Dr. Tilden has moved his office to the Nebraska National Bank building, 12th and Farnam.

A little son of Mr. Geo. T. Crandall was badly burned while exploding a cartridge on Wednesday evening.

Morris Sullivan recently found an interesting expense book, but by some one on St. Mary's avenue. The owner will be welcome to it if he will call on Morris.

Special bargain, "Thompson's Universal Garment Cutters." Sold by J. C. Bryant at $5.00 each, can be procured for $2.50 each with instructions, by addressing M. B. W., city.

Next week painters and decorators will commence work on the stage scenery of Boyd's opera house. A corps of skilled scenic artists from Chicago have been engaged to do the work.

Antinomys are alive, and so is Spectacle Sam, who has opened a first-class clothing store at 1122 Farnam, one door west of St. Jacob's, his former employer for nearly 12 years. Go and see him, his goods are fresh and Edward Olson his partner, and don't you forget it.

The five-year-old girl of Mart Loscica, a South Thirtieth street groceryman, was attacked Friday evening about 7 o'clock by a vicious cow, which ran one of the horns through the child's left shoulder and threw her up in the air. The vicious animal was driven away and the child rescued. It is badly wounded.

To be guilty of wearing a two-story smile this hot weather is almost a crime, but Frank Wilcox, the obliging head salesman at A. D. Morse's shoe store, where a child can buy as cheap as a man, may possibly be excused under the circumstances. It's a girl and weighs 12 pounds. Cigars and lemonade will now be in order.

Friday evening the friends of Prof. Miles H. Carleton gave him a surprise. The occasion was the anniversary of Mr. Carleton's birthday. The excessive warmth of the atmosphere was more than made up by the beautiful moonlight that cast lovely shadow pictures of the trees along the walks, and on the greensward, and rested, with a holy radiance, everywhere.

The Lucas Estate.—Mrs. Ellen Lucas, administratrix of the estate of the late R. C. Lucas, has filed her final settlement in the county court, and by her excellent management and judicious business ability, made the estate pay 100 cents on the dollar. It will be remembered that E. C. Lucas died very suddenly, leaving no will, but leaving his affairs in a very tangled condition. It is due to Mrs. Lucas, mother of the deceased, to say that amidst her repeated afflictions and trials, she called her keen business tact and administrative ability into activity, and settled the estate to the satisfaction of all.

Willie Howe, a little five-year-old son of Mr. Howe, who recently moved to Omaha from St. Joseph, died of diphtheria Saturday. The same family buried another child on Thursday.

A complaint has been filed in police court against some juvenile baseball players who batted the ball through a lady's parasol.

ROUGH ON RATS.

Jokes Connected With the Telegraphers' Strike.

The Situation Virtually in statu Quo.

There is nothing particularly new in regard to the telegraphers' strike. The indications are that the company is badly crippled for help. What is called the "commercial news department" dispatches, furnishing stock quotations to bankers and others have been temporarily suspended, and as these take precedence of all other news, the operators think it is an ominous sign for the company.

This strike commenced with a big hoax and seems to give rise to a great deal of blame. A newly born and enterprising would-be journal of this city, came out with flaming head lines on Wednesday, announcing the death of General Grant, with full particulars, gotten up for the occasion by the grape-vine telegraph editor.

Thursday night a gag was gotten off in this paper at the suggestion of Supt. Dickey in which a rumor was reported that his night force would consist of Messrs. S. H. H. Clark, E. P. Vining, Byron Reed, Harry Deuel, J. W. Morse, Edward Rosewater and others, well-known men, who had formerly been more or less connected with the telegraph business. Friday night the enterprising would-be journal came out with a tremendous out of a big rat, which was supposed to represent E. Rosewater. This was accompanied with a scathing editorial denouncing the said Rosewater as a "rat" and "scab" who had volunteered to take the bread out of the mouths of the telegraph boys by working in the Western Union office. The joke of it was that Mr. Rosewater was at Lincoln at the time and registered at the Commercial, not returning until the next afternoon. The worthy rat-catcher will have to get up a better trap than this. Even the Lincoln Journal did not tumble but said:

Edward Rosewater and Fred Nye were among the volunteers who took keys in the Western Union office at Omaha upon the operators going out. The Herald was unrepresented. The papers had just been through a strike and knew how it was.

ON TO THE FRONT.

The Grand March of the G. A. R. to Denver.

Veterans of the War Assembling in Peaceful Conclave.

Yesterday was a busy day for the Union Pacific. The veterans of the war of the rebellion were concentrating at this point by hundreds on their way to Denver, and flocked to the front as fast as steam could carry them.

For two or three days the Boys in Blue had been gathering together at this point, registering from every state from "The Old Granites" to the "Hawkeys." The hotel registers were filled and the enthusiasm of the boys was worked up to the highest pitch.

The national headquarters in Union block was visited by scores from every northern state, preparing for the great exodus which took place yesterday. It has been a long time since any Sunday has witnessed so busy a time at the Union Pacific depot. The main track and sidings were all crowded with palaces and coaches loaded with Grand Army delegates. The waiting rooms at the depot were filled, the platform was thronged with those upon whose breasts gleamed the bronze and the red, white and blue. There were cripples and the blind, and the scenes of ante-bellum days, when the women were sewing for the volunteers, were recalled to memory by those who were busy making up banners to be carried by their respective delegations to the magic city of the plains.

At the Union Pacific depot the scene was an enlivening one. Three long trains lay there with their human freight, waiting to move forward with all the eagerness of war times. The regular No. 3 went out on time, and was followed by the Denver specials.

DONATIONS FOR THE HOME.

Received from Different Parts of the State During the Week.

State Journal. The ladies of the Home for the Friendless society are in particularly good humor just now. We met Mrs. Townsend yesterday afternoon and asked her if there was anything new at the Home. Her handsome face beamed with smiles and she replied: "Yes, you may tell the good people of Nebraska that within the past few days we have received several donations from different parts of the state.

First and foremost we have received a very handsome buggy from Mrs. E. E. Clark, of Omaha, for the use of the society. Then Mrs. Isaac Oppenheimer sent us a $5 greenback with a very prettily worded note. Then came a large box from the ladies of Sutton, containing sheets and other bed clothing, and a quantity of toys for the little ones. A letter signed E. E. accompanied the box. We had hardly got the bed clothes laid aside when a good sized box, which was filled with jellies, preserves, infants' clothes, etc., arrived from Mrs. Toulain. Then some packages from Mrs. Booge and Miss Torry containing hosiery, dresses, &c., and to wind up, two high chairs from Mrs. R. H. Oakley and Mrs. S. McConiga. So you see, Mr. reporter, the good people of the state are so comfortably quartered at the Home for the Friendless.

We thanked the kind hearted lady and were about leaving when she called us back to say that the ice king, P. H. Cooper, had promised the Home a large chunk of ice daily, just as soon as they could get an ice box to put it in. It's now in order for some of the humane ladies of the state to send the Home a refrigerator.

ANOTHER LIFE SAVED.

J. C. Gray, of DANVILLE, ALA., writes: "I have been using your Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and I can say, of a truth, it is far superior to any other Lung preparation in the world. My mother was confined to her bed four weeks with a cough, and had every attention by good physicians as there are in the country, and they all failed to effect a cure, but when I got one bottle of your Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, she began to mend right away. I can say in truth, that it was the MEASLES that was the cause of her case. Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam has cured, and my mother is better now than she has been before for twenty years."

TO AVOID SUNSTROKE.

Advice Given to the Public by the New York Board of Health.

Sun-stroke is caused by excessive heat, and especially if the weather is "muggy." It is more apt to occur on the second, third, or fourth day of a heated term than on the first. Loss of sleep, worry, excitement, close sleeping room, debility, abuse of stimulants, predispose to it. It is more apt to attack those working in the sun, and especially between the hours of eleven o'clock in the morning and four o'clock in the afternoon. Have as cool sleeping rooms as possible.

Avoid loss of sleep and all unnecessary fatigue. If working indoors, and where there is artificial heat, laundries, etc., see that the room is well ventilated. If working in the sun, wear a light hat (not black) as it absorbs the heat) straw, etc., and put inside of it on the head a wet cloth, or a large green leaf; frequently lift the hat from the head and see that the cloth is wet. Do not check perspiration, but drink what water you need to keep it up, as perspiration prevents the body from being overheated. Have, whenever possible, an additional shade, as a thin umbrella when walking, a canvas or board cover when working in the sun.

When much fatigued do not go to work but be excused from work, especially after 11 in the morning on very hot days, if the work is in the sun. If a feeling of fatigue, dizziness, headache, or exhaustion occurs, cease work immediately, lie down in a shady and cool place, apply cold cloths to head and neck, and if anyone is overcome by the heat, send immediately for the nearest best physician. While waiting for the physician give the patient cool drinks of water or cold black tea, or cold coffee, if able to swallow. If the skin is hot and dry,

A HIGH KICKER.

Who is Not Satisfied With the City Officials.

Easier to Pick Flaws than Mend Them.

OMAHA, July 21, 1883.

To the Editor of the Bee.

Knowing that you are not afraid to speak out in meeting when the spirit moves you, and that you are willing to be the mouth-piece of the public when the public is suffering through the negligence and incapacity of the city officials I write.

Some little time ago the house of a friend of mine was entered by burglars and naturally became interested in the arrest of the perpetrator of the deed and proceeded to see what the city authorities intended to do in the matter. I was informed also that there was small hope of the recovery of the stolen property; that the silverware was probably shipped east and melted.

I also found, that the city is not as well governed in this respect as it should be, in fact that it is practically in the hands of the outcast from society, thieves, thugs and confidence men. We have a police force, but with one or two exceptions they are a parcel of men, who have no correct conception of the proper duties of constables of the peace, than if they had never walked their beat. As far as I can ascertain their greatest ambition appears to be to draw their salaries, and seek some quiet corner to spend the nights. During last winter, I know of some of the night force who dozed away their time beside a friendly store. As to arresting a thief it is something almost unheard of in the annals of the present city government. The only arrests made are poor delapidated moneyless members of the beer can brigade or some forlorn object in human shape found asleep in an empty car.

As to working up cases of burglary the conservators of the peace (?) do not seem to know what the term means. And if by reason of natural intelligence one of the police should run in a crook that is not dishonorable, it certainly is not liable to be reduced to that promoted. Our city marshal, who is supposed to be head and chief of the police force, and who should be a man educated in the knowledge of the habits of thugs, thieves, etc., and able to tell through well drilled lieutenants when professionals are in town and keep them spotted, learned his trade in the U. P. Shops. While shop work is not dishonorable, it certainly is not liable to render a man conspicuously fitted for the position of thief taker in chief. To my mind it is a perfect farce that a man with no other qualification than that of being a friend to the mayor, or possibly able to whoop the boys on election day, should be given the important position of riding our city of cut throats and thieves, who are certainly making a rich harvest in this totally unprotected locality. Within the last four weeks over sixty milk cows have been stolen, the thieves are known. The man who pays one half market price for them is well known, yet not an arrest has been made. It is also a notorious fact that there are in the city a number of well known fence men who openly buy stolen property, and are equally guilty with the taker, yet no arrests are made.

I will venture to say that there is not a worse governed city in the United States in this respect than Omaha. It is a disgrace, and a parody upon civilization. Not one in ten of the burglaries are reported in the papers, and if this state of affairs continues much longer the citizens will not only organize a private police force, which is being very strongly talked of, but they will go farther, and deal justice without the assistance of our city authorities. While it is true that our police force is not fitted for their work, from want of proper training, a vigorous law, a refusal to reward those who do well, and by reason of number, yet two of the present small force are deemed to wait at the mayor's office night and day, I suppose to see that no traps are permitted to sleep where his majesty holds down a chair during the day. These two men are taken from their beats in the heart of the city, and these two beats are now without policemen.

I see how in humility and be thankful that at least our mayor is well protected with a "body guard." Droze.

THE GRAND BOUNCE.

More Conductors Let Out on the Union Pacific.

The Wholesale Discharge Caused by McCarty—The Real Reasons For the Step.

The grand bounce on the Union Pacific railway continues. Another passenger conductor, one of the oldest men on the road, was discharged Friday night, after bringing in his train on the Omaha & Republican Valley branch. There will be still other discharges to record within a few days, and it is probable that most of the present force will retire and give way to new men.

It is said that only four men out of the whole number who have been discharged have been nailed by spotters, but that the work has been that of Mr. O. P. McCarty, assistant general ticket agent, who had all of the conductors on the I. B. & W. discharged when he was clerk for Superintendent Smith, of that road.

A well posted man said to a Bee reporter that the real facts of the matter were that the Union Pacific was losing its business, and that the B. & M. and Southern Pacific were making greater inroads than they were willing to admit, and to cover up the deficit in receipts, they claimed that the conductors had been "knocking down," and hence their discharge. Our informant says there is trouble in the New York office, as well as of the heads of the departments here, which will probably go as well as the conductors.

He scouts the idea that the wholesale discharge was on account of any division between the drummers and conductors on mileage tickets, and he says that the discharge is only a dodge to satisfy Sidney Dillon and others in New York, as well as to cover the fact that the other roads are becoming successful rivals of the Union Pacific.

All discharged conductors are being charged up with a certain amount of shortage, on account of fares not turned in, in which it is claimed has been discovered since January last. The largest amount in any one case is $20, charged to a conductor on the Omaha & Republican Valley road. The men propose to resist the payment of this claim, and if the company insists on withholding it, it is probable that several law suits will follow.

Electric Bitters are the purest and best medicine known and will positively cure Kidney and Liver complaints. Purge the blood and regulate the bowels. No family can afford to be without them. They will save hundreds of dollars a doctor's bills every year. Sold at 50 cents a bottle & C. F. Goodman."

A TEASPOONFUL IN A GLASS OF WATER, BEFORE EATING, ACTS LIKE A CHARM, AND NO WISE MAN WILL BE WITHOUT IT. FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

Morford of the Nebraska division of the St. Paul road has tendered his resignation, to take effect August 1, and that Trainmaster McCabe, now in charge of the North-western between Chicago and Leroy, is to be his successor. Superintendent Morford, was in charge of the Omaha and North-western when that line passed into the possession of the St. Paul and became part of the Nebraska division of that road. He has worked hard to bring his division up to its present condition, and deserves the rest in which he will indulge.

THE SIOUX CITY ROUTE.

The following circular has been issued by Commissioner J. W. Midgley, of the Colorado Traffic association, to officers of connecting roads:

The Sioux City line, so-called (formed by the Illinois Central and St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha railroads), has been admitted into the above named association, and its allotment therein definitely fixed from and after July 1, 1883. That line is, therefore, entitled to the benefit of all interchange or other arrangements existing between connecting lines and this association.

The Colorado Traffic Association now includes all freight traffic (except lumber) carried to or from points on or east of the Mississippi river, in connection with the Union Pacific, Burlington and Missouri River, Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe, and Denver and Rio Grande railroads, to and from points in Colorado and Utah, by the following named roads: Chicago and Alton, Chicago and North-western, Hannibal and St. Joseph, Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific, Missouri Pacific, Illinois Central, Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Kansas City, St. Joseph and Council Bluffs.

DESERTION AND DROWNING.

A Sad Case at St. Helena.

A Mothers Desperation and a Wifes Despair. Dr. P. S. Leisinger of this city, has received a letter from his son Harry, written from St. Helena, this state. The letter states that about two weeks ago a man named Richard Holcomb eloped with a young woman of that place, leaving a wife and several young children. On Saturday evening, his little five year old daughter, Nellie, went to visit friends on the other side of the river and while playing on the banks fell in and sunk to rise no more.

This occurred about 5 o'clock in the evening, and Mrs. Holcomb was on her way to the other side to get her child when she was met by a friend and the news of the terrible accident told her. Her body and brain were overtaxed and she went into a maniacal state and was with difficulty prevented from throwing herself into the river and following her child to the unknown world.

She was taken home and cared for by friends, and at last accounts was somewhat better.

The body of the little girl has not yet been found, and we publish this in hopes it may lead to some discovery and the return of the ill-fated child to its home and a Christian burial.

RAILWAY INTELLIGENCE.

A Collision in the Union Pacific Yards.

Resignation of Superintendent Morford, Etc.

Train No. 1, on the Union Pacific, which leaves this city for Denver at 8 p. m. met with quite an accident last evening as it pulled into the depot from Council Bluffs.

A switch engine was lying in the yard and the engineer, seeing the last of the Pullman cars supposed that to be the end of the train. On the contrary there were two engine cars attached to the train and filled with passengers. The engine backed up just in time to strike the engine cars and break them loose from the train. The platforms were torn off, the tank of the switch engine smashed and things generally demoralized. Fortunately no one was hurt, the passengers were all transferred and the noon train pulled out nearly on time. The noise made by the collision was heard several blocks away.

The Sioux City Journal of Thursday says: A contractor in from the Cedar county line reports the entire thirty-five miles sublet, and most of the contractors at work. There is little heavy work on the line and most of the contractors expect to finish within thirty days. The ties and iron arriving at Wakefield daily. This material is being unloaded on a track just finished for its reception. The tracklaying is expected to begin at Wakefield about the first week in August, and it is now planned to get the line completed and open for business to the center of Cedar county by October. The crops along the line of the grade are looking first-rate, the recent favorable weather bringing the corn out in good shape. As for the country along the line the contractor said, "I have never seen a country that combined so many advantages. The prairie is rolling enough for drainage, the spring streams numerous, enough valley for hay land, and the best corn land in the west. All the country lacks is more settlers, and these are coming in fast since the building of a railroad is assured."
