CHARLIE ROSS.

Henry Mosher Claims That If He Were Given Time He Could Produce the Misan.

THE CONDITIONS OF INTERTEMPERANCE.

From "The Alcohol Habit," by Dr. Felix L. Oswald, in Popular Science Monthly for November.

It is a significant fact that in every civilized country of this earth drunkenness is rarest among the classes who have other and better congenial resources. In the United States, where the "almighty dollar" confers unlimited privileges, the well-to-do people are the most temperate in the world, the poor the most intemperate.
