It seems that the plans of the elopement were kept so secret that it was not until Monday that the true facts came to light, although the happy pair left the evening previous by the Western & Atlantic Road for some point on the line where they hoped to secure the services of a minister.

As the story goes, Miss Lochrane received Sunday night a note from her lover telling her to be ready for him at 10:30. In reading it, however, she mistook the time for 8:30, and at that hour repaired to the office of the father of young Westmoreland. He, not expecting her at that hour, was absent at the residence of Mrs. Rhode Hill, where he was taking tea. A note from her caused him to cut short his visit to Mrs. Hill's, and he was soon by his intended bride's side. When the Ford brothers attacked that notorious desperado, Jemie James, they fired straight into the back of his head, killing him instantly. It was a centre shot, and put an end to the career of one of the most blood-thirsty and heartless criminals that ever cursed a world. Though the Fords accomplished agood work, they employed desplayle methods, totally unlike that superb curative, Thomas' Edec totally unlike that superb curative, Thomas' Eclec-tric Oil which meets and destroys its adversary, theumatism, in the open field, and without resorting to treachery or deceit. Its mission is denoted by printed labels upon each and every bottle, and its shots are swift, certain and efficient beyond preced ent or comparison.

Thomas' Eclectric Oil is an unfailing remedy for oroducing class is gaining rapidly, it must be reduced relatively, or the burden upon the workers will become beyond gia, lameness, bruises, burns, bites, aches, s, rains, and pains. Notice what

> Henry C. Radbourne, of Scialia, Mc., writes: "Had my left arm and shoulder jammed in a railroad smashu," in the spring of St, and was confined to my bed for a long time, used Thomas' Eclectric Oil with excellent results. I never had anything given me that relieved so well." Daniel Plank, of Brooklyn, Ti-ga Co., Pa., describes it thus: "I role thirty miles for a bottle of Thomas' Edectric Oil, which effected the wonderful cure of a crook ed limb in six applications; it proved worth more than gold to me."
