THE DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY INCREASING. COLUMBUS, October 11.—More complete returns from the election indicate an increase of the Democratic majority, and will probably be considerably over 12,000. The Senate will be two to one Democratic and the House is estimated 43 Republicans and 62 Democrats.

THE LEGISLATURE. CINCINNATI, October 11.—The following senators were elected according to latest returns: First District, Wm. Caldwell, Wm. L. O'Brien, A. J. Pruden, D.; Second District, C. E. Elliott, D.; Third, Simon Brenner, D.; Fourth, E. Meyers, D.; Fifth, Jesse N. Oren, R.; Sixth, Wm. H. Reed, D.; Seventh, Job W. Gregg, R.; Eighth, John H. Evans, R.; Ninth, C. S. Welsh, D.; Tenth, A. E. Van Cleaf, D.; Eleventh, S. W. Dunfinger, R.; Twelfth, A. C. Cable, D.; Thirteenth, J. J. Hone, R.; Fourteenth, Gilbert Smith, D.; Fifteenth and Sixteenth, John O'Neil, D.; Seventeenth, Eighteenth and Nineteenth, W. D. Crowell, D.; Twentieth, Silomon Hague, R.; Twenty-first, J. V. Lewis, D.; Twenty-second, John M. Dickman, R.; Twenty-third, Alonzo D. Fassett, R.; Twenty-fourth, Twenty-fifth, S. R. Wilcott, R.; Twenty-sixth, A. S. Williams, Geo. H. Ely, R.; Twenty-seventh, Twentieth, T. G. Loomis, R.; Thirtieth, Godfrey Jaeger, D.; Thirty-first, T. H. Williams, D.; Thirty-second, H. H. Higgins, D.; Thirty-third, E. E. White, D.; Thirty-fourth, W. H. McJannet, D.; and O'Braney D. Total Democrats 22, Republicans 11. Representatives elected are: John R. Young, D.; Geo. W. Hall, D.; Byron Stillwell, R.; Freeman Throp, R.; J. P. Primrose, R.; Geo. W. Holbrook, D.; Samuel Hill, R.; R. H. Higgins, D.; F. Cunningham, D.; E. C. Ross, R.; John W. Ogden, R.; John H. Litter, R. The Times-Star's footings of the Hamilton county vote elect Chas. E. Brown, Republican, Senator; Wm. Peet, Peter F. Striker, Republican, Representatives; Wabnitz, Republican, County Commissioner. It makes Hoedley's majority

1,876. The official returns must be awaited to know to a certainty as to Senators and Representatives. The judicial amendment is carried beyond doubt. The first amendment will not get over 100,000 votes. The prohibition vote is estimated at from 5,000 to 20,000, and the Greenback 20,000.

CONGRATULATING HOEDLEY. CINCINNATI, O., October 11.—Judge Hoedley spent several hours in his office to-day where he was visited by a large number of friends to congratulate him. Much time was consumed in receiving reading telegrams of congratulations. Among them was this:

YONKERS, N. Y., October 11.—I congratulate you on your brilliant triumph. (Signed) S. J. Tridens.

Telegrams were also received from Senator Jonas of Louisiana, Robert Garrett of Baltimore, Senator McDonald, Aug. Belmont and many others. The condition of returns in this county is such that nothing can be definitely stated in addition to what has been given until the official count. This will be next week. A rumor is current in some places that Gov. Foster and other Republicans were here to investigate the charges of fraud in counting the vote, but inquiry among the Republicans reveals no knowledge of such charges or of such investigation.

SAFELY DEMOCRATIC. COLUMBUS, O., October 11.—Neither of the State committees are making any effort to obtain definite results from the election since it has been conceded that everything is safely Democratic. The Democratic headquarters were practically closed to-day. Nothing has been done by the Republican committee. The first amendment is defeated, and as nearly as can be estimated the second amendment will get about 300,000 votes, and is probably defeated by all way from ten to fifty thousand.

SOME ADVOCATES OF THE second amendment claim it has carried, but have no figures to show it with. Hamilton and Cayuga delegations are divided in the proportion which has been reported. An estimate has been made in which both chairmen of the committees substantially agree that the Senate will stand twenty Democrats, eleven Republicans; House, sixty-three Democrats and forty-two Republicans, being a majority of thirty-two on joint ballot. These figures are liable to slight change by the final results.

THE LATEST FROM IOWA. CHICAGO, October 11.—The Journal's Des Moines special says Sherman's majority will reach 50,000. Complete returns from 59 counties, which includes heavy Democratic ones, give him 13,300. Partial returns from the remaining counties give him 2,770. His plurality will not be less than 12,000. The Iowa House is close. The Republicans now have 54, opposition 41. Of the remaining five the Republicans will get three. The Senate now stands Republican 37, opposition 8, in doubt 5. Judge Cook is elected in the Sixth district by a small majority.

one o'clock this morning. Sherman will have between 25,000 and 30,000 majority over Kinne and from 12,000 to 15,000 over Kinne and Weaver. The Senate will probably stand 40 Republicans to 10 Fusionists and the House 54 Republicans to 46 Fusionists.

10:00 p. m.—Definite returns have been received by the State Register on the Legislature, and the result is positively known so far as it can be until the official count has settled a few close contests. The Senate will stand 40 Republicans, 9 Democrats and 1 doubtful, the latter from Linn county, where the result is so close and doubtful it will take the official count to decide. Senator Larabee, instead of being defeated as reported yesterday, is elected and so is Barrett. In this count Heinheimer, of Mills county, is counted as elected, although the Hendricks (fusion) claims three majority by throwing out ten mispelled ballots for Heinheimer, but the intention of the voters casting the imperfect ballots was plain that Heinheimer will be given the certificate. The House on complete and bedrock figures stands as follows: Republicans 52, Independent 1, Democrat 30, Greenbacks 7, doubtful 1, a Republican majority on joint ballot of 34.

Full and complete returns from 50 counties give Sherman 19,424 majority over Kinne and 4,851 over Kinne and Weaver both. In these 50 counties Sherman has a total vote of 86,024. Kinne 67,200 and Weaver 14,573, the latter's vote being made by full returns much larger than was expected yesterday and the day before. Incomplete but pretty definite returns from the other 49 counties, giving majorities simply, makes Sherman's majority over Kinne 25,000, and the majority over all 8,000 or 9,000.

CAPITAL NOTES.

WASHINGTON, October 11.—Attorney General Brewster returned to Washington and was on duty to-day. The President and all members of the cabinet are now in the city.

MORE BONDS. Secretary Folger says it is probable he will soon issue a call for 3 per cent bonds. The amount of the call is not decided on.

Corn will average something like 25 bushels per acre. Total crop about 1,625,000,000 bushels. Wheat will show an increase of nearly 100,000,000, or about 413,000,000 bushels. Oats will show up amply.

MINERS' STRIKE. PITTSBURG, Pa., October 11.—A Scott-dale (Pa.) special says the miners who have been on a strike for several weeks against the iron-clad check weighman law, went to work last week, the employers not insisting on their signing, but this week several Union leaders were singled out and discharged, whereupon the miners quit work again and refused to resume until their companions are reinstated.

THE STORY OF THE SOUTH.

"Under the Old System We Had Our Debts and Walloped Our Niggers."

"Under the New We Pay Our Niggers and Wallop Our Debts."

Henry Watterson's Sparkling Address to the Bankers' Convention at Louisville.

Proceedings of the Bullion Brethren

LOUISVILLE, Ky., October 11.—The Bankers' association met at 10:30 o'clock, a Mr. George M. Davis, of Louisville, submitted a paper on bankruptcy which, owing to its length was not read, the author saying that it would be published. It was resolved that the interests of the country demand speedy enactment by Congress of some regulations of commerce among the States, equivalent to a National law existing in its provisions for debtor and creditor in all sections of the country.

DAVIDSON, of Cincinnati submitted, without reading a paper containing a digest of the laws of all States on exemptions and preferences, which will be subjects for future discussion by the association. Then came what might be called an experience meeting, in which the delegates from the southern States gave interesting sketches of the material prospects of various southern States with statistics which supplied startling information to those who were not personally familiar with their position. George S. Coe declined reelection, and L. S. Gage, of Chicago, was unanimously elected president. Mr. Gage is cashier of the First National of Chicago. F. H. Griggs, vice president, was re-elected. Other officers chosen were treasurer, Edmund D. Randolph, corresponding secretary, George Marsland. After the election of officers Hon. Henry Watterson, who had been invited to address the association, entered the hall and was conducted to the stage, where, on his introduction, he was received with lively and appreciative applause. After a few pleasing remarks, relating to the occasion, to banks and bankers, he took up the south, which was the special order of the day, and, in an eloquent address, spoke of that section.

THE STORY OF THE SOUTH.

Hon. Henry Watterson being introduced was received with applause. He said, "It was not to hear of banks and banking that you did me the honor to call me before you. I am told you wish me to talk to you about the south. It is no problem at all. I thank you at last we can say with truth it is simply a geographical expression. [Applause.] The whole story of the south may be summed up in a sentence. She wretched and she lost her riches; she was poor and in bondage, she was set free and she had to go to work. She went to work and she is richer than she ever was before. Thus, you see, that it was a ground hog case. [Laughter.] The soil was here, the climate was here, but along with them was the curse of slavery. God passed the rod across the land and smote the people. Then in His goodness and mercy He waved the wand of enchantment, and lo, like a flower, His blessing burst forth. [Applause.] Indeed may not the South say, "Sweet are the uses of adversity." [Applause.] The south never knew what independence meant until she was taught by subjection to subdue herself. We lived from hand to mouth; we had our debts and owned niggers. Under the old system we had our debts and walloped our niggers; under the new we pay our niggers and wallop our debts. [Laughter and applause.] The truth is that behind the great ruffe the South were to its shirt there lay concealed a superb manhood. That this manhood was perverted there is no doubt; that it wasted its energies upon trifles is beyond dispute; that it took pride in cultivating what it called the vices of a gentleman I am afraid must also be admitted, but at heart it was sound. From that heart flowed honest, Anglo-Saxon blood, and when it had to lay aside the broadcloth and put on jeans it was equal to the emergency. [Great applause.] And the women of the South took their places beside the men of the South, and by the spinning wheel and the plowshare, together they made a stand against the wolf at the door. That was fifteen years ago, and to-day there is no reward offered in a single Southern State for wolf skins. The fact is, even the wolves got skinned themselves and have gone to work. [Applause.] I beg you to believe, that in saying this, my purpose is neither to abuse or to mislead you. The future of the South is as well assured as the future of the West. Why should the money which is freely loaned to Iowa and Illinois be refused to Alabama and Mississippi. You have money to loan; we have a great country to develop. We have given hostages to fortune, and our works are before you. I know that capital is proverbially timid, but what are you afraid of? It is not our cotton that alarms you, or our corn, or our sugar. Perhaps it is our coal and iron. Without you, in truth, many of these products must make slow progress. With you the south will bloom as a garden and sparkle as a gold mine, for whether you tickle her fertile fields with a straw or apply the more violent tillage to her fat mountain sides, she is ready to laugh a harvest of untold riches. [Prolonged applause.]

Coe, of New York, moved the adoption of the following resolution: Resolved, That it is in the sense of the American Bankers' Association that compulsory coinage of the standard silver dollar of 412 1/2 grains is against the welfare of the nation; that they recommend to Congress the discontinuation of such coinage, only in such amounts as the demands of the country require.

After a protracted debate this resolution was adopted. A resolution was adopted authorizing the President, Vice President and Executive Council to prepare and digest a plan to be presented to Congress of the National banking business. A resolution of thanks was adopted and the convention adjourned sine die.

A BRIMSTONE BLAST.

The Town of Arcadia, Wisconsin, Shaken Up and Half Suffocated By a Cyclone.

The Air Charged With Sulphur and Electricity Sufficient to Put Out the Lights.

While the Inhabitants Pull Down the Blinds and Scoot For the Cellar.

LA CROSSE, Wis., October 11.—The Republican-Leader has received further details of the terrific cyclone that struck the little town of Arcadia, Trempealeau county, Monday night, doing so much damage to property and injuring several people there and in the county adjoining. None of the injured will die. The storm struck the town at midnight. A correspondent says that it came from the southwest and that upon its appearance the air was so charged with electricity that lights could not be made to burn and the people rushed to their cellars in the darkness in order to avoid the danger which seemed imminent. The entire outdoor atmosphere was of a peculiar sulphuric odor and the deafening roar of the tornado is utterly indescribable. Barns and outbuildings were lifted from their foundations, torn to fragments and scattered promiscuously in all directions. Broken boards, trees, bricks and stones filled the air and were hurled with such violence in some instances as to drive them through the sides of buildings. Among the losers are Patrick Manning and a farmer named Olson, who lost everything—barn, house and outbuildings; value not stated. John Bingham, granary, barn and contents, a 100 tons of hay, four horses and blooded stock, $3,500. John Robertson, house, barn and out buildings destroyed, live stock escaped injury; loss, $2,000. James Savoney, barn, fence, orchard damaged $5,000. State Senator Comstock's saw-mill was destroyed and barn wrecked. There were many other damages, varying from $100 to $1,000. Mrs. Beasley and Miss Phipps, who were the most seriously injured by their falling residence, are considered out of danger. The cyclone seemed to have spent its force upon North Creek valley, doing the usual damage to property, but causing no loss of life.

Wrecked by a Brakeman.

MARSHALL, Tex., October 11.—When the local Texas Pacific passenger train pulled out this morning a new and ignorant brakeman in his haste to get aboard, turned the switch before the trucks passed, throwing the rear coach with passenger down a fifteen foot trestle. Ten persons were injured.
