SAM RANDALL'S prospects for the Speakership have improved by the Ohio election.

Mr. ESTABROOK, JR., has been publishing what he calls Judge Savage's record.

The Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette rises to remark: "An Omaha pastor says the Protestant church embraces three times as many women as men."

When the Republicans endorse a Democratic nominee for judge, it is called "sinking party prejudices in the interest of a competent judiciary."

It will be necessary to overhaul our geographies and revise the statements therein made as to the relative size of the great rivers of the world.

Lieutenant Schwatka has navigated the Yukon for a distance of two thousand miles, and reports it navigable for one thousand miles further.

A change is needed in the county clerk's office of Douglas county which will put a competent official in the shoes now worn by Mr. Baumer.

JUDGE POST'S STANDARD. Judge Post, who was District Judge during the whole time that Hon. M. B. Reese was District Attorney of the Fourth judicial district.

Under our statutes, county clerks are allowed a fixed salary and a proper amount of assistance. A rigid account must be kept of all fees which the law requires to be turned into the county treasury.

Several days ago we sent the following enquiry to County Treasurer Rush and received the accompanying reply:

DEAR SIR: Will you kindly furnish me a statement of amount of fees turned into county treasury by the county clerk during the past two years in accordance with section 42, chapter 28, Compiled Statutes of Nebraska.

DEAR SIR: Answering yours of the present date, asking for the "amount of fees turned into county treasury by the county clerk during the last two years."

Where has the money gone? Is it any wonder that Mr. Baumer is so anxious for a re-election, and that he confidentially informs his friends that making money in the county clerk's office is "just like finding it."

Having complimented Mr. Baumer by electing him to a position which he is not competent to fill he ought now to be retired to his proper business.

THE BEE is a good enough Republican paper to wish the Republican party success in every campaign when a principle is at stake whose support by Republicans is in the interests of honesty, public morals and the public welfare.

GALLIC GALL.

France has never so much needed as at the present time a statesman like Leon Gambetta. Plunged into the most bewildering foreign complications by the blundering of incompetent leaders the republic is floundering helplessly in a sea of troubles from which it will be difficult to extricate her without a loss of her prestige among European nations.

The first mistake was an attempt to seize Annam against the remonstrance of China. The difficulty is not yet adjusted and the prospect of a costly and bloody war are not entirely dissipated.

A RADICAL OF THE RADICALS.

A Lively Letter on the Evils that Menace the Republic.

The G. A. R. and How it Howled for Vandervoort.

Correspondence of THE BEE. WYANDOTT, Kan., October 14.—It has been many long years since anything from my able pen graced your valuable columns, and I don't know that this will and in fact don't particularly care.

Articles of incorporation have been filed with the Secretary of State for the Forty-Seven cattle company, of Indianola. The capital stock is $24,000. J. H. Drinkwater, S. E. Lyon and J. A. Yale, are the incorporators.

A family of five Poles were starting for their home near Platt Center, from Columbus, last Saturday, when the wagon broke down, the horses ran away, and one of the party, a woman, was instantly killed.

The murderers of W. H. Armstrong, of York, were found guilty of "felonious shooting" by the Grand Jury of this county. The Gilmore boys were held under bonds of $25,000 each by Judge Gillin.

The Sidney Plaidmaker has commenced a bushwhacking war on Mr. Clarke's bridge in the neighborhood. It is charged that Clarke gets a rebate on all goods shipped over the U. P. bridge to a freighter.

John Neary, believing that the heroic action of Mrs. Melver in rescuing Mr. Babst from burning buildings was the best thing he had done for her in her life, was so gratified to more substantial recognition than mere commendation, started out with a subscription list last Saturday.

The State Synod of the Presbyterian church met at York Tuesday. The high school is being paid for from a fund at Arapahoe.

The freight receipts at the Hastings office for September were $10,000. The first quarterly conference of the M. E. Church met at Wynona, Saturday.

Henry Bulker is working on a stock company to build a creamery in Falls City. A movement is on foot in Central City to build an opera house to cost $2,500.

The Fremont and Blair railroad is laying steel rails between Blair and Fremont. Fitzgerald, of Lincoln, has the contract to build the Salina branch of the B. & M.

Richard is the name of the station on the U. P. road, the first west of Hastings. A herd of sheep numbering 17,000 passed through Pitts Hill, Polk county, going east.

Red Cloud is enjoying a building boom, wants street lamps, and claims 2,000 inhabitants. W. W. Latta, of Tekamah, has contracted for a monument, costing $450, for the grave of his son.

to turn out rogues and rascals and to redeem the State and country from corrupt party rule. It is Anti-Monopolist enough to lend all its efforts towards the redemption of Nebraska from the hands of the tools and hirelings of the corporations who have masked themselves behind party platforms and entrenched themselves in party organizations for the purpose of controlling our courts, subverting our legislatures and nullifying just laws passed for the relief of the people.

This political creed may be a truth too broad for the calibre of the railroad editors, but it is one which the people have endorsed and will continue to endorse more heartily in the future.
