MINOR MENTION.

Pete Haines, for being drunk, was yesterday fined the usual amount.

U. McMacken has built for himself a nice residence on Washington avenue.

The upper part of the school building, Hall's addition, is now being plastered.

The fifteen additional street letter boxes are being fastened to lamp posts now.

The trotter, Westmont, who has been sent to Davenport, where he is entered for races.

Work has commenced on the new school building in the southern part of the city.

Excavation has commenced preparatory to laying the foundation of the new Masonic temple.

C. Schwartz, arrested for begging and vagrancy, was yesterday sentenced to twenty days in Omaha.

John Sprink has just completed a fine little dwelling in Washington avenue, and will proceed to occupy at once.

Mrs. Brown, charged with keeping a house of ill-fame, failed to appear in court yesterday, and her bonds were forfeited.

Leave to wed and be happy was yesterday officially given to Peter Christiansen and Lena Sanderson, both of Blomster township.

John Watson, who had a $75 mare killed by the cars last October, has commenced suit against the K. C. road for damages.

One man sauntering along Broadway yesterday, was followed by a trained coon, not a black one either. It attracted much attention.

Cynthia Odell, arrested for threatening to burn the house of Mrs. Calhoun, a neighbor, was yesterday held in $200 bonds to keep the peace.

A little six-year-old daughter of Mr. Knecht, of Thall & Kracht, while visiting her grandparents, a short distance from the city, had the misfortune to fall and break her arm.

John Mergen has just finished a six-room residence on Avenue D, between 9th and 10th streets, and is now planning for building a brick store on his corner lot, for business purposes.

County Treasurer Bennett has let the contract for the mason work of his large new residence to Martin Hughes. This residence is to be one of the finest in the city, and a great improvement to Willow avenue.

Sneak-thieves are still around. They have visited John Mergen's house, but got little plunder. They also visited the cellar of a house on Third avenue and got away with a quantity of canned fruit and jellies.

Chief Field had not heard up to last evening, any response to his telegram sent to Virginia inquiring about the truth of the statement made by the self-surrendering J. W. Church that he is wanted there as a defaulter.

A petition was filed yesterday for the appointment of an administrator for the estate of John Cookes, the liverman who suicided lately at Avoca, while temporarily insane. The estate is said to amount to about $10,000.

Joe Welch, son of William Welch, the Fifth avenue grocer, while shooting at a mark yesterday, met with an accident, the ball from the small pistol he was handling striking him in the knee, causing a rather serious wound.

The Presbyterian social is to be held Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. E. D. F. Fisher, the other ladies entertaining being Mrs. De Vol, Mrs. Cassidy, Miss Ida Casady, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Rohrer and Mrs. Scofield.

Sarah A. Hickman, of Avoca, has commenced suit here to get released from the matrimonial bonds which now hold her as the wife of William Hickman. She claims he has deserted her. They were married twelve years ago.

Prof. J. W. Akers, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, arrived in the city yesterday from Des Moines, and last evening delivered his promised lecture at the Bloomer school building, on "The Relation of Education to the Industries."

Oscar Dickson, who was recently shot in a row with another colored man, Dan Smith, is said to have left town yesterday, and the understanding is that he will not appear as a witness against Smith in the examination set for to-day, the affair having apparently been compromised.

J. Leutzinger is about to occupy his new brick building on Broadway, everything being about in readiness for opening the bakery. His oven is pronounced one of the best in the west, and the establishment will be a model one in all respects.

It is stated that the cellar of the Home of the Friendless has been flooded with water for six weeks past. It certainly ought to be cleaned out, or else a new house on a higher location obtained. It can't be a very healthy home for the friendless as it is now.

Tom Hardy, marshal of Avoca, was here yesterday, accompanied by Mr. Saunders, who had a horse stolen a few days ago. They were en route for St. Joseph, having received word that the horse thief was in jail, and the horse recovered, the capture being made about ten miles from there.

ported as quite seriously hurt. Information has been filed charging L. Barney, L. Bailey, A. Shirley, Charles Baker, and King, with assault with intent to murder, it being claimed that they used clubs, chairs and brickbats in the melee.

Jennie Palmer, who was married to Wm. E. Palmer about two years ago, is now seeking a divorce from him on the ground that he has abused her, failed to provide for her, deserted her, visited lewd houses, and that he is now living with a woman named Annie Lockwood, reasons enough she thinks to get rid of him in law as well as in fact.

Three confidence men boarded the outgoing train on the Chicago & Northwestern Monday night, but Conductor Clay announced in each car that they were on board and warned passengers to hold on to their money. If all conductors and train men would take equal pains it would soon put a stop to the continued robbery of the public.

The teachers' institute got fairly underway yesterday, several more names being added to the enrollment, there being now over a hundred teachers in attendance, a large number of them were enrolled on the second day. The instructors are Prof. Warner, of Allenton; Prof. W. H. Hatch, of Rock Island; Prof. Cranmer, of Shelby, and Dr. Barstow, of this city, instructor in oratory and physiology.

Mr. Cheney, of the Sioux City route, is scattering some very attractive and instructive reading matter, noticeable among which is a very unique yet handsome publication of about thirty pages, illustrative and descriptive of Alexandria and Minnesota. Those who are thinking of some pleasant summer resort, and those who want to secure something very handsome in the line of art and typographical beauty, should call at the office of the company, No. 39 Pearl street, and secure a copy.

The news reached this city yesterday by passengers on the incoming train that a crowd of enraged citizens had visited the jail at Harlan, and taken out of jail the Polk county murderer and hung him, the neck-tie party being held at 2 o'clock in the morning. The news here proved no great surprise, as many have predicted that such an event would take place; but still, without any great surprise, it created quite a flurry of talk, and many openly approved the course taken to dispose of the fellow.

The expressmen, who have joined in opposing the collection of the license required of common carriers, propose, through their attorney, Mr. Sears, to attack the validity of the ordinance. THE BEE, at the time of the passage of that ordinance, as well as others passed about the same time, showed up the bungling, scrap bag, sort of a way by which the old council framed the ordinance, and it is not improbable that some errors may yet be found which have not been corrected. The hunt will be made for a loop-hole.

The Union Pacific has filed its acceptance of the gift of Union avenue. Of course, why shouldn't it accept a roadbed which cost the city $40,000, and on which it can run its side tracks. Almost anybody would accept a $40,000 gift, especially when they could use it to good advantage as the Union Pacific can. The city should, however, have paid for all of it first, and owned what it has given away. The $40,000 worth of property may have cost the Union Pacific something; but, if so, the city treasurer seems to have got nothing of it.

J. W. Rodefer having been elected secretary and treasurer of the Mercantile Loan, Trust and Improvement company of Council Bluffs, has accepted the position and assumed the management of the company's business. The following named persons are on the board of directors: T. A. Kirkland, C. S. Lefferts, J. W. Rodefer, I. A. Miller, E. L. Shugart, T. A. Kirkland, President.

IRON CLAD.

A sample of a Note Used in Dakota.

A DEK man in his rambles for news yesterday struck a curiosity in the law line in the form of an iron clad note, which had come into the possession of J. J. Stewart, of the firm of Scott & Stewart, and which he thinks of having framed as a unique specimen of its class. The note is as follows, the names being omitted for obvious reasons:

"On or before the _____ day of _____ 188____, the subscriber of _____ township _____ county, State of Dakota, promise to pay to the order of _____ dollars. Without relief from appraisal, stay or exemption laws, and in case suit is instituted for its collection, anything and everything in my possession can be levied upon and sold, including the last suit of clothes, the school books and food of the children, with the coffin or coffins any of the family may be buried in; and in case that every article is sold, and there remains anything due on the note, I agree that the services of myself and family shall be sold, until all the demands of the note are satisfied. And I further agree that in case suit is instituted for its collection, to pay reasonable attorney fees, together with bond bills, back hire, saloon bills, and other miscellaneous expenses for myself and family, and near relatives, while suit is pending. And I further agree to live on corn bread and sorghum molasses from date until the demands of this note are satisfied. With interest at the rate of ten per cent from date, payable annually."

The endorsement on the back is as follows: "For value received we hereby guarantee the payment of the within note, on the date of its maturity, and notice of non-payment thereof."

Dr. West, Dentist, 14 Pearl street.

The Methodists.

The district conference of the Methodist Episcopal church opened last evening, and will continue through to-day and to-morrow. The programme for to-day is:

Keep Dr. Jeffrey's specific remedies in house for bowel derangements, prevalent in hot weather. They give immediate relief.

PERSONAL.

J. W. Akers, the state superintendent, stopped at the Pacific last night.

Fred Harris, of Farragut, Iowa, was at the Pacific yesterday.

John Plumb and wife, of Hastings, were at the Pacific yesterday.

E. Starbuck, of Glenwood, was in the city yesterday.

Fremont Benjamin and H. J. Chambers, two of Avoca's attorneys, were in the city yesterday, and dined at the Pacific.

C. W. Hubbard, of Sioux Falls, Dakota, arrived at the Ogden yesterday.

M. H. Ferris, of Milwaukee, was an Ogden house guest yesterday.

A. Mitchell, jr., of Spencer, Iowa, was in the city yesterday.

M. Evans, of Fremont, Neb., visited the Bluffs yesterday, and stopped at the Ogden.

George Jones has started for a visit with friends in Sparta, Wis., his old home.

Chief Templeton is confined to his room by illness, caused by over exertion at last Saturday's fire.

C. A. Jackson, the Wabash operator, is enjoying a visit from his sister, Miss Kittle Jackson, of Toledo, O.

Mrs. A. S. Clough has gone to Harlan on a visit to her mother, Mrs. James Harvey.

Colonel Cochran has gone to Baltimore, on a visit to eastern friends, expecting to be absent several weeks.

S. Haas and family have gone west, where he has large cattle interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bechtel have gone to Chicago to select some furniture for their new European hotel, which they expect to open in about a month.

N. Fredericks, of Janesville, Wis., is spending a few days in the city on business. He is one of the best known livermen in Southern Wisconsin, and is as popular in his line as he is well known. While an enthusiastic Badger, he still thinks Council Bluffs a wonderful city.

Rev. A. D. Barber, of Montpelier, Vt., editor of the Chronicle, the leading religious paper of that State, is spending several weeks in this State, and in this city for a few days, as the guest of George Rice, and being entertained at the residence of Mr. Rice's son-in-law, Mr. Otis. Mr. Barber was a classmate of Mr. Rice's; and the two are naturally very glad to meet again.

W. B. Kuntzinger, representing Pottsville Post; J. H. Jacobs, representing Hagleton Post; E. C. Tice, representing Mount Carmel Post; J. P. O'Donnell, representing Heckersville Post; A. Hohl, representing Philadelphia Post; Postmaster Giller, representing Shamokin Post; J. Gould, representing Mount Carmel Post. All of Pennsylvania, and all old Keystone state.

Mrs. Gray's restaurant, 21 and 23 Bryant street, is furnishing fine table board very cheap.

The Campaign Opened.

Hon. E. C. Kinne, democratic nominee for governor, addressed a fair-sized audience at the park last evening. Mr. Kinne spent much of his time in discussing the temperance issue and the prohibition amendment. He quoted facts and figures, showing that prohibition in Kansas was a failure, and he predicted that the position taken by the republicans of Iowa on that issue would cause disaster and defeat to that party. Harmony band furnished the music on this occasion.

Mandel is continuing his sale of furniture and household goods at almost panic prices.

THE SIERRA MADRE.

A finely watered and timbered country, and rich in minerals.

A gentleman who has been to the Sierra Madre, says a trip through that country at this season of the year is a parade through a succession of table lands, teeming with flowers of every hue, and forests of pine, inhaling fragrance at every pore. The Apaches live on the outskirts of the Sierra Madre. Two tribes, called the Tarumaris and Tripwara, inhabit the central portion. The Indians are at peace with the Mexicans, but at war with the Apaches. The country abounds in pine and oak and streams of pure water, being heavily timbered and watered. In the center one can ride for miles over table lands without meeting with a single obstruction. Rich ore is to be found every where, and this man found native silver in abundance, and now that the Apaches have been driven out he longs to return there with a party of prospectors.

If you make it a rule to flavor all your cold drinks with 10 or 15 drops of Angostura Bitters, you will keep free from summer disease and have your digestive organs in good order. But be sure you get the genuine Article, manufactured only by Dr. J. G. B. SIEGERT & SONS:

Too Much Gum.

Reno (Nev.) Gazette. A singular and distressing accident occurred last evening about 10 o'clock, which from present indications will prove fatal. A young man, well known in Reno, was out for a walk with a young lady, also well known here and at Carson, and on arriving at the home of the lady, a good night kiss was carelessly indulged in, and through some miscalculation the young man swallowed the lady's false teeth--four in number. It was agreed between the unfortunate young couple to keep it a secret, but the pain was so intense that the young gentleman was obliged to summon a physician, and in that way the secret leaked out. The attending physician says unless the patient gets relief by to-morrow noon the accident is almost sure to prove fatal. The names of the parties are withheld out of respect to their feelings. They are of the highest respectability.
