The city alderman seem afraid to do that lest by moving it back on the lot they acknowledge that the city is responsible for moving it off the lot. Some thing should be done, that is certain. The slowness shown in repairing the bridges and other property damaged by the big flood, is a sad comment on the city's enterprise. Strangers visiting the city, and seeing the condition of affairs, cannot but get the impression that Coun-

A Happy Time

Last night the Ancient Order of Hibernians gave an enjoyaale dance at Dohany's hall. There was a large attendance, and a merry time. The hall was witness fail to appear finely decorated with the flag of old Erin, the stars and stripes, and the flag of the Omaha Hibernians. Over the stage appeared in letters of gold "Ceao Mille which translated means-"a thousand welcomes," and in the center of the hall were the words "Welcome." Glenn's orchestra furnished the music, and all were merry.
