The members of the Anti-Monopoly place in nomination a candidate for Regent, vice John H. Ames, withdrawn, and to transact other important busi-J. Burrows, MELROY, Oct. 15. Chairman.

THE shyster workingmen are in clover on election day.

Jason Lewis has donned a bran new suit of clothes. Politics pays some people a good deal better than labor.

How much did Baumer pay for his endorsement by the packed convention of so-called farmers and workingmen?

MR. GLADSTONE plays the accordeon. The unpopularity of the prime minister in certain sections of England is now fully accounted for.

ANOTHER combination has been formed to beat Ben Butler in Massachusetts. A combination to beat brains, brass and Florence. After wrangling for hours, achievements whenever a campaign money must be a good one.

THE Galveston News notes that "Gresham is the only member of the cabint that has no need of recreation. When he wants a rest he sits down on Frank Hatton."

MR. MORTON is wrestling manfully with the tariff through the columns of the Herald, but the tariff will play a very small part in the election of Judge Savage to the Supreme bench.

VANDERVOORT writes that Mr. Gresham offered to reinstate him if he would hand in his resignation at the same time. which he declined to do. It is office, not a vindication, that Paul is after.

THE Demogratic railroad attorneys are cians do very little damage on election

FORTY-ONE trades unions in New Jersey have united in urging the adoption of some plan of arbitration to prevent strikes. That is the true remedy in labor disputes and workingmen all over the country are being rapidly educated to perceive it.

THE joint nomination of Judge Wakeley and Neville in this district was a strong endorsement of the theory of a non-partisan judiciary which THE BEE has for years been urging. The nominations are all the more gratifying, because both candidates have the solid endorse of the bar and the respect of the community in which they reside.

Judge Wakeley was one of the earliest of territorial judges in Nebraska and won respect from both parties at a time when the federal office-holders, with few exceptions, from Governor Black down were even worse than the average of territorial officials. During a long residence in this city he has earned for himself an enviable reputation as one of the ablest lawyers in the west, as a cultured and refined centleman and a valuable citizen. Possessing in a high degree a judicial temperament and mind, and bringing to the position the rich fruits of long years of study and practice, it is little to say that Judge Wakeley is without a superior on any bench in the state. The renomination of Judge Neville was a well deserved compliment. The Judge is well known in Nebraska and especially in the district where he has practiced for a number of years.

THE high tariff advocates in the Republican party and that wing of the Democracy which is led by Mr Randall and backed by Dans, of the New York Sun, will use all their efforts to | revent a reopening of the tariff question at the reassembling of Congress. It is difficult to see how the question can be safely dodged. In spite of the slight reduc tions in the intornal taxes and customs made by the law passed at the last acasion, Congress will be confronted with a Treasury surplus of a hundred and thirty million dollars. What is to be done with it. A continued calling in of bonds will result in a dangerous contraction of tho currency through a forced reduction of the bank circulation. The only sound method of relief lies in reducing excessive rates of duty on imports and in re-

A few years ago a statement went the round of the newspapers showing how nearly all the really valuable public land of our continent had been taken up, and that soon the American pioneer or foreign immigrant would find that Uncle Sam had no longer a farm left to give away Such statements are apt to be received and accepted as fact without question, yet the short period that has elapsed since i was made shows that to-day we know of more good farming land yet unoccupied and open for settlement between the Missouri River and the Pacific than was supposed to be in that entire region at the time that statement was
