

THE DAILY BEE.

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Tuesday Morning, October 2.

Subscription rates: By Carrier 25 cents per week; By Mail $10.00 per year.

Office: 67 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

See Joseph Reiter's fall goods. Cheap Railroad Tickets at Bushnell's. Every voter should see to it that his name is registered. Ben Carl and Winfield Scott were victims of too much drink, and run in out of the wet yesterday. Mr. Hottes, the artist, is making good progress on the scenery and decorations for the new opera house. The Owl club met yesterday but were not to give away the item they have until to-morrow morning's issue. The Ogden house darkies who tried to carve each other are still in jail, and both recovering rapidly from their wounds. Justice Abbott yesterday discharged Mrs. Almy, who was complained of by a neighbor, Mr. Pierce, for malicious mischief. John Murray, charged with holding up James Mitchell and relieving him of $5, was before Justice Schurz yesterday and discharged. Mr. Whitney, charged with taking away her trunk, after she had put it up for an unpaid board bill, was discharged by Justice Abbott yesterday. The Harmony band is making big preparations for a grand ball in St. Joseph's academy on Friday evening, October 5. The boys ought to have a big crowd. If the board of trade had a little more life to it and received the support of business men who now keep aloof from it, it might do wonders for the city in advancing its growth and prosperity. The scarcity of stores and houses for rent in Council Bluffs is one of the best evidences that the city is holding its own while the constant building and enlarging shows that it is more than holding its own. Captain Hight and Jacob Sims, Esq., talked to a goodly sized and enthusiastic Republican rally in Washington township Saturday night. Mr. Sims speaks in James township this evening, at Oakland Wednesday evening, together with Charles Harle, also Thursday evening at the White school house in Center township. It will be remembered that a young man named Theodore Brown, who lately lived here, and whose parents, very respectable people, are still here, was recently arrested and put in jail at Blair, Neb., for robbery. Yesterday the sheriff was here with the news that he had broken jail, but while hunting for him here received a telegram stating he had been recaptured. Jennie E. Meyers was before Justice Schurz yesterday, charged with the larceny of a ring and a revolver from a colored man named Charles McDonald. The evidence showed that McDonald had been supporting her and was familiar with her, and let her have the property, but kicked when he found that she was in somebody else's company. She had given him back the property, and was acquitted of the charge. The high school was reported closed yesterday on account of there being no fuel. This Bee some time ago called attention to the dilatory way in which the board had been acting about making any contract for a winter supply, and that no bids had been advertised for though there was talk of making a contract on the fly. The board should have advertised for bids, made its contracts, and provided for a supply long ago. The postal notes do not meet with as much favor among business men as was expected. The complaint is that there is little more surety than in sending fractional currency in a letter, although it is more convenient than sending stamps or silver. Now comes the additional trouble that postal notes are being raised, the writing being easily altered, and new holes punched, the little pieces of round paper coming out of the new holes being used to fill up the original ones. Eternal vigilance seems the price of a postal note. H. Van De Bogart, who is connected with S. T. Walker & Co., has had his home again darkened by a deep sorrow, similar to that which came down upon a few months ago, when their little baby sickened and died. The one now claimed by death is little Allie, a boy aged about three and a half years. The little fellow had only been ailing for a few days, when it was suddenly taken ill with croup Sunday and in a few hours it breathed its last. The funeral services will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence, 268 Benton streets. M. P. Brewer started yesterday for his new home in Minneapolis, where he is to continue in the practice law, in company with Captain F. B. Hart, his former partner here. He is a young man of rare ability, and his removal is a loss indeed to the Council Bluffs bar. As a member of the board of education he will also be missed greatly. While the many friends of Mr. Brewer regret that he has decided to leave Council Bluffs, their best wishes will go with him for continued and further success, as a man of his ability and character merits. E. P. Cadwell, of the law firm of Sims & Cadwell, has purchased Mr. Brewer's fine residence, and will proceed to occupy it at once.

THE DUDES are coming. CROSS EXAMINATION. The Slayer of Dr. McKune to Be Brought Into Court To-day. By an agreement reached by those concerned the examination of Dr. Cross, charged with the murder of Dr. McKune, is set for 9 o'clock this morning before Judge Aylesworth. It is probable that only evidence for the state will be introduced and that no testimony will be offered at present in behalf of the defendant. Capt. Hight, Col. Dalley, and N. M. Pusey will appear for the prosecution, and Wright & Baldwin for the defense. A. Booth's select oysters received daily at W. T. Braun's.

CITY COUNCIL.

The Report of the Officials for September.

A Number of Important Matters Brought Up.

At the regular meeting of the city council last night all the members were present except Alderman Wood. Bills were allowed to the amount of $3,700. Alderman presented a bill of about $15 for extra committee work in addition to his regular salary as alderman. It was the first bill of the kind ever presented in this council, but was allowed, Alderman Siedentopf only voting no. The Council Bluffs Electric Light company asked permission to put up poles along the streets on which to string their wires and the petition was referred to the committee with instructions to draw up an ordinance. Judge Aylesworth, of the superior court, asked that his salary be paid out of the police fund instead of the general fund by warrant. After considerable discussion the request was denied. D. K. Taylor was granted a license to sell liquor. Lyman & Co. were granted a contract for building a bridge on Bryant street, to be completed by December 1, at a cost of $1,700. The city attorney made a report concerning a dispute about the grade of Bluff and Pierce streets, and the mayor and finance committee were instructed to call on Mr. Miller and see if they could not make a settlement. A resolution ordering a sidewalk on Gray street was defeated. R. L. Hines was given the contract for building four-foot plank walk at 33 cents per foot. James Hauser was given the contract for putting in the stone gutters on Market street, at $3.46 per yard. The city treasurer's report showed the general fund overdrawn, $1,831; police fund, cash on hand, $2,160; sewerage fund on hand, $498; loan fund on hand, $3,755; total cash in the treasury, $4,663. The city clerk's report showed the receipts of the month, from fines, licenses, etc., to be, for the month of September, $933. Alderman James presented an ordinance in regard to assessing street improvements against owners of abutting property, there being some doubt as to the validity of the resolution under which the council has been acting. Adjourned to Monday evening next.

A FAIRCE.

The Dummy Train Begins Running Up to Broadway, But Oh, My!

Yesterday was the eventful day on which the dummy would begin running up Union avenue to Broadway. The opening day was not very auspicious, and revealed nothing of great advantage, so gloomily pictured for the city, by those who urged the city to give up a $40,000 avenue so that the Union Pacific could have a side track. The street cars run as usual to the "depot" on Broadway which "depot" consists of a platform, where passengers can stand in the storm and rain, and exchange commodes as to when or where the dummy will run. Most of the passengers took to the street cars yesterday—that is, the wiser ones did, and those who did not gained an experience of "the wonderful advantages" of the Union Pacific side track, which will cause them to contemplate another trip with a shudder. With no facilities, no information, and no accommodations, the whole affair yesterday was as badly mixed and disagreeable as the mud, through which the traveling public had to wade. Even when the train does get to running, there seems little prospect of any hourly trips. The company say they have got to lay another track first. If they really meant to lay another track they could have done it when they put the down the first one. In arranging the time table, too, there is evidently a disposition to make it convenient for men to live in Omaha and come over here to work, but very inconvenient to live here and work in Omaha. The Bee gave due warning to the Council Bluffs folks, and if they find the arrangements bad or slim recompense for giving up $40,000 of property, they need not complain. The council rushed through the ordinance, framed in the Union Pacific headquarters, and they, too, should smile, and accept the situation. Dr. West, dentist, 14 Pearl street.

PERSONALS.

W. R. Vaughan spent Sunday at home and returned to Des Moines yesterday, intending to return and take a hand in the election. L. L. Whittlesey, of Florence, Neb., was at the Ogden yesterday. Al. Sorenson, of the Omaha Republican, came over yesterday to try the new dummy scheme, and went back disgusted. C. J. Engle, of Appleton, Wis., was at the Ogden yesterday. W. E. Phelps, of Sioux City, visited the city yesterday. Dr. White has gone to Vinton to attend a meeting of the trustees of the asylum for the blind, he being a member of that board. R. C. Lange is taking in Southwestern Nebraska and Northwestern Kansas, looking after the interests of Lange & Auwerda, and that firm's business is extending very rapidly on account of push and enterprise. C. E. Ball, of Blair, Neb., was in the city yesterday and at the Pacific. John M. Shert, of Aurora, Ill., was at the Pacific yesterday. L. L. Lusk, of Randolph, Ia., was in the city yesterday. Mrs. Matilda Fletcher spent the Sunday here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mays. General Agent L. S. Stevens, of the Chicago & Rock Island, is back from the east. J. W. Chaffin, now of The Red Oak Express, was in the city yesterday. George Edgar has returned from his trip to Schuyler, Neb. New Dress Goods at Harkness Bros. Strong for Water. The Council Bluffs Baptist association, at its meeting at Lewis, put itself on record, as might be expected, as strongly in favor of cold water and prohibition. The resolutions expressive of this were: WHEREAS, The attention of all the people of the State of Iowa has recently been called in a forcible manner to the all-absorbing question of a prohibitory liquor law, and we feel it incumbent on us as a body of Christians to put ourselves unequivocally upon the record as unqualifiedly opposed to the traffic in intoxicating liquors of all kinds, therefore Resolved, That we will use all lawful means in our power to crush to the death the terrible monster that is sapping the foundation of society all over our land, desolating, blighting and destroying everything pure, good and holy; that we will continue to pray and work for a national law that will prohibit the manufacture, importation, sale or use of all intoxicating drinks, that thereby we may obtain freedom from the terrible curse.

The Testimony of a Physician.

James Beecher, M. D., of Sigourney, Iowa, says for several years I have been using a Cough Balsam, called DR. W. M. HALL'S BALM FOR THE LUNGS, and in almost every case throughout my practice I have had entire success. I have used and prescribed hundreds of bottles ever since the days of my army practice (1863), when I was surgeon of Hospital No. 7, Louisville, Ky.

Retrenching His Feed.

"Six baked beans and a half a cup of coffee for one!" yelled the waiter. It was the dinner of the editor of a great New York daily that had just reduced its price to half a cent a copy, and the other eaters all looked up and murmured, "I saw!"
