> And Severs the Head from the Body in a Terrible Manner.

From J. A. Cooper of Ashland, Neb. we learned by telephone yesterday the particulars of a shocking accident that occurred there in the morning. A special train of eight Pullman coaches bearing St. Bernard Commandery Knights Tem; lar of Chicago to Denver, passed through Ashland at the rate of forty miles an hour. A young man in a wagon was seen endeavoring to cross the track, but before he could pass the engine struck him. The horses escaped, but the man and wagon were tossed forward by the engine, and the unfortunate fellow about a hundred yards. When the body was discovered it was under jaw caught by a rail, and the brains scattered on the ground. The train stopped, backed up long enough to view the remains and then proceeded. The man's name was Aaron R. Fox, and he was a farmer living eight miles northwest of Ashland. He was only about 24 years of age and leaves a wife and a little babe six weeks old. The engine of the train whistled, but rang no bell, and it is certain that the coroner A Large Amount of Supplies for the inquest which was being held in Ashland in the afternoon will lay the blame some where.
