

THE DAILY BEE.

OMAHA.

Tuesday Morning, Sept. 18.

Weather Indications. For the upper Mississippi and Missouri valleys, slightly warmer, fair weather, southeast to southwest winds, lower barometer.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The ward and fantastic bills of the carnival of the Veiled Prophets at Saint Louis are being posted around town.

The Methodist conference closed its labors Saturday, and the appointments of preachers for the coming year were made.

Pat Morris, who walked off with a revolver from Pat Ford's house, paid fifteen and cents at the police court yesterday morning.

Milton R. Uhl, who married last Wednesday in Galva, Illinois, and has returned to this city with his bride. Mr. Uhl is foreman for the Allen printing company.

The drinking fountain at the corner of the Omaha National bank is a great public benefit but would be more serviceable if horses could approach without wading through a pond.

From and after Monday, the eastern mail will close at 3:15 p. m. instead of 2:40, p. m. as heretofore. This is a change long needed, by our business houses especially, and is due to the energy of Postmaster Costant.

At the residence of the bride's sister in this city, September 14th, by the Rev. J. W. Stewart, pastor of the M. E. Church, Mr. Charles Boink of Jefferson, Iowa, and Mrs. Eliza A. Northway of this city, were married.

The address of Rev. Hartzel at the Methodist church Sabbath evening, on "Illiteracy of the Southern People," is said to have been very interesting. He showed that as many as seven million people in the south could neither read nor write.

Mr. Hermann Schroeder, professor of music, who has delighted thousands by his playing at the Tivoli this summer, returns to Council Bluffs this week to remain for the winter. He will be greatly missed by his friends.

Through all the muddy weather, Douglas street with its asphalt pavement looked up solid, and dry as soon as the sun shone. Farnham street with its rotten pavement and bad holes was nearly as impassable as any of the side streets.

High Bayless was arrested and placed in the county jail Saturday evening, charged with having attempted rape on a little colored girl, Josephine Patton, seven years old. Drs. Laisering and John Peabody reported an examination of the girl appeared to have been only slightly injured.

Harry Erdman received Sunday from San Francisco a letter from Dr. George Ruebel, of Baltimore, the great eye and ear doctor, who restored his eyesight after he was totally blind, that he would step over at the Paxton Hotel from Wednesday morning till Friday afternoon.

The preliminary practice for the annual rifle contest of the department of the Platte commenced yesterday as the range just this side of Fort Omaha. There are sixty-two men firing. They were occupied during the morning at 200 and 300 yards and in the afternoon at 600 yards. Captain Coolidge is the officer in charge.

The elevator boy would be a safer and more useful public servant in this city if he did not become so much absorbed in thrilling tales of blood during his hours of service. A terrible accident will happen in an Omaha elevator some day and it will be found that the elevator boy had a tighter grasp on his dime novel than he did on his rope.

TO RENT.—The bar and billiard rooms, the barber shop, the cigar and news stand of the Cozans. sept 17-m83t.

Mr. N. Murray, of Forbes, Holt county, Mo., whose display of 300 plates of fruit attracted so much attention on the fair grounds, on account of some technicality or oversight, was ruled out, as the display was from another State. It was conceded by all observers, however, to be the finest lot of fruit ever exhibited in Nebraska. Mr. Murray was awarded first premium on the best display of evergreens, and also first premium on "Murray Bros.' patent Orchard Bales," an invention, which is invaluable to all nurseries.

Mr. Murray owns and operates a 40-acre tract and nursery farm in Holt county, from which was a large portion of the fruit exhibit above mentioned, the balance being from the Holt County Horticultural society.

Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. The greatest medical wonder of the age. Warranted to speedily cure Croup, Whooping Cough, Sore Throat, Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, and all other lung troubles. Sold by all druggists. Beware of cheap imitations. 25 cents per bottle.

A Short Out. The Denver, South Park and Pacific road is building a cut-off from Dillon to Leadville, which will shorten the line from Denver to Leadville 25 miles. The city fathers of Leadville were very "cranky" about the right of way through the city, talked very loud about what they wouldn't do, etc. Mr. H. C. Newman, the agent of the Union Pacific, which controls the South Park road, went to Leadville, and although he encountered all the bitterness mentioned above, in less than a week he "captured" the entire council, secured the right of way through the city, depot, grounds included, and came back home without ever appealing to the law, and everybody here thinks no one could have accomplished it but "Horace" Newman.

Notice. Our customers and the public in general are hereby notified that Mr. George Henning is, since yesterday afternoon, not connected with the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association, nor their agency at this place any more. Mr. Henning is not allowed to receive or collect any outstanding dues above firm, nor receipt in their name. F. SCHLIER, Agent. OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 12, 1883. sept 13 m83t

Snyder's Success. Mr. William Snyder's name has become of late a sort of trade mark for fine work on bicycles and carriages and he never made a finer display than at the State fair just closed.

Although a young man, Mr. Snyder is one of the most skillful of workmen and those who inspected the magnificent supplies from his shop will admit that he cannot be surpassed by any builder in the country. He is the man to go to for fine work.

THE METHODISTS.

Appointments to Fields of Labor for the Coming Year.

Interesting Business Transacted by the Conference.

A number of the pulpits of the city were supplied on the Sabbath by members of the M. E. conference. At the First Methodist church Dr. A. J. Kynett preached in the morning to a full house. At 3 o'clock p. m. the sacrament of the Lord's supper was administered, followed by the ordination of eleven licentiates to the ministerial offices of deacons and elders. This service was conducted by Bishop Wiley, whose health did not allow of his attempting to preach.

At the close of this service, the bishop addressed the ministers of the conference a few minutes, saying that himself and his council, with whom he advised in respect to every field and minister, had done the very best they could in adjusting the preachers to their fields, and the fields of labor to the pastors. Said he: "Brethren, you have all good fields. There is no field where you will be denied the privilege of laboring with the people, and pleading with God for their salvation. Any such field is a good one. The arranging of appointments is reduced to great simplicity. The bishop has not much to do with it, he is the administering, and the presiding elders are the executors of the work of making the appointments. The appointing power in the Methodist church is the pastors and the officers of the church in each charge. While we have done the best we could, some of you will receive your appointments gratefully, but to others they will be disappointing."

At the close of this fatherly and earnest talk, the bishop read before the large audience present, the following APPOINTMENTS to the fields of labor for the coming year:

Excited Thousands. All over the land are going into ecstasy over Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. They are so excited that they are actually drawing large audiences. The money they pay for this is not all raised, but is rapidly piling up under the generous proposition of Mr. Augustus Kuntze of New York, to give dollar for dollar. About ten thousand dollars was had to begin with and as much has been added since, which, in all, amounts to the ten thousand Mr. Kuntze will give in all to twenty thousand dollars. The bare structure will cost $36,000 and the stained glass windows, organ and embellishments will bring the total as stated to $40,000.

Real Estate Transfers. The following deeds were filed for record in the county clerk's office September 15, reported for Tax by Ames' real estate agency: Ella A. Southway and husband to Fanny Dudley, w. d. lot 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12, block B, in Shinn's first add., $2,100. John Murray and wife to Agnes B. Williams, w. d. s. lot 7, b 7 L, Omaha, $400. A Blessing to All Mankind. In these times when our newspapers are flooded with patent medicine advertisements, it is gratifying to know that there will be a certain cure for you. If you are Bilious, blood out of order, Liver inactive, or generally debilitated, there is nothing in the world that will cure you so quickly as Electric Bitters. They are a blessing to all mankind, and can be had for only fifty cents a bottle of C. F. Goodhue.

MEYERS MUSICIANS. A Neat Note of Praise to the Musical Union Orchestra.

Among the pleasant features of fair week, was the music furnished by the Musical Union Brass and String band, of which Mr. Julius Meyer is director.

The orchestra proper also furnished music at Boyd's Opera House, and that it was appreciated will be seen by the following note, addressed personally to the director:

MY DEAR MEYER:—The press and the public being so unanimous in their praise of the Musical Union orchestra, of this city, I assure you it is with great pleasure that I send you this note of congratulation for having been so successful in gathering together such an excellent band of thorough musicians.

The trials of director, especially of an opera company, are sometimes very unpleasant, and believe me, my surprise in finding such an excellent orchestra in Omaha was very great.

Hoping that you will continue to be successful in your work in aiding to bring forward this most divine of arts, I remain, as ever, Your Friend, HERMANN H. PERLEY, Musical director of the Fay Teapleton Opera Company, late director of D. D'Oyly Carte's Opera Company.
