Leaving the Republican party, where they were no longer tolerated, the railroad politician and railroad manager have taken full control of the Democratic organization, and have carried the war into Africa by assuming an almost absolute power among the Anti-Monopoliststhemselves. The people of this State, without respect to party, should this fall once and for all times rise in their might and put down these ambitious and scheming nonopoly politicians and wireworkers, and they can do this only by giving the Republican ticket a sweeping and emphatic majority. Thanksgiving Proclamation,
