To Subvert American Liberty and Distribute Polygamy Over Other Fields?

The Buckram Bishops on the Jordan a Trifle Irritated About Prospective Legislation.

Diversity of Methods Proposed to Equalize the Sexes on the Gentile Plan.

Correspondence of THE BER. SALT LAKE CITY, October 16 .- The mpending anti-Mormon campaign promses to be a vigorous one. The great fear is that it may be over-done. Too much officers and gamblers' ring, may be asked, and, as a result, but little be granted. The measures proposed are numerous and diversified, from martial law for the whole Mormon region to penal polygamist colonies in Alaska. But the paramount question will be, will the American people pay too much for their "whistle," if to suppress Mormon-ism they obliterate all forms of Republi-can Government in one of their terriington has virtually decided that the people living in the territories has no rights which Congress is bound to respect, or Congress has unlimited powers in the civil rights cases. To this some residents in the territories demur. They not rob them of all the rights of American citizenship, especially when the cit-izens of the teritories are doing so muck to develop the resources of our common country. Such argue that Congress can make no law for a Termake for a State. But to return to troit,
