

THE DAILY BEE.

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Monday Morning, September 10.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier... 30 cents per week; By Mail... $10.00 per Year.

OFFICE: 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

Republican County Convention.

The republicans of Pottawattamie county will meet in delegate convention at the court house in Council Bluffs, Thursday, September 13, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the following offices...

The primaries in each township, unless otherwise ordered by the township committee, will be held Monday, September 10 at 7 p. m. By order of JOHN W. BAIRD, Chairman Co. Rep. Cen. Com.

MINOR MENTION.

See Joseph Reiter's fall goods. Additional local on seventh page. Cheap Railroad Tickets at Bushnell's. Remember the republican primaries this evening. The democratic convention meets at the court house at 10 o'clock this morning.

An informal reception is to be tendered Governor Hendricks at the Ogden this evening.

Governor Sherman and General Prentiss are to speak here next Saturday evening.

The board of education has employed C. R. Scott to defend the injunction suit about the seat.

The result of Saturday night's democratic caucuses is considered as in favor of George A. Holmes for the legislature.

The rush has already commenced and seats had to be used both at the Ogden and Pacific to accommodate guests over Sunday.

The Young Men's Christian Association is to hold a business meeting this evening at 8 o'clock, and all members are urged to be present.

A change in the police force was made yesterday. Officers Barlyte and Brooks going on to day duty, Officers Casick, Clough, Hays, Mullen and Leonard on night.

Congressman Burrows, of Michigan, is to give a republican speech here on the 27th. Political oratory is abounding. There are already over 200 speakers at work in this state.

William Redfield, of Shenandoah, arrested for selling bottled beer without Uncle Sam's permission, was brought before Commissioner Key, and held to the United States court.

A young colored fellow named Wilson is to have a hearing before Justice Schurz to-day on a charge of having stolen $3 from Lew Frances' trunk. He in the meantime is locked up in jail.

There was no preaching service at the Presbyterian church yesterday. This evening there will be an adjourned meeting of the congregation to complete arrangements concerning the call of a pastor.

The Danebo, the Danish society, gave a large party at Bloom & Nixon's hall Saturday night. The Danish band, of Harlan, furnished the music. They are an excellent organization, well uniformed, and play together very nicely.

Mrs. Dolis Struger and Mrs. Maria Rubey, neighbors, seem to have got into a good deal of trouble about a cow. Mrs. Maria Rubey says that the other woman painted a loaded gun at her. There will be a hearing before Justice Abbott to-day.

Rev. Mr. Armstrong was yesterday at the jail gathering facts to use in an address he is to deliver at Missouri Valley to-night. He found, by inquiring of Jailor Schontz that out of eighteen prisoners, sixteen had their troubles in drinking whisky. He will use this in his support of prohibition.

M. Hottes, the well known artist, sold one of his fine oil paintings Saturday to Mrs. Wood, daughter of Judge James, the price being $100. The painting is a noon-day scene, a landscape, with cows making themselves comfortable standing in the water in a shady nook. The work on the picture is excellent.

Chris. Straub, who has the contract for the new Masonic building, quit work on it Saturday on account of some misunderstanding between him and the committee. He claimed that there were altogether too many "bosses," while they claim that he was not doing the work in accordance with the plans and specifications.

A painter named Larson, was arrested for brutally beating a dog, had his trial Saturday, and was discharged, the evidence showing that the dog had the habit of running out and barking at passing teams, and that he had that day nearly frightened a team into running away, whereupon Larson had tied the dog up to a tree and used a horseship on him.

The Review Press, of Gunnison, Colorado, has the following to say concerning one of Council Bluffs' real estate men: "E. C. Cole, who is largely interested in Gunnison real estate, and who has been the junior member of the firm of Dawson and Cole for the past three years, left to-day for his home in Iowa. He has disposed of his interest here in the stock business to S. E. Dawson. The firm during the past three years have disposed of 1,000 head of cattle each year, besides the sheep, hogs, etc. We understand Mr. Cole will return to Gunnison again in the spring."

If you want a watch, interview Kirkland.

For good square meals go to the Bryant house. B. F. Allison, proprietor.

FUN AT THE FAIR.

All Arrangements Complete for a Big Time This Week.

The Programme and Pointers.

The fair grounds will to-day put on a look of activity which will continue through the week. Everything possible has been done to secure a big show, and a large crowd, and there is every reason to believe that Council Bluffs will not only have both, but that all who come to the city will be more than satisfied at the way the premises are met.

Governor Hendricks is positively to speak Tuesday afternoon. He is a known orator, whom all will be glad to hear, and he certainly will have a big crowd to hear him.

Friday afternoon, in the exposition building, will be the presentation of the $75 sewing machine to the boss girl of Western Iowa. The presentation is to be made by Bill Nye, either in person or by letter.

Stockholders and those desiring family tickets, can secure them by interviewing Henry Eisman. The track has been put in the best condition, and the showing of speed is expected to be very fine as there are many fast flyers here.

The Episcopal ladies are to have a booth as last year. If they serve the public as well as last year, and they surely will, their tables will be crowded. A special police force is to preserve order on the grounds, and special detectives are to be on the lookout for slick crooks.

Half-hour trains will be run on the Union Pacific company's new Union Avenue track this week, the fare between here and Omaha being twenty-five cents. It is proposed to keep the dust from flying at the driving park by a liberal sprinkling daily.

There are already about 400 entries and there will be a rush to-day. Then there are about 100 as fine horses for the races as ever gathered on any course.

Tuesday will be children's day, all under 14 to be admitted free. Thursday is citizen's day, and all stores and offices are expected to be closed in the afternoon, that all may have a chance to attend the fair.

The novelty races, hurdle races, Indian races and chariot races will be exciting features of the fair this week.

The following is the programme for the week: THE OPENING DAY. To-day, the opening day, at 9 o'clock a. m., committees appointed in all minor classes will meet at their respective departments, receive the books from their superintendents and at once proceed to work.

A Booth's select oysters received daily at W. T. Braun's.

Hendricks is Here. Governor Hendricks arrived in this city yesterday morning from Sioux City, where he gave an address Saturday evening. The committee of reception who went from here to escort him consisted of Hon. W. H. M. Pusey, W. C. James, Wells Cook, J. C. Morgan and Col. Whittlesey. The party left Sioux City at 4 o'clock yesterday morning, and on arriving here Governor Hendricks was received as the guest of Col. J. W. Chapman. To-day he is to visit Omaha, the guest of S. Herman, of the Union Pacific, and returning from there this afternoon, will become the guest here of Hon. W. H. M. Pusey. This evening there will be an informal reception at the Ogden house, and to-morrow he will give a political speech in the forenoon at 11 o'clock in Baylies park and an address at the driving park in the afternoon.

Kirkland has a large stock of watches which he will cheap.

A TERRIBLE TUMBLE. A Six Year Old Boy Falls From Madison Street Bridge.

Yesterday forenoon little Robbie, the six year old son of Capt. Wilson had a terrible fall. He saw his father coming across the temporary foot bridge at Madison street, and the little fellow gleefully started from the other side of the bridge to meet him. His foot caught on the cleats, which are nailed there to prevent passers along slipping on the descent, and by thus catching he fell, and tumbled over the side down to the creek bed below, a distance of fifteen or twenty feet. It was thought, of course, that he must be killed, but on picking him up it was found that he was not fatally injured, the water and soft earth where he fell having saved him from death. Dr. Studley was on the bridge at the time, and at once rendered assistance, and Dr. Hunt was also called in. They found that there was a bad wound on the forehead and a slight indentation of the skull, but no injury which would produce any very permanent or serious injury.

Packing House. For sale or rent--The Orvis Packing house, capacity 100 hogs per day, with all modern appliances; well located; for sale or lease. Apply to ORVIS & DAY, Council Bluffs, Ia., Sept. 10, 1883.

The First Meal. Bechtels' new European restaurant sets its first meal this noon, and those who want a boss dinner should be on hand. That prince of caterers, Ed. Olason, who has long ago established himself in the good opinion of the public, is to take personal charge, which is assurance enough that everything will be served in the best possible manner. The new restaurant is bound to be a favorite resort for those who want just what they do want, nothing more, nothing less, and want to pay for just what they get and nothing more. By all means try Bechtels' new European restaurant. It will please you.

New Goods. New carpets arriving daily at Cassidy & Orcutt's.

Pointing for the Pen. Sheriff Middleton was here yesterday with two prisoners from Harrison county whom he was taking to the penitentiary. One of them was McIntyre, a horse thief, who was lately brought back from Colorado, whether he had skipped. McIntyre was sentenced to two and a half years. The other was Baker, a cattle thief, who was sentenced to eleven months in the penitentiary. The sheriff left with his men on last evening's train.

Kirkland has a full line of rings.

Parents protect the lives of your little ones by keeping on hand Dr. Jefferia Council Bluffs diphtheria preventive and cure. Seven years trial has proven it to be infallible. For sale at office, No. 523 Sixth avenue.

A Sunday smash. Yesterday forenoon Charles Saunders was driving one of his fine grays along Main street, Geo. Washburn being seated in the buggy with him, when the horse became frightened and threw them out. Washburn got one ear rather badly used up, he striking on the side of his head. Saunders held on and was dragged a ways, but luckily got off without any serious hurt. The vehicle was somewhat wrecked by the horse trying to kick himself loose.

To strengthen and build up the system a trial will convince you that Brown's Iron Bitters is the best medicine made.
