BLUNDELL'S BREAK.

Mysterious Disappearance of the Assistant Manager of the Nebraska Telephone Company.

A Deficit of One Thousand Dollars Found in His Accounts,

As the Associated Press dispatches yes terday announced to the world the disappearance from Lincoln of A. F. Blundell, the assistant general manager of the Nebraska telephone county, the Bee no longer refrains from mentioning the fact and describing the circumstances, which have been known for several days. Mr, Flemon Drake, the general manager of the Nebraska telephone company, has dell, the assistant general manager of the the Nebraska telephone company, has been in Lincoln since Saturday, examining the accounts and records of the telephone exchange there and he finds them BADLY MIXED.

Mr. Blundell left Lincoln a week ago Wednesday saying to his room-mate that he was going for a visit to Ft. Madison, Iowa, and would perhaps be gone as long as a week. He said he would not tell Mr. Drake that he was going as he might find some work for him to do that would keep him; so he would slip quietly away, An ordinance appropriating the sum of $3,776.25 out of the South Omaha sewer fund, in favor of Wm. He was to return with them to Lincoln, by Tuesday or Wednesday at the latest. Since that time nothing whatever has been heard of him. Manager Drake has examined the books in the telephone effice at Lincoln and finds about one thousand dollars deficit. Parts of the books are models of bookkeeping and other places full of obscurity. What Blundell could have done with the money is the mystery. He was sober, he did not gamble, he was not a man of expensive habits, he had no one When three companies of the Sixth depending on him for support, he was
