

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. Friday Morning, October 10.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier... Office: 67 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

See Joseph Reiter's fall goods. Bliss' pattern opening Saturday. Additional locals on seventh page. Cheap Railroad Tickets at Bushnell's. Marriage permit was yesterday granted to Samuel Bishop, age 33, and Theresa Cross, age 18, both of Omaha.

There is a large squab in front of the office door of J. C. Hoffman at the City Mills which weighs 169 pounds, and is about six feet and eight inches in circumference. It was raised by Wm. Mason, of this city.

A corn doctor was lodged at the police station Wednesday night. The charge against him was that he was a nuisance. One can hardly go astray in making such a charge as that, as a corn doctor is almost invariably a nuisance.

The Hattenbauer building moved off Broadway yesterday. The rain of the day before stopped operations and the building stood all day on the street car track. Passengers had to transfer themselves around the obstruction.

Charles McDonald, a darkey, threatened to shoot, kill and destroy Mrs. Henderson, also colored, and to emphasize his threats drew a revolver. Mrs. Henderson squealed, not only then, but afterward, and swore out a warrant for his arrest. To-day Charlie will be examined.

Yesterday the Bluff City Hose company received information from the Thurston Hose company of Omaha, that they could not participate in a race next Saturday. Their excuse for thus backing down and failing to run is a recent order from Chief Butler prohibiting paid firemen from leaving the city.

The building recently purchased from J. P. Goulden by the city is being rapidly remodelled and placed in a commodious condition for city business. When completed the mayor, auditor, clerk, marshal and surveyor will have offices there. The second story will be occupied as a court room and for the holding of meetings of the city council.

The new residence of John Linder, of the firm of Linder & Kiel, which is being built on the corner of Washington avenue and Madison street, is being pushed to completion with energy. Herman & Brown have the contract and are running a full force of men. The house is to be supplied with steam heating apparatus and water, and will cost when completed about $5,000.

Next week, October 24, the Baptist State convention of Iowa will meet at Sioux City, Rev. J. I. Lemen, of this city, will probably attend. The Baptist State convention of Michigan, has just adjourned. It passed a resolution endorsing prohibition. Also one condemning the use of tobacco in any form, and recommending Christians to abstain from using, selling or raising it.

Yesterday afternoon a heavy express wagon, which was heavily loaded with trunks, upset on Broadway near the dummy train depot. It was caused by the wagon sliding off an embankment near the new grading. For a moment there was a commotion among the beholders, which subsided when it was learned that no damage was done more than precipitating the trunks and driver in a pool of standing water and mud.

The man John Fehsel, who was injured on the Rock Island road last Monday, is gaining his mind again and is able to converse with his attendants. Roadmaster Cox, of Atlantic, was in the city to-day, and from him it was learned that Fehsel had a wife and daughter living in Atlantic, but both have recently died. Fehsel will probably recover, but his right leg is so badly crushed that it will be months before he will be able to get around.

Dick Frank, son-in-law of Wm. Orr, who resides in Keg Creek township, met with a severe accident yesterday. While Mr. Frank, with his team, was passing through a patent spring gate on his farm, it flew back in such a way as to strike him directly in the face, mashing his nose, knocking out four of his front teeth, and cutting his lip and chin severely. Mr. Frank was brought to the city where Dr. Pinney examined him and dressed the wounds.

Wild ducks are reported by sportsmen to be later coming in this fall than for many years. Tame ducks are reported plenty by several parties who have been out. (Herald.)

Best is authority on this subject, or he ought to be. He went out yesterday loaded with accoutrements, and came home with... He fails to tell just how he settled up the little matter about that decoy duck he ruined, after wasting several charges of ammunition.

After two weeks spent in examining Arnold Jossie for an attempt to blackmail John Nicholson, he was yesterday held for trial in the penal sum of $500. Last evening the money was not forthcoming and he was lodged in jail. An effort is being made to furnish the cash instead of a bond. If the cash is once deposited there is little danger of Jossie appearing for trial. But it will probably teach him a lesson, as he has lost two or three weeks in jail, to which will be added the cash.

Max Mahon, proprietor of the Creston House, has sold up his stock of groceries in the store adjoining the hotel, and measures will immediately be taken to tear down and remove the brick building which has been used as a store-room preparatory to the building of an addition to the hotel. A Bee reporter learned from Mr. Mahon that the new building will be 50x100 feet, three stories and built of brick. Mr. Chas. F. Driscoll, of Omaha, is the architect and has already executed a neat plan for the building.

Some measures should be taken to prohibit boys from jumping on and off the trains, passing from the Transfer to the local depots, and cars moving in the yards. Yesterday a boy while attempting to jump on a train which was just leaving the transfer, failed to get a firm grip on the train and was thrown to the ground with great violence. What injuries he sustained was not learned. The train men say that it is impossible to keep them off although they have been put off, pulled off, and kicked off. Perhaps after being cut in two they will cease such tricks. In some of the large cities there is an ordinance against this and it is rigidly enforced.

At the recent meeting of the city council a resolution was passed to fill up Broadway to grade from Sixth street to Eleventh street at the expense of the abutting property owners. By this order the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad company are not compelled to raise their west of the tracks, so that there is no ordinance in regard to filling Broadway west of that street. For what reason the company is thus favored we cannot say. They certainly ought to be required to raise their tracks to grade, and to do this fall. Broadway is already graded west of the tracks, so that there is just this one block where the tracks are laid that has not been ordered up to grade.

Broken hearts, doctor bills and funeral expenses can be averted by using Dr. Joffria Council Bluffs Preventive and Cure for Diphtheria in all cases of sore throat. Keep it on hand.

ANOTHER VERDANT VICTIM. He Only Paid $70 for His Experience.

Wednesday morning a young farmer living near Dunlap gained a little experience in the way of the world which cost him $70.

Verdant Green was riding on the C. & N. W. R. R. when he was approached by two well dressed persons, one of which passed on, the other stopping to speak with him. Mr. Sleek asked Mr. Green where he was going and was informed that Dunlap was where he lived. Sleek proposed that they travel together but could not tell how far as he had left his pocketbook at the house of a friend, by mistake, and had not money enough to carry him through.

He told the farmer that he was engaged in the mercantile business at Dunlap, and had just bought a bill of goods, and still owed the amount of $70, and if he could not meet some one from Dunlap, he would be obliged to stop before reaching that place. The farmer desiring the company of the young man, immediately gave him $70 and took a check in return as security to the amount of $1,330. The stranger expressed his regrets at leaving a check for such an amount in the hands of a stranger, but thought the farmer had an honest face and he could trust him. He immediately left the farmer to pay his creditor, and not returning as soon as he agreed to, the farmer became a little uneasy, and, on making inquiries, found that his friend had got off the train some distance back. The game was then exposed, and the conductor notified. In conversation with other parties the farmer gave up the check which he held without even knowing the name of the party to whom he gave it.

Our prices are "solemn truths" to some people. BOSTON TEA CO. A Convention For the purpose of organizing a prisoners' Aid association for Iowa, will be held in the Baptist church of Des Moines, beginning at 2 p. m., October 31, 1883.

The general object of the proposed association will be the prevention and cure of crime, but its leading purpose will probably be to extend to the 600 or more prisoners biennially discharged from our State prisons such aid and encouragement as may be necessary to help them to honest employment and an honest life. Addresses have been promised as follows: 1. "Some Sources of Crime," Rev. C. F. Williams, Keokuk. 2. "How Far Can a Purely Secular Education be Relied Upon to Prevent Crime and Promote Good Morals?" Rev. J. B. Stewart, D. D., Des Moines. 3. "The Duty of a Christian State to its Criminals," Rev. J. M. Sturtevant, Jr., D. D., Grinnell. 4. "The Possibility of Reforming Criminals," Mrs. Anna Merrill, Chaplain, Anamosa. 5. "Need and Possible Work of the Proposed Prisoners' Aid Association," Rev. W. C. Gunn, Chaplain, Ft. Madison.

Hon. R. W. McClaughey, Warden at Joliet, Ill., and perhaps other public men who have been invited will also address the convention. All the railroads entering Des Moines will return delegates for one-third fare. The Aborn and Kirkwood and probably other houses will give reduced rates of board.

This is a mass convention and all, both ladies and gentlemen, who feel sufficiently interested to come, are invited. F. M. MAHON, E. H. ELY, F. M. MAHON, F. L. KENYON, S. J. BECK, CHAS. W. FABRANT, Committee.

Seiford, part of sw/4 of sec. 1, 25, 84, 33; $485. J. T. Hart to J. J. Bartlett, part of ne/4, 20, 85, 43; $2,500. John A. Wiese to C. J. H. Elders, n/2 of nw/4, 12, 77, 41; $2,300. M. Dr. West, dentist, 14 Pearl street. 222 Broadway, Council Bluffs.

BUSINESS OF THE BOARD.

The Court House and Jail to be repaired.

Yesterday noon the Board of Supervisors completed the business of this session and adjourned. Besides canvassing the votes cast at the late election they allowed a goodly number of accounts, and passed upon the advisability of laying out several new roads, and building new county bridges.

Quite a number of the citizens of Keg Creek and Lewis township appeared before the board and asked that their taxes for 1883 be remitted as provided for in Sec. 800, Code of Iowa, they having lost their crops by hail. Action was deferred until the meeting of the board in January, 1884.

F. A. Phillips, overseer of the poor for Kane township presented his report showing that he had paid out $40 since the last meeting of the board.

S. B. Fram reported that as ordered by the board, he had let the pauper practice in Knox, Valley and Pleasant townships to Dr. F. A. Xanter for $75 per year until September, 1884.

Some of the most important as well as the most interesting work of the session was transacted yesterday forenoon, among which was the appointment of Messrs. Underwood and Phillips a special committee to have the court house properly repaired and a new roof placed upon the same, and also to have the jail thoroughly renovated and the cells placed in a condition for the safe keeping of prisoners. In order that persons living at Avoca and intermediate points might have communication with the county officers, the auditor was instructed to have placed in his office a telephone for the use of the county officers.

M. D. Hardin was elected overseer of the poor, and his salary fixed at $50 per month. His competitor for this position was W. L. Biggs. Just before adjourning Messrs. Kirkwood, Trueman and Underwood presented and passed the following fitting and appropriate resolutions:

Resolved, That we tender to Messrs. Clayton and Phillips, the retiring members of this board, for their uniform kindness and consideration towards those associated with them officially, and that we desire hereby to express our hearty appreciation of the high character, strict integrity, impartiality, zeal and the faithful performance of all official duties, which have distinguished them in the discharge of the arduous and responsible duties pertaining to their positions as members of the board of supervisors, and which have won for them the confidence, respect and esteem not only of their associates, but also of all others brought in contact with them in their official relations.

F. Benjamin, E. A. Babcock and many others residing at Avoca petition for the placing of a telephone in the court house in order that communication might be had with the county officers and save the necessity of frequent trips to Council Bluffs, which petition was favorably considered and the auditor instructed to place one in his office for the benefit of the officers of the court house.
