As a specialty in the Piano line, I would recommend most heartily the Hardman Piano!

A fine tone, finely finished, first-class instrument in every respect; they are not the cheapest pianos, but within the reach of all who really desire something that will last a lifetime. TRY THEM. They are fully warranted for SEVEN YEARS.

SHODDY PIANOS AND ORGANS,

so largely advertised like patent medicine, and like it, good for everything and nothing in particular, I DO NOT KEEP IN STOCK. I cannot afford to sell them, as I live too near home. But if desired, I am prepared to furnish any of these cheap Pianos and Organs at eastern prices, save freight, provided I am not held responsible. In connection with this I will state that my Organs contain 5 full octaves of Reeds, to one set, and do not call a single octave of reeds, a full set, as advertised by shoddy makers and dealers.

I sell Pianos and Organs on Monthly and Quarterly Payments; also for cash, with small extra discount. Send for circulars. Address caused much amusement and excitement. Nelly Burke being the supposed bride chased by four Indian warriors, and, after giving her a chase around the track, one of them, Prof. Boardley caught her, in front of the grand stand, as she quickly transferred herself to his horse. It made lots of sport for the boys.

THE CHARIOT RACE. Yesterday afternoon was a fine one, and excited much enthusiasm. Prof. Boardley won the race in 1:57, the judges announcing it as the fastest time ever made in a chariot race. Nellie Burke showed herself a very fearless driver, and the two teams, four in each, coming down the track at full speed, made an exciting and novel race.

CITIZENS' DAY. To-day is citizens' day, and all offices and business houses are expected to be closed this afternoon, to let all take in the fair and the races.

TO-DAY'S PROGRAMME. This morning at 9 o'clock, class No. 14, carriage and buggy races, 29 grade cattle. At 9 o'clock, classes Nos. 29, grade cattle. At 10 o'clock, classes Nos. 30 and 31, herds of cattle.

PERSONALS.

Mr. Nugent, late of the firm of Nugent & Smith, left the city last evening for his old home in the Bermuda Islands. He waited over to see the fair. Mr. Nugent leaves lots of friends in Council Bluffs, who, if they spoke French, would wish him bon voyage.

J. W. Bixby, justice of the peace at Cornington, together with J. H. Kutz, L. W. Lewis, George Brown and Frank La Rue, all of that place, were here yesterday taking in the fair.

J. R. Mawkins, of Creston, went from the Ogden house to the fair.

At the Ogden yesterday were quartered a party of eight from Columbus, Neb., who were here taking in the fair. The party consisted of M. M. Ream, N. L. Eaton, A. J. Eaton, and D. R. Buck, with their ladies.

Miss Bowen, of St. Joe, Mo., is in the city on a visit to her brother, Ed. Bowen. Miss Bowen is the guest of Mrs. Durgan, of the Emmett house.

Miss McVan, of Cedar Rapids, is in the city on a visit to her sisters, Misses Jennie and Mary.

J. M. Lous, E. A. Consigny, and W. J. Trotter, of Avoca, were registered at the Pacific.

H. B. Mayes, N. G. Burke, and O. W. Archibald, from Glenwood, were among the Pacific House guests.

Mr. M. W. Raymond, representing a large sugar house at New Orleans, was in town talking sweet to our merchants yesterday. He was quartered at the Ogden.

Among the guests at the Pacific was Clark Ellis, a prominent druggist of Little Sioux.

Dow City sent to the fair, H. Bell and lady, T. Rule and lady, S. H. Dow, Ida Crandall, Dace Davis, and Miss Mary Bell. They were entertained at the Ogden.

At the Ogden yesterday, were J. J. Johnson, of Madison, Wisconsin; B. Bushe, of Delavan, Wisconsin; and Miss Emma Parrine, of Monroe, Wisconsin.

Mrs. Babcock, of Avoca, was a guest at the Ogden yesterday.

Moore, Butler, Burrows, Shane, Arthur, Paster and Orth, represented Clarinda, Iowa, at the fair. They all stopped at the Ogden.

Butchering the Bovine. Yesterday a cattle train of sixteen cars belonging to Reel & Rosendale left on the C. M. & St. P. road for Chicago. Just after passing Neola the engine ran over a cow on the track, and with six cars of the train was thrown from the track and down an embankment. Engineer Nichols was seriously injured, and Brakeman Brawley was fatally hurt, and probably cannot live till morning. The fireman was also badly hurt. The railroad company does not blame any one, and says it was one of those catastrophes that are to be regretted, but not avoided. Over twenty of the cattle were killed.

Gleason Reunion, Council Bluffs, September 12, 1883.

The above was the legend printed as a souvenir of a very pleasant and happy family gathering at the handsome home of our popular merchant, Mr. F. O. Gleason, and his wife at the head of Glen avenue yesterday. There were present the whole family of six brothers and two sisters, with their wives, husbands and children, making a family party of twenty-four.

Supper was served under the trees on the lawn, and the tables presented a beautiful sight, sparkling with silver and cut glass, and loaded with delicious viands.

Twenty-nine years ago the family of father and mother, with their six sons and two daughters, moved from Hartford, in western New York, to Anamosa, in eastern Iowa, where the father and mother soon after passed to their last rest. Fourteen years ago Mr. F. O. Gleason settled in this place, where he is so well and so favorably known as to need no record other than that published by his daily life.

The members of his family present were Mrs. M. G. Burch of Anamosa, Iowa, with her husband.

Mr. P. O. Gleason, the oldest son of the family, with his wife and three children.

A. L. Gleason, Waukena, Kansas, with his wife and two children.

H. A. Gleason with his wife, whom he married in Council Bluffs, a daughter of Mrs. J. T. Oliver from Leavenworth, Kansas, who he is engaged with his brother A. L. Gleason, in the cattle business.

Miss Libbie H. Niles of Anamosa, Ia., a cousin of the family.

Miss Annie Simon of Hartford, N. Y., an aunt of the family.

Willard Gleason who has no wife to bring with him, but next time—well, TRIEB will not divulge any secrets. He comes from Kiowa, Col., where he is in partnership with his older brother N. L. Gleason, who was here with his wife and three children.

E. C. Gleason with his wife and one child, are residents of this city.

The other sister is Mrs. J. D. Crookwell of this city.

The whole party will remain in the city for a week or more, the guests of those who reside here. The reunion of 1883 will be long and pleasantly remembered.

TWELVE HOURS AFTER. Dr. Henry Barnes, the Teasdale Coffee Merchant, 50 Houston street, New Haven, Conn., writes on May 16, 1883: "It is with feeling of gratitude, and desire to benefit my fellow man that I write you these few lines as testimony to the value of the greatest of all medicines. Eight years have I been suffering from kidney disorder and inflammation of the bladder. Sometimes when passing water the pains were something terrible, a scalding, burning sensation with retention of urine, with sharp pains in my side, loins, and back, extending clear to the back of my head, tended to make life miserable. I have been treated by a number of our best physicians, and have used any number of proprietary medicines, all to no avail, obtaining no relief. How long I would have continued in this way I do not know; in fact I despaired of getting relief, until a neighbor, who had been very much benefited by the use of Hunt's Remedy, advised me to try it, and although I had no faith, that it would merit my case, yet as I was so highly of the great merits I decided to give it a trial, and it has been attended with the very best possible results. Twelve hours after taking the first dose I experienced relief. I continued on in its use until I had used five bottles, when all the pains had vanished, my otherwise good health returned, and I am free from all pains, and am as well as I can be, and have used any number of proprietary medicines, all to no avail, obtaining no relief. How long I would have continued in this way I do not know; in fact I despaired of getting relief, until a neighbor, who had been very much benefited by the use of Hunt's Remedy, advised me to try it, and although I had no faith, that it would merit my case, yet as I was so highly of the great merits I decided to give it a trial, and it has been attended with the very best possible results.
