FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT.

A Passenger Train Wrecked by a Car Blown on the Track by the Wind.

The Groans of the Dying and the Cries of the Wounded Mingled with a Torrent of Rain and High Wind—Details of the Wreck.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., July 28.—News was received here early this morning of a terrible disaster on the Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg railroad.

The following are the injured: Messrs. W. F. Half and daughter, Leslie, Mich.; Mrs. R. Zalusky, Battle Creek, Mich.; Mrs. Moses Sweetser, Parkersburg, Va.; Mrs. L. G. Field, Parkersburg, Va.; Mrs. A. L. Briggs, Saline, Mich.; Mrs. Annie McMaister, of Ireland; Miss Alice Jennings, Philadelphia; Mrs. Prof. C. W. Stone, Battle Creek, Mich.; Alex. Tower, Lansing, Mich.; father of Mrs. Elizabeth Jane Carl.

At 2 o'clock a special arrived with General Manager H. W. Butler, of Ogdensburg; General Freight Agent E. M. Morse, J. A. Sawyer, conductor, Remington, train master; Conductor Garrison, and Dr. Cochran, coroner, for the purpose of holding an inquest.

A jury was impaneled. The engineer of the first locomotive testified he first saw the car about three rods ahead. He blew for brakes, reversed the engine, and the next thing he knew he was in the ditch.

The wind and rain beggars description. The engine was totally wrecked. The fireman, Louis France, was mangled beyond recognition.
