Wednesday Morning, Sept. 26.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

-Remember that the Garland Stove is sold in this city, and can be found at Lang & Pottick's .- eod-tf

-The band connected with Happy Cal Wagner's Minstrels made a very fine street call, Leeder, Murphy, Redfield, Thrane parade at noon yesterday and discoursed some and Woodworth were present.

-Omaha Lodge No. 141, L. U. G. T., will hold a social at the residence of William Ward, 205 North Fourteenth street, this (Wednesday) evening. All are cordially invited to be present.

-On account of the inclemency of the weather the party of the Prairie Queen Dancing Club was postponed until Saturday evening, September 29. Parties will be held every Satday evening at Mathews & Gaynor's Dancing Academy, S. W. corner 14th and Dodge.

-A pleasant social party will be given at Masonic Hall this evening in honor of Mr. Julius Meyer. The Musical Union orchestra will furnish the music and Julius will receive an ovation as he always deserves

-In the Police Court yesterday a man arrested on some minor charge was given the alternative of going to jail on bread and water diet for thirty days, or going to Council Bluffs. He buried his face in his hands for a long time and at length, when reminded by the Judge that his decision was awaited, he said: "I'll go to jail, your honor!"

-In the police court yesterday two drunks were sent up for the usual time, one being a man and the other of the gentler sex. One man charged with vagrancy was sent up f r thirty days on bread and water. Ted Huth had his preliminary examination on the charge of robbing a tenderfoot, and the latter being unable to identify him, he was discharged. The victim recovered his watch, and was comparatively well satisfied.

On Wednesday evening the usual monthly dime sociable of the Union Catholic Library association will be given in their rooms in the Creighton block. A programme of more than usual merit will be presented by the members, assisted by outside friends, and all who are so fortunate as to attend will be doubtless well pleased with the programme, as the committee are determined to equal if not excel all previous efforts. The exercises will commence promptly at 8 o'clock.

Thousands Say So.

Mr. T. W. Atkins, Girard, Kan., writes: "I never hesitate to recommend your Elec-tric Bitters to my customers, they give entire satisfaction and are rapid sellers." CITY COUNCIL.

A Short But Busy Session of the Local Legislature.

The Business Transacted at Last Night's Meeting.

A regular meeting of the city council was held last evening. President Baker and Councilmen Anderson, Behm, Has-

PETITIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS. From the Mayor: That he had signed an ordinances to pay for sidewalks, levying for sidewalks, for $25,000 paving bonds issued now would not be purchased by any bank.

President Baker said that he believed the mayor's action would have been stopped by the injunction, but since the mayor has seen fit to act. The question for the council was now upon sustaining the ordinance, notwithstanding the mayor's Naughton, and Mr. T. J. Fitzmorris, veto. Upon vote the ordinance was not

In the course of the vote, Mr. Redfield defended the vote at the last meeting for 6 per cent, bonds, pointing out that the last 6 per cents sold at nearly 5 per cent. premium less than the previous lot, and that, with this in view, 5 per cent. bonds might meet with a still less flattering sale. He understood that the bank was An interesting and commendable feature preparing to contest the question in some other form. Mr. Hascall introduced a resolution that the city attorney arrange for an amicable suit with the bank to test the legality of the 5 per cent. bonds. Withdrawn atter remarks by Mr. Behm and city attorney Connell.
